HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, December 1, 1955

The House met at 1:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Luthern Church, York, offered the following prayer:

O Christ, Thou eternal Dayspring from on High, make our minds sanctuaries of Thy light and truth as we launch out into the deep sea of life's experience and service today.

We thank Thee for these Legislators gathered together in this great assembly of free people. Here in these men and women we behold different gifts, talents, abilities, temperments, moods, philosophies, creeds, races. O Lord, sanctify each one with Thy peace and presence so that when a final verdict is reached and legislation is made on given policies, Thy revealed glory may be reflected and an added blessing may be given to free men.

This is the petition of our souls that we lift to Thy Throne of Grace, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE BILL NON-CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has non-concurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to Senate bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 785.

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Department of Public Instruction for two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred fifty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred fifty-five and making appropriations to the Department of Public Instruction for reimbursements to school districts

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insists on its amendments nonconcurrent in by the Senate.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to explain to the membership just what this bill is that we have up now for a nonconcurrence vote.

It is Senate Bill 785. If you recall, back on October 12th, I believe it was, the bill came over from the Senate, which called for school subsidy payments in the amount of $421 million together with $31 million added to the bill, which would provide a $150 a year raise for school teachers. On the floor of the House here on October 14th this House amended the bill by adding some $110 million worth of amendments to the bill.

We on the Republican side did not go along with the amendments because we wanted the bill passed that evening or the next day without amendments so it could be put on the Governor's desk and signed and so that the school teachers could receive their money during November and early December at the latest.

For some reason the Democratic side of the House and the Democratic high command insisted on this bill being loaded-down with these amendments so that it would not be able to pass and be placed on the Governor's desk.

The bill went back to the Senate with the $110 million in amendments, and the Senate chose not to go along with the House amendments because they wanted the House to recede from their amendments, so that the bill even then could be immediately placed on the Governor's desk, so that if the School Districts could not receive all their money six per cent of it could be sent out immediately.

Now, the motion today should be that this House recede from its amendments totalling $110 million, so that this bill could go to the Governor today and so that he could sign the bill and checks could be made out and the schools could get their money.

You have a motion here now wherein you say the House shall insist on its amendments. If further delayed, we will have a conference committee with the Senate and goodness knows when the schools will get their money.

I stated here on the 14th of October that we Republicans were not holding up this school subsidy bill, we were ready and willing that day to pass the bill, to put it on the Governor's desk. I know there is a feeling statewide that we Republicans are obstructionists and are holding up this school subsidy bill. But that is not true. We have not held it up five minutes. If you had done what we wanted you to do in October, the schools would have their money now and we, the Legislature, would not be criticized the way we are throughout Pennsylvania by denying the schools this money.

I further pointed out that there would be $900 million worth of taxes coming into this state of ours during this biennium, whether we pass another tax bill or not. Therefore, there is some money, if not ample money, to pay the schools at least a token payment, so that the school teachers can be paid in December.

I have told the Majority Leader that today we will go along and insist on your amendments so that a conference committee can be appointed.

Why? Because as of today if we say that we want to recede from our amendments and don't go along with you, with the token House we have here today, it will further delay the bill, will further delay the conference committee and will further delay the taking care of our obligations to our schools.

Therefore, I am asking the Republican side of the House, even though we went against the amendments when they were first put in, we must now vote to insist on the amendments so that an early conference committee can be appointed so that the schools will get their money.

I, therefore, ask the Republican side of the House to vote for the motion made by Mr. Readinger, that we insist on the amendments, so that the schools will get their money by reason of a conference report which we hope will come very soon.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I am very glad the gentleman from McKean has told us that the Republican side of the House will support us in our position.

However, the statements he made on the 14th of October and again today are so erroneous that I feel it my duty at this time to bring out the true facts.

As I stated, on the 14th of October, when we were considering the amendments to Senate Bill 785, the Senate had completely eliminated the item of transportation, which amounts to $29,761,000. Our amendments put that back in, and I think very properly, Mr. Speaker, because those amounts due for transportation are the most overdue.

There is presently due for transportation reimbursement, it was due in September of 1955, $14,171,865. The gentleman from McKean does not seem disturbed about that item. I do not think he is any more disturbed today than he has been in the past.

I am going to give you the manner in which these transportation payments have been paid. You would think that we were holding them up, we have been accused of holding them up. Just look at the record. The payment due in September of 1952 for transportation reimbursement was paid on May 6, 1953; the payment due in September of 1953, for transportation reimbursement was paid on April 8, 1954, and the payment due in September of 1954 for transportation reimbursement was paid on February 9, 1955—this year.

I think that we should do first things first. The transportation payment was due first. It affects the rural districts more than any other place, and I think those are the districts that are hardest hit. I think it was very important and I think it was very proper that we put back the transportation into Senate Bill 785 and that we now insist upon our amendments.

I am going to read what the gentleman from McKean said, it is on page 4266 of the Legislative Journal of October 14th. He said, and I quote:

"Actually the money is available for this bill today. What we should do is to forget about these amendments. Let us pass this bill as is, put it on the Governor's desk and have it be signed so that the school people will get their money now and early in November * * *"

"The money is there. Let us not worry about a tax program for that because we have the money, we have $907 million."

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman was talking about the estimated yield of the taxes on the books. That is true, it is approximately $907 million, but the gentleman well knows that is the amount that is estimated to be received from now until May 31, 1957. That money is not available now, and he knows it is not available now.

Let us look again at the record. The day he was speaking when he said we had the money and all we needed to do was to pass this bill and put it on the Governor's desk, what was the financial condition of the Commonwealth?

Here are the official figures of the General Fund balance from the Treasurer of Pennsylvania on that date. On October 14, 1955, there was a balance of $19,216,412.13 in the General Fund. At the close of business yesterday, November 30, 1955, there was a balance of $15,734,413.29.

I do not know what kind of a financial wizard he may be, but if he can tell me how we are going to pay approximately 130-some-odd million dollars due the schools with a cash balance, which is dangerously low, of approximately $15 million, if he can tell me how we are going to pay these bills, I would like to hear it.

I will say further, Mr. Speaker, on the borrowing power that he well knows, he mentioned it on October 14th, we have already borrowed $60 million, which would leave approximately $30 million that could be borrowed. Even if we borrowed that and even if we converted every cash investment of the General Fund into cash, which would take approximately 30 days, we would not begin to have enough money to make these payments that are due.

I am very much concerned about this because a great number of school directors and school administrators have talked to me and they said, "What about this $907 million that Mr. Johnson says is there to pay the bills? What is the matter with you people down there that you won't pass this bill and let it be paid?"

Mr. Speaker, I turn to page 4263 of the Journal and I find the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, I will quote, said as follows:

"Governor Leader has decreed that there will not be any payments to any school districts until he gets his tax program through this Legislature."

Turning to page 4264 of the Journal, the gentleman said in speaking of getting the money for the schools and I quote:

"There are two steps, and two very simple steps, required to permit this state to meet its obligations to our schools without defaulting in any sense of the word. First, enactment by this House of Senate Bill 785 in the form in which it was reported from the Appropriations Committee yesterday. That is the first step. The second step is that Governor Leader's signature has to be put on the bill. That is all that is necessary to make this money available to the schools, and he knows it."

Mr. Speaker, the figures I am giving were not pulled out of the air, they are official figures that any one can verify.

I am going to give you the amounts of money that are now due and past due.

For instruction, or for the normal reimbursement for teachers' salaries, as it is generally known, there is due and payable in October of this year to the fourth class school districts of Pennsylvania, that is the small, usually rural districts, $43,292,967. There is due the first, second and third class districts of Pennsylvania, payable in November of this year, $52,742,895. There was due in September of this year for transportation reimbursement $14,171,865. There are tuition payments of $13 million due, vocational payments of $1,930,143, state public school building authority rentals of $3,314,446 and for reimbursement to the municipal authorities for school rentals $4,747,750. I think that is in excess of $130 million that is now due. As to the last four items there is no date specified when they are due, that is tuition, vocational, educational rentals and municipal authority rentals, but they are normally paid when the proper reports and certifications are in.

So we are faced with a problem of payments to the schools of over $130 million with a cash balance of a little over $15 million and with a borrowing capacity of approximately $30 million. I cannot see how the gentlemen on the other side can lay the blame for this situation at the door of the Democratic administration.

Mr. Speaker, if anyone wants to verify the figures I have given, they can readily verify them because they are available to any Member of this House and any citizen of this Commonwealth. I am convinced they are correct.

As to the question of taxes which the gentleman mentioned, he said he was trying to get a tax program over, the question of taxes is vital because we did pass and if the Senate passed either the classified income tax program or the excise tax program which is now before them, we would have a borrowing capacity of at least $40 or $45 million, and with the $30 million that we have we could make partial payments to the school districts of Pennsylvania. The gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, said today that this money could be paid and token payments could be made. Actually, the cash balance of this Commonwealth is at the danger point now. Fiscal experts have told us—and I am quoting the State Treasurer—that we should have a normal operating balance of around $40 to $50 million.

So, I say, Mr. Speaker, if the Senate of Pennsylvania had passed this bill 1595, a lot of delay would have been saved. It could have been back over here and this other bill would not have been necessary. But that would not solve the fiscal problem of Pennsylvania, it would not make the money available to the schools of Pennsylvania. The schools of Pennsylvania cannot be paid because the money is not available due to our failure to pass a tax program.

Mr. Speaker, I would say it would appear that we are holding these up, that we are delinquent. I am just going to give you the records again of when they were paid in the past.

In 1952 the payments for reimbursement to fourth class school districts due in October were made December 5, 1952. We have not yet reached that date. That was certainly a normal year, there was no tax problem, the Legislature was not even in session, but they were not paid until December 5, 1952, although they were due in October.

We will go to 1953. The payments due in October, 1953—they did a little better that year—were paid on November 19, 1953.

We will take last year, 1954. That was certainly a normal year, there was no Legislature in session, there was no tax problem to my knowledge. The payments due in October were paid on November 30, 1954.

We will take the first, second and third class school districts. The payments due in November, 1952, were paid on December 15, 1952.

In 1953 they did just about the same. The payments were due in November and they paid them December 15, 1953.

In 1954 they were due in November and they paid them December 3, 1954.

Mr. Speaker, I say to this House that the real reason—and I think the people of Pennsylvania are entitled to know the real reasons—these schools payments cannot be made and have not been made is due to the opposition of the Minority party in this House and the Majority party of the Senate, and their failure to concur in the tax program.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I just want to make a short reply.

The SPEAKER. I think the Chair does not offend against the proprieties if he suggests that so far as is humanly possible we, none of us, endeavor to make political capital out the unhappy situation that now confronts us.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate your remarks.

The only thing I would say, having been home in rural Pennsylvania and having been button-holed by the average man on the street, I think he does have a feeling that there is culpability on both sides and—

The SPEAKER. The Chair was in no way reproaching the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson.

Mr. JOHNSON. I just want to say in short answer to Mr. Polen, granted that on October 19th there was $19 million cash in bank, he admits they had a borrowing power of $30 million, which, if they would exercise it, would make $49 million in the bank. I am not saying they should pay the schools the whole $49 million. If there is $42 million due, a check for $15 million to the schools now in December would certainly come in mighty handy to them.

We were informed, as Mr. Polen has pointed out, that it has been the policy to pay the transportation payments after the first of the year generally. Therefore, we were not excited about the transportation payments, but the important payment was the subsidy payment payable in November and some in December. I will grant you that.

We still say that back in October with that bill in front of us we could have put it on the Governor's desk and funds certainly could have been found to have made a token payment, or one or two token payments, to the school districts now before the first of the year.

I did not say the state had $907 million cash in bank. I said that existing taxes will bring in $907 million during this biennium. I believe I have a figure that approximately $20 million a month is coming in right now from taxes. Of course, on March 15th and in April the tremendously large corporate tax payments will be coming in. I do not think that that is any excuse for the fact that you did not have the money. I think good husbandry would call for the state to borrow the money to make these payments at 1.1 per cent instead of our school districts being forced to borrow at 6 per cent as a lot of them do on short term paper.

Therefore, I reiterate that we should have done this job in October, and I am sure that the money would have been found either through borrowing or through obtaining a part of the cash in the bank, to help the schools out before Christmas.

Therefore, I still request the Republican side of the House to vote for the motion made by Mr. Readinger for the reasons stated.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Members of the House for the temper with which this discussion was conducted.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, in regard to House Bill 257, when that measure came before this body on two different occasions, I voted in the negative. On September 27th, it was before us on final passage, and on October 13th. The report has been erroneously circulated in my constituency that I changed my vote before the completion of the roll call. I take this occasion emphatically to deny that report.

RESOLUTION TO SUPPLY LOST BILL

Mr. LEONARD offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December , 1955.

Resolved, That Senate Bill No. 467, Printer's No. 195, entitled:

"An Act providing for the creation and incorporation as municipal corporations of joint service districts by cities of the third class, boroughs, towns and townships to carry out certain of their municipal functions, prescribing the officers and powers and duties of such districts and the duties of participating municipalities; and conferring jurisdiction on courts of quarter sessions in connection therewith."

having been referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special in the House of Representatives, September 1, 1955, and the official copy thereof cannot be found, the Chief Clerk of the House is directed to request the Senate to furnish to the House Committee on Judiciary

Special a certified copy thereof, which shall be substituted for the original.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I have requested permission to address the House for just a moment to advise the Members who are still here that we are going to have a session next Monday afternoon at 4:30, which is the usual time for our meeting. We expect to work Monday and Tuesday and possibly Wednesday.

It is unfortunate that there were quite a few absentees this week due to the fact that we saw fit to meet on Wednesday and Thursday instead of the usual time, due to the opening of the hunting season on Monday.

While it may have been a noble experiment, I am afraid we are not going to try it anymore. It seems as though when we meet on days other than day the Members have become accustomed to, we have difficulty getting them to rearrange their affairs and to come here.

I think it is quite understandable that some of our Members who have businesses and fixed programs find it difficult to make those rearrangements. So I say it is doubtful that in the future we will meet on any days other than the usual Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and occasionally including Thursday.

It is the intention of my office to have a letter sent through the Chief Clerk's office to every Member today, advising them that the session will be held at 4:30 next Monday.

I presume the Republican Party will have its caucus at the usual time, and if it desires that information to be inserted in the letter it will be done.

The Democratic Members will caucus at the usual time of 2:30 next Monday.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might observe that we read in the book that Nimrod was a mighty hunter. In these days I think it is far more noble to be a good legislator than to be a noble hunter.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I should have added in my comments that the session tomorrow morning will be a consent session at 11:00 a. m. instead of 10:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER. Since when have we gone into consent sessions?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. You seem to have a dead one here. I am anxious to find out what kind of a consent session we are going to have, I mean the Legislature.

The SPEAKER. Which was dead, the telephone or the man?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Well, after sitting through these two sessions, I think the man is, probably. I was just wondering, is the Majority Leader fooling or kidding about a consent session tomorrow? Is it just to move up first reading bills?

Mr. READINGER. Simply to move up bills.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. It's strictly consent.

Mr. READINGER. Well, today's session is a persuasive consent calendar.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I just wanted to know the differences between the two consent sessions. I thank the Majority Leader.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. GAFFNEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Friday, December 2, 1955 at 11:00 a. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 3:13 p. m.) the House adjourned.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Speaker has referred the following resolutions:

By Messrs. CIANFRANI, KOLANKIEWICZ, GAFFNEY, Mrs. MUNLEY, Mr. NEEDHAM, Mrs. VARALLO, MESSRS. SCARCELLI, AMARANDO, DOUGHERTY, GRANVILLE E. JONES, HEAVEY, LIMPER, TOLL, and PACCHIOLI. RESOLUTION No. 131.

In the House of Representatives, December 1, 1955.

The State Board of Medical Education and Licensure of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania issued a ruling on December 13, 1951 to accept for internship and licensure in Pennsylvania only graduates from foreign medical schools that are recommended for approval by a recognized accrediting agency such as the American Medical Association. The credentials of each applicant, however, must be evaluated and approved by the board even though the medical school has been recommended for approval by the American Medical Association.

Since the end of World War II, Pennsylvania has not recognized the medical doctor diplomas of the Italian medical schools, although the neighboring states of New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and the states of Illinois and California do recognize such diplomas.

Italian universities admit to medical schools American students who have passed a very careful screening.

The ruling of the Pennsylvania State Board of Medical Education and Licensure imposes financial burdens, hardships and many inconveniences on future doctors who have obtained medical education in Italy; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives protests the regulation and ruling of the State Board of Medical Education and Licensure as being unreasonable and discriminatory; and be it further

Resolved, That a committee of five members of the House of Representatives be appointed by the Speaker of the House to investigate the policies, methods and practice of the State Board of Medical Education and Licensure with respect to acceptance for internship and licensure of graduates of foreign medical schools; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee make a report of its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly as soon as possible.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. FRANK and BARNATOVICH.

RESOLUTION No. 132.

In the House of Representatives, November 30, 1955.

The manufactured products of Pennsylvania business concerns have long commanded the respect and admiration of those persons who demand quality of material and expert workmanship.

To the citizens of Pennsylvania it is of the utmost importance that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and its agencies procure high quality manufactured products and other merchandise when purchasing material and supplies for public works. Such items are most frequently the results of Pennsylvania industry and Pennsylvania workmanship.

The purchase of manufactured products, materials and supplies in Pennsylvania helps to maintain the prosperity of Pennsylvania business, the well being and continued employment of Pennsylvania skilled craftsmen and other workmen, and goes far towards guaranteeing high quality material and workmanship; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Department of Property and Supplies and other agencies and instrumentalities of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are hereby requested by this House of Representatives to give preference whenever possible within the existing mandates and specifications of law, to products, materials and supplies manufactured in Pennsylvania.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. FRANK and BARNATOVICH.

RESOLUTION No. 133.

In the House of Representatives, November 30, 1955.

The union label has become recognized as the hallmark of quality in this country.

Unions are not only the guardians of the rights of prerogatives of their members, but have reached such stature that union made merchandise is continuously proven to be superior in craftsmanship, quality, design and utility.

Clothing, furniture office supplies, building material and other products and supplies made by union workmen are the results of the efforts of the best trained and most efficient and skilful workmen which this country has been able to produce, working ever more cooperatively and peaceably with management, and in an atmosphere of mutual respect and confidence with modern, enlightened, and enterprising employers; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives hereby requests the Department of Property and Supplies and other State and public agencies and instrumentalities to give proper consideration to the importance of purchasing union made and union labelled materials, supplies and products for public works and buildings and other public enterprises.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE

MONDAY, December 5, 1955.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. PENNOD L. DUNLAP, Pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Steelton, offered the following prayer:

May we bow our heads in a moment of silence in tribute of respect to the passing of Senator Davis?

(Observance of moment of silence.)

Rev. DUNLAP. Our Father in Heaven, we come to Thee today mindful of the fact that Thou art God and besides Thee there is no other. O God, as we come to ask Thy blessing upon this Assembly, we do not come because it is customary, but because each of us feels the deep need of Thee. We realize that we can do nothing apart from Thee. We pray that Thou wouldst have mercy.

We pray for the President of our United States, Mr. Eisenhower. We ask that Thou wouldst give him health; make him know that Thou canst give to him the wisdom necessary to lead this Government.

We pray for the Governor of this State. We ask that he will be shown, through Thy wisdom, that the government is upon the shoulders of Jesus Christ and that to him will be given the wisdom and the knowledge to lead his people rightly.

Make these Senators today mindful of the fact that they are here to do business for Thee, in the Name of Jesus. Make them see that they have a responsibility to the people whom they serve, to Thee, O God, and to themselves.

Bless, we pray thee, the bereaved family of the Senator. Help them, through the comforting words of Thy word, to know that Thou art too merciful to be unjust, too wise to err and too loving to be unkind.

Bless this deliberation, we ask Thee, in the Name of Jesus, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. LANE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

REMARKS BY MAJORITY LEADER UPON THE DEATH OF SENATOR WILLIAM H. DAVIS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, just a week ago we, in this Senate, witnessed the swearing-in ceremonies of Senator William H. Davis. At that time, we were all impressed with the gentleman who had been recently elected. We were also impressed with the host of friends who accompanied him to Harrisburg to witness the swearing-in ceremonies, and also the fine tribute of flowers which we saw here last Monday, in honor of the lately departed Senator William H. Davis.

We were all shocked a short time ago to find that death had once again entered our midst and taken from us one of our Members, Senator Davis, who expired and left this mortal life about 1:00 o'clock today.

Therefore, Mr. President, our present plan is to have a meeting of the Finance Committee, and eliminate the consideration of today's Calendar and then adjourn shortly thereafter in respect to our lately departed brother.

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I now move that the Senate do take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of holding a meeting of the Committee on Finance.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President. I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

PRAYER

Reverend Charles L. Delaney, Jr., Assistant Pastor, Christ Lutheran Church, York, guest Chaplain, offered the following prayer:

Our Father and Our God:

We, Thy servants, do give Thee most hearty thanks that Thou has called us to serve Thy people.

We ask that Thou would be in the midst of us now as we set our hearts and minds to that which has become our responsibility.

As Thou knowest the needs of all men, everywhere, we ask that Thou would impart to us an extra measure of Thy Grace and Wisdom in order that this assembly may be the means of enriching the life of this great Commonwealth.

Keep ever before us the faith and trust of those whom we serve, and make us ever worthy of that trust, that has brought us where we are.

We thank Thee, Our Father, for the great gift of Freedom. But, lest we become complacent and indifferent to the ways of free men, we ask that Thou would stand as a guard against any thought or action that would lead us to speak or act against the freedom which Thou has entrusted to our care.

Therefore, we ask that Thou would strengthen us where we are weak; Enlighten us where there is doubt; guide us lest we go astray.

All this we pray that in the days to come we may look back and say, surely Thou has been with us in all things.

And, again we pray that what we accomplish here may be an inspiration to men everywhere, especially those in other lands who look to us for the deeper meanings of freedom.

Continue to teach us through our experiences in this assembly that we may be worthy to be called Thy faithful servants and to glorify thy Holy Name through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Our Lord. Amen.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. AGNEW asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Today marks the history-making merger of the C.I.O. and the A.F.L. This is perhaps the most significant economic event of the century. It deserves at least brief comment today in this House.

I am certain that every member of this House joins me in extending my congratulations to labor on this merger and my best wishes for its complete success.

Speaking as one who is opposed by labor politically and who has no hope or desire for a political endorsement by labor, perhaps it is even more appropriate that I should be the one to make these remarks and extend congratulations.

Labor leaders now have a tremendous opportunity, a real challenge, to help build a more sound and stable national economy. I believe that this marriage will give birth to a more productive economy, less labor strife and greater industrial freedom. The product of this union should be, and I believe will be, a re-dedication by labor to the traditional principles of the private enterprise system.

This merger represents increased stature for the labor movement, together with greater perogatives and greater responsibilities. The child conceived by Samuel Gompers has attained the wisdom and dignity of its adult years.

It is my hope and my belief that this merger will be of great benefit to the workingmen, the national economy and the general welfare of all our people.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 949, as follows:

An Act amending the act of March 10 1949 (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" providing for courses of study in first aid and home nursing to be included during the last four years of any complete high school program.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

L. 28) known as the "State Council of Civil Defense Act of 1951" as amended. The minimum time to be devoted to such courses of study and to the practical and theoretical instruction given therein shall be prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction based upon the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall direct a course of study to be prepared to assist school districts in complying with the provisions of this section.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WHITENIGHT. Mr. Speaker, this bill simply provides for courses of study in first-aid and home nursing to be included during the last four years of any complete high school program. A question has been asked me as to how this program can be adopted into the present school extra curricular. I wish to answer this by stating that this program is flexible in its application and it appoints a superintendent of the school to work out a satisfactory schedule.

I feel that this bill is vital to civil defense as well as to any public emergency. The Department of Public Instruction and Civil Defense have each studied this bill and cleared it with the Chairman on the Committee on Education.

I ask all the Members of this House to support this bill.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman please?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montour permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITENIGHT. Yes, I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, while we have no real objection to this bill, I would like to find out, does the gentleman from Montour know how much money this is going to cost the Commonwealth?

Mr. WHITENIGHT. I am under the impression, Mr. Speaker, that this bill will cost no money. However, if this isn't answered clearly enough for the gentleman, Mr. McCann the Committee Chairman will answer it.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Would I not be right that this would be considered a teaching unit?

Mr. WHITENIGHT. Well, I would say a course, just a course.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Well, it would be my understanding, Mr. Speaker, and I think we are right, if anyone on the other side would care to correct me they may do so, that it would require a teacher, and therefore, would be a teaching unit, would be under direct subsidy by the state and would come under the subsidy program that the state now has, I feel that by doing that it is going to cost the state a considerable amount of money. While the principle is perfectly all right, I do think that we should have some answer from someone, or it should go to Appropriations Committee so that we would know the amount of money that this is going to cost the state, because if we have the right information we feel it will be quite a considerable amount.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Montour yields to the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker in regard to this particular bill that the Minority Leader is debating as to the cost, the bill is now written in such a manner that the courses which are incorporated in this law are part of the same health course now in the school without any additional cost in the operating of any course in school.

I should also enlighten the House by telling you that the new version of the bill, the present Printer's number, is a compromise amendment between the Director of the State Civil Defense and the Acting Superintendent of Public Instruction. If you will notice, the bill went back to committee and was amended in its present form, and in every secondary school you have physical education or health courses. This is part of the time within that course, Mr. Speaker. There are no additional teacher units required in the present bill. I have that in writing. Is that the question that was asked?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. It is, Mr. Speaker. Am I to believe that all we are doing here is setting up the curricula for a school?

Mr. McCANN. You are, upon the necessary books which will be at that time available, presented by the Superintendent of Public Instruction upon his approval. You have no actual book even at the present time for that particular course. If you notice that you will see that, sir.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Then we are being assured, Mr. Speaker, that under the gentleman's understanding there will be no additional teachers or no additional teaching units if this bill passes?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I have the information that this does not require any additional teaching units nor any additional teachers that now exist in the schools. I asked that specific question and was given the same answer I am giving the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I thank the gentleman. That answers our question, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1562 as follows:

An Act amending the act of April 12, 1951 (P. L. 90) entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors alcohol and malt and brewed beverages amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto regulating and restricting the manufacture purchase sale possession consumption importation transportation furnishing holding in bond holding in storage traffic in and use of alcoholic liquors alcohol and malt and brewed beverages and the persons engaged or employed therein defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships for the abatement of certain nuisances and in certain cases for search and seizure without warrant prescribing penalties and forfeitures providing for local option and repealing existing laws" redefining the term "population"

Section 1 The definition "population" of section 102 act of April 12, 1951 (P. L. 90) known as the "Liquor Code" is amended to read

Section 102 Definitions The following words or phrases unless the context clearly indicates otherwise shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section

"Population" shall mean the population as determined by the last preceding decennial census of the United States or by any census taken and certified to by any municipality or the United States Bureau of Census

* * *

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, this House Bill 1562 concerns the definition of the word "population" in connection with the Liquor Control Law.

You will note on page 2 that "population" means, "the population as determined by the last preceding decennial census of the United States," which means that in connection with determining the number of licensees in any community they shall take the population as decided in 1950.

In this bill we are amending the law so that "population" will mean not merely the census taken by the United States on a ten-year basis, but any census taken and certified to by any municipality or by the United States Bureau. In other words, the community will have the choice of asking the United States Department of Census to take the census or the community can take its own census.

I want to call your attention to the fact that in the last five years many communities have increased in population. In fact, in the Philadelphia Inquirer of a day or two ago they showed the changes in the population of the eastern end of Pennsylvania from 1950 to 1955.

Take Bucks County, for example. In 1950 Bucks County had 44,000 people; in 1955 Bucks County has 69,000 people. I suppose that is the big influx into Levittown. There is an increase of 25,000 people.

Delaware County in 1950—if the Delaware County gentlemen will listen, I will give them the latest figures—had 116,935; now Delaware County has 142,410—no, that is wrong, I know that Delaware County has 400,000, this is the population increase.

In 1950 the population increase in Montgomery County was 96,000; in 1955 the population increase was 121,000.

In other words, when you have communities with such a large increase of population—you take, for instance, the City of Chester has had a very large increase of population—this would give the community an opportunity to take its own census and thereby acquire new licenses for the community if the community so desires.

I want to tell you one more thing about a community in Allegheny County in Western Pennsylvania that applied for a license and was turned down by the Liquor Control Board. The court in Allegheny County reversed the Liquor Control Board and granted permission for the issuance of a license, although then it was appealed to the appellate court. In that particular community the census was taken by the school directors and there was no question that the census was authentic. It was taken by reliable people, teachers, as a matter of fact. The school directors engaged seventeen enumerators, ten were teachers, one was the husband of a teacher, two were housewives and four were college students. The number of inhabitants of Bethel Borough was determined to be 16,337 and there was absolutely no dispute as to the authenticity of this census.

I cannot see any reason why a community would have to apply to the United States Census Bureau and wait two or three years until they finally get around to doing the job when the municipalities right here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have the equipment and the personnel with which to do a good job.

If you approve this bill you will give every community in Pennsylvania an opportunity to determine its own census in order to decide whether they want to have more licenses. I hope you will vote for the bill.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Toll.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Toll, permit himself to be interrogated?

Md. TOLL. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman just referred to a lower court decision, I believe in Allegheny County, that held in effect it was not necessary that the Federal census be used to determine whether or not the quota is filled. Is that correct?

Mr. TOLL. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, that case is now being appealed to the Superior Court of Pennsylvania?

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, I believe it is. The provision of the law is conflicting and in view of the controversy statutory regulations would be welcome to clear up the situation.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, then if the Superior Court upholds the decision of the lower court, which overruled the Liquor Control Board, there will be no necessity for this legislation, is that correct?

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, there would not be, but the State Liquor Control Board has opposed this method unless there are statutory regulations to that effect. In other words, the Liquor Control Board feels that they are bound by the definition of "population" they have used, which means the last decennial census.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, if the Superior Court upholds the lower court, will there be any necessity for this?

Mr. TOLL. No, Mr. Speaker, there will not be if it will uphold the lower court, but here is an opportunity to get it done now.

Mr. ISAACS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Toll, that I agree with him on his method of taking a census if a political subdivision desires to take it.

However, we in Delaware County would appreciate it if his side of the House would take the same kind of a census in connection with House Bill 1311, which has to do with allocation of part of the fuels and liquid fuels tax proceeds to cities, boroughs, incorporated towns and townships for their road and bridge purposes.

In this bill it says it has to be an official census. That would help us considerably in Delaware County. For the gentleman's information, our population has increased from 425,000 to something like 600,000 at the present time.

I wish the majority side of the House would take that same factor into consideration in considering House Bill 1311 when it is called up for final passage. It is on our calendar today.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. THOMAS H. W. JONES, WILLAREDT, Mrs. HENZEL, Messrs. KRATZ, LAFORE and BRENNINGER offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted by a rising vote as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 5, 1955.

The Honorable William A. Bolton, a former member of this House from the Third Legislative district of Montgomery County, died Friday, December 2, 1955, in Valley Forge Army Hospital, at the age of 44.

Mr. Bolton had an outstanding record in the Second World War. He was decorated with the Combat Infantry Badge, the Purple Heart, Bronze Star, the Belgian Croix de Guerre, and the Orange Lanyard from the Netherlands. As an officer of the 502nd Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 101st Airborne Division, Mr. Bolton was with an assault group that landed in Normandy ten hours before the D-Day invasion. He was seriously wounded in an airborne assault on Holland, as a result of which he was retired from the service, with the rank of Major.

After the war Mr. Bolton's interest in Military Affairs continued. He was president of the 101st Airborne Division Association, past commander of the North Penn Post 676, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and a member of the Glenside Post 248, American Legion. Also active in community affairs as a member of the boards of the Abington Y M C A and the Community Free Library, Glenside.

He was an accountant by profession, at the time of his death he was comptroller for the I. P. Thomas Division of the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Co. In addition to his Legislative service he had held several public offices and appointments including posts with the Montgomery County Board for Assessment and Division of Taxes and the Cheltenham Township Civil Service Commission.

Mr. Bolton's work in public and private life was of a high and exemplary order. His colleagues from Montgomery County, mindful of his great abilities, and his fearless nature, will remember him with great affection; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of this House of Representatives hereby extend their individual sympathies to the widow and children of the late William A. Bolton in their hour of sorrow; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Mrs. Elise Bolton and her children, at 600 Custis Road, Glenside, Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, several times during this session the Speaker by a slip of the tongue has called me the Majority Leader. I do not wish to be facetious about this, but I am starting to wonder, with all due respect to my friend on the other side of the House, whether or not we have a Majority Leader.

My understanding of a majority is 106 votes, which would be a constitutional majority. I think we have now gone through another day of a consent calendar. It looks as though we are going to do the same thing tomorrow and probably the same thing on Wednesday.

I believe last week we did exactly the same thing. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, we had three days of consent calendar.

I appreciate the fact that the gentleman from Berks is doing everything in his power to bring his Members in here, but I do think it is not fair, either to the Members on his side of the House, who are coming here, or the Members on our side of the House, who are in attendance, to sit here day in and day out, week in and week out. We can forgive a day once in a while, but this is two weeks in a row.

I don't think it is fair to the Members, I don't think it is fair to us and I don't think it is fair to the people of the Commonwealth. These men have been elected to do a job. If they don't want to do the job, let them get out of the Legislature and get people here who do.

I can tell you the Members on our side of the House have been in fairly good attendance. They are really getting rather sick and tired of coming here and doing nothing.

I know it is not the Majority Leader's fault. I know he is making every effort possible, but I do think something should be done very soon, or else tell us Members on this side of the House that we don't have to come here ourselves, because I know there are many Members here who have other things to do. None of this legislation we worked on today was controversial in any way as far as party lines are concerned.

I believe next week we are placing ourselves in exactly the same position. For the information of the Members, and I am a city Member talking, it is the doe season and I mean "deer." There will be quite a few Members who will not be here, I imagine, next week because of hunting doe on Monday and Tuesday. If that is correct, and I don't say this in criticism, let us tell the Members that it will be a consent calendar Monday and Tuesday, if that is what it is going to be, and not bring these men up here day in and day out for nothing.

I really think we are making a serious mistake with this kind of thing happening, Mr. Speaker.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I desire to thank the Minority Leader for "them thar kind words." He well knows I have been moving heaven and earth to keep more than 106 Members here when we are having a working session. Of course, there are always some who are sick or who are attending a funeral and their absence is unavoidable, but there have been many times when Members could have been here and for some reason or another they chose not to be here.

So far as I know now we intend to work next week, doe season or no doe season. It is almost the end of the year. We are hoping we are close to the solution on the tax problem, and I know the Members would like to get out of this session either late this year or early next year. The longer we put off, and put off, and put off the working days we have the longer we are going to be here.

I appreciate very much the Minority Leader's sympathy. When he says we are not fair to the public, I think perhaps we Democrats should say the public was not fair to us, they did not give us a big enough majority so we could afford to have ten or twelve absent and still work.

However, that is what the public decided to do, and we were grateful for their votes and happy to be the majority. We assure the minority that we are not going to call them back here if we have advance notice that we just cannot work. We are trying to cooperate with you in that respect and with our own Members, but when two, or three, or four, do not show up without notice to us there is not much we can do except do what we can in their absence and hope that they show up the following day.

For example, we hope and expect to have at least 109 Members here tomorrow.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires once again to call the attention of the House to Rule 71:

"Every Member shall be present within the Hall of the House during its sittings, unless excused by the House, or necessarily prevented" from attendance.

This House is the judge of its own policy. The Chair has repeatedly stated that it believes this House should follow the quorum call, require the attendance of those who are unable to produce a physician's certificate that they are physically unable to attend.

The Chair is powerless in these matters because decision lies with the House. If you do not want to require the attendance, you do not have to and the Speaker cannot compel you to do so. The speaker can only enforce your will. If the Officers of this House are directed by this House, while the House recesses, to bring about the physical presence of absent Members, that is what the officers of the House will do.

There is no reason to complain. A majority of the majority can require the attendance of a minority of the majority, just as they can require the attendance of a minority of the minority.

If the Chair has one criticism to make of the Majority Lead, it is that he is inherently a gentleman. He does not want to take extreme measures, but there are times when you cannot deal with habitual absentees from this Chamber on the basis of good fellowship. No one has any right to complain, because the whole matter rests within the will of this House.

The Chair well knows that in a pinch the leaders of the various delegations resent the thought that compulsion should be used, and for some reason the hearts of those who attend bleed for the absentees lest they be embarrassed. You cannot run a House of this kind during the closing days of a session on any such basis.

The gentleman from Philadelphia is right, but it is up to us, to you members, to take such decisive action as will end a lamentable record of absenteeism. If the record were carried back home by the Members of the various delegations who are here, if they went back home and made known the fact that various Members were habitually absent, those Members would not be here in 1957.

The Chair thanks the House for its attention.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I can't help but suggest, Mr. Speaker, that before such severe action be taken perhaps the majority could use some of the methods, some of the tactics and some of the contacts they used when they kept their Members here for their tax bills. They might have a majority if they would do that.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LEONARD asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I believe I am speaking for the regular attendants in this session. I want to agree 100 per cent with the Minority Leader, the Majority Leader and the Speaker of the House, but let us do something about it. What are we coming here for? Why do we come here and sit while these other guys do not come around? Are we weaklings? I insist that the Rules be enforced.

RESOLUTIONS

Mr. SARRAF offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

Mr. BOIES offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 670.

An Act Amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177) entitled "An act providing for the reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain department boards and commissions shall be determined" revising and expanding the State Mental Health program providing for the appointment of a deputy to be known as Commissioner of Mental Health and creating an advisory council on Mental Health in the Department of Welfare prescribing their powers and duties and changing the powers and duties of the boards of trustees of the several State mental institutions and juvenile delinquent institutions and the terms of members of boards of trustees of certain State institutions

HOUSE BILL No. 1834.

An Act making an appropriation to the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly for the payment of salaries of officers and employees mileage of members and incidental expenses for the balance of the legislative session of 1955

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair wants to call the attention of the House to the fact that the Chair has heard during the years that now and then there were Members who failed to appear at any session during the week, but by some financial miracle they were able to collect mileage. I wonder if anybody has ever heard of that except the Chair.

That has been tolerated over the years. Ever since the Chair has been a Member of this House there have been Members who never showed up because we have these consent calendars, and they collected their expense money. They are not entitled to it. We can dock the expense account of Members who are not here if we wish. The Chair is only the servant of the House, not its master.

The Chair desires to call the attention of the Minority Leader to a bit of legislative history. Back in the days when the Chair was in the Hall of this House, having been sent here by an independent party, on more than one occasion he attempted and required the attendance of the absent Members. On one occasion it was his happy fortune to be able to call back to Harrisburg the entire State Senate, who had left without proper permission.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BERTH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would just like to remind the Minority Leader that the season opens up next Monday.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. MORAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, what we are going through now is the same pain we went through in session after session, regardless of who was in the majority. We have always had trouble getting members here in quite a number of the sessions. I have a suggestion to make; I think I have the remedy.

You know in private industry we ring up on clocks, we have a card, we put it in the clock and we ring it up. If you do not ring in, you do not get paid. I think if we had two clocks here in the rear of the House, when a Member comes in and he rings in, he is credited with being here; when he goes out, he rings out; and if he has not rung in, he does not get paid his salary or his mileage. I think that would be the remedy.

By the way, Mr. Speaker, when I made that suggestion here in a past session I had one fellow come up to me and say "You know that is the greatest statement I ever heard on the floor of the House." He said "You know, I believe if you put those clocks in there you will be doing a good job and you will have a great attendance here in the House." He said, "You know, I am selling the clocks."

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY SURFACE AND GROUND WATER RESOURCES

In the House of Representatives, August 2, 1955.

There is vastly increased use of both surface and ground water for domestic, industrial, agricultural, irrigational, recreational and related purposes. The continued expansion of water use may create shortages of these valuable resources. There is an inevitable relationship between the utilization of waters and the utilization of other mineral resources.

The Act of June 22, 1937, P. L. 1987 has declared the discharge of sewage or industrial waste or any noxious and deleterious substances into the waters of this Commonwealth which is or may become inimical and injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or to the uses of such waters for domestic or industrial consumption or for recreation not to be a reasonable or natural use of such waters and to be a public nuisance and against public policy.

The Commonwealth recognizes a public interest in the quantity, quality and utilization of these waters and a duty upon the General Assembly to insure that such waters are conserved and that their use is allotted in a fair and equitable manner; therefore be it Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be authorized to study the surface and ground water resources in the Commonwealth and the interrelationships between the utilization of water resources and other mineral resources and the urban and industrial development of the Commonwealth and more particularly to determine the adequacy or inadequacy of existing laws and to ascertain what new laws, if any, may be necessary to properly protect these valuable resources. The State Planning Board and the various administrative agencies of the Commonwealth now engaged in studies of these vital problems shall cooperate with the Commission in this study.

The Commission shall report its findings at the next regular session of the General Assembly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, last week Senator Stiefel introduced a resolution relative to Aaron Levy. That resolution was referred to the Rules Committee, of which I am chairman, and the committee takes pleasure in reporting this Senate Resolution as introduced.

In connection with this resolution, Mr. President, I would like to read an article from one of the Philadelphia newspapers relative to the Aaronsburg Story. I think it is particularly appropriate at this time because we can learn a lesson in tolerance from Aaron Levy. The newspaper article reads as follows:

'When one of the latest chapters of 'The Aaronsburg Story' opened only a few years ago, its main characters were the 321 inhabitants of the central Pennsylvania village of Aaronsburg. The year was 1949. The occasion was a celebration by the villagers to honor their community's founder, Aaron Levy.

"Now 'The Aaronsburg Story' has become national in scope and embraces the efforts of a group of prominent Americans to apply to other communities across the nation the lessons taught by the people of Aaronsburg. As told by Arthur H. Lewis in a new book published by the Vanguard Press, The Aaronsburg Story is representative of America at its best. The story began in 1786 when Aaron Levy, a devout Jew, founded the town of Aaronsburg in the heart of Penn's Valley. Although he remained loyal to his own faith all his life, Levy gave generously of land and money to provide a Christian church, burial ground and school. It was a tribute to the generosity and tolerance of Aaron Levy that the all-white, all-Protestant residents of Aaronsburg in 1949 presented a pageant dramatizing the contribution of minority groups to the building of America.

"Four years later, in the summer of 1953, the villagers sponsored the first Aaronsburg Assembly, at which leaders from all over America talked on the topic: 'How Can We Live Above Our Prejudices?' From this meeting came the inspiration for a plan to bring together, throughout the United States, 300 men and women in each of 365 communities for week-end discussions of problems affecting their own communities. Preparations for projecting the Aaronsburg story across the country are now under way in a series of pilot community conferences. The man who knows the whole story and can pass its message on to others is Arthur H. Lewis of Aaronsburg, Pa."

We, in Pennsylvania, can be justly proud that we have a community in which a lesson in tolerance was taught by a Jew many years ago. I think we can all profit by that lesson and especially at this time of the Christian year.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 84, REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. MAHANY, from the Committee on Rules, to which was referred resolution offered by Mr. Stiefel, on November 28, 1955, reported the same without amendment, as follows:

"THE AARONSBURG STORY"

In the Senate, November 28, 1955.

In Center County, only a few miles from the geographic center of Pennsylvania, amidst the verdant majesty of its rolling hillocks, like a pearl set in sparkling emeralds, resplendent in its solitude, lies the Village of Aaronsburg. It was here in 1786 along the early American frontier, that a Jewish pioneer Aaron Levy set in motion a spiritual force the impact whereof, not unlike that of Russell Cornwell's immortal sermon of "Acres of Diamonds", upon the American People and the tenets of our Democracy, is incalculable.

For it was Aaron Levy—in his belief that all men should have the freedom to believe—who gave the land on which to build Aaronsburg's first church and for whom the town was named. This simple and yet great act of faith reflects the fabric out of which a young Nation was made and represents a tripple—extract of the pith and marrow of our great American Democracy.

The story of Aaronsburg leads from the singular, dramatic action of a small, rural Pennsylvania community to a great and inspiring national adventure in democracy. Allied with it are many of the most highly regarded men and women in America—from all walks of life, of different political persuasion, of varied religious belief; equally of it are the "stout-hearted Pennsylvania Dutchmen of Aaronsburg" and their astonishing forceful companion for good, the average American citizen. This is their story, an exciting story that is uniquely American.

Thrice welcome and blessed is the message of the Aaronsburg Story filling so large a need in a world cankered by uncertainty and disbelief and rent asunder in numerous quarters by ugly bigotry and millennial prejudices.

It was the vision of a Pennsylvanian, Arthur H. Lewis, who was born in Mahanoy City, Pennsylvania, attended Franklin and Marshall College and later Columbia University, who became a reporter on the Philadelphia Inquirer and other newspapers, then a free-lance writer and instructor in journalism at the University of Pittsburgh and more recently a press representative for four Governors of Pennsylvania, that found in Aaronsburg during a casual visit an idea and a ideal so compelling that he has now devoted himself entirely to them. With a trenchante pen dipped in enthusiasm and understanding, he recently wrote with incisive skill a tense and climactic book entitled "The Aaronsburg Story" wherein he presents the origins of this contemporary movement. One of the passages of the book relating a conversation with and a statement made to Arthur H. Lewis by James H. Shannon a Minister of the Gospel at Millheim, in the vicinity of Aaronsburg, contains the gist of the Aaronsburg Idea:

"Someday I'd like to write a book about this fellow Levy. He must have been a remarkable man."

"You mean because he gave land and money to build a Christian church?" "Yes, but that's only part of it. All land speculators in those days set aside a few lots for churches and schools. That was good business; it attracted buyers—even today, plenty of suburban developers do the same thing with their tax-free land. In fact, these contributions were expected of them. Levy, although a Jew, was no different in that way."

"It might very well be that Levy gave more than his share. Lots he donated were choice, not leftovers, and he did come through with cash. He also had vision. You can see that from the way Aaronsburg was laid out and from correspondence Levy had with Pennsylvania's Colonial and Revolutionary leaders. But even that's not what I mean."

"The important contribution Levy made, at least from my point of view, was his gift of a pewter communion set to Salem Lutheran. Here was a man, a Jew, and a devout Orthodox Jew at that, whose own faith must have cried out against the Sacrament, which forms the very basis of Christian worship, giving a service for it."

"This wasn't mere respect for the point of view of the other guy. Here was a genuine desire to do something tangible to enable that other guy to maintain his point of view, so fundamentally different from Levy's own. That's real understanding. We certainly could use some of that today."

The vision of Arthur H. Lewis combined with the dynamic leadership and genius for organization of Philip Klein, now President of Harcum Junior College made possible the rapid growth and expansion of the Aaronsburg Idea:

One day in Late October 1949, an excitingly varied and unusual group of men met together—Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, Sir Muhammad Zafrulla Kahn of Pakistan, Reverend Daniel Poling of Philadelphia, General William Donovan, Ralph Bunche of the United Nations, Governor James Duff, Doctor Channing Tobias of the NAACP, and Rabbi Philip Bernstein of Rochester. To their meeting came 50,000 American citizens.

This would have been an impressive gathering in a large city. But it took place just beyond a quiet Pennsylvania town of 321 inhabitants. And the group, which could have undertaken the discussion of world events, was concerned with the actions of a man named Aaron Levy in 1786 along the early American frontier.

What happened in Aaronsburg in 1949, how it happened, and who made it happen is the heartwarming, inspiring, true story of a tiny community raising its voice to proclaim that the same faith in human brotherhood still lives.

As in New England our forefathers met in town meeting to establish the common good, so the inhabitants of this small Pennsylvania town, with the nation's great, illumined again the ideal of brotherhood and equality as the living cornerstone of our democracy—That was just the beginning. Now the movement is dynamically spreading throughout the country.

"The Aaronsburg Story" reveals the rich, human-interest background and the great ideal behind one of the most unusual, helpful, and inspiring developments on the modern American scene—truly, a new handgrip for democracy in action.

With the Aaronsburg Assembly of 1949 as an example for emulation, community-action groups are being set up in hundreds of localities throughout the length and breadth of our land, the pilot purposes whereof can be summarized as follows:

1. To conduct a survey of community problems of concern to each locality.

2. To select those community problems that best lend themselves to analysis through discussion and to subsequent affirmative community action.

3. To attempt to select a local historical figure or event to match the Aaron Levy incident that might become a dramatic focus about which a series of continuing conferences could be organized.

4. To effect a local self-supported continuation of the Assembly to the community action on problems of concern.

5. To test the degree of effectiveness of the community Assembly in establishing better communication among the selected individual participants.

6. To utilize the by-product values of closer association among the members of the community of varying backgrounds who have not hitherto had the facilities for easy communication with each other.

His Excellency George M. Leader, Governor of Pennsylvania, in his desire to further enhance, augment and expand the impact of "The Aaronsburg Story," as an inspiring modern adventure in brotherhood and grass-root democracy, had written recently to one hundred of Pennsylvania's leading citizens inviting them to confer in Harrisburg on Saturday, December 10, 1955, pertaining thereto.

In these December days when Peace on Earth and Goodwill towards Men are about to descend upon us with their joys and blessings, our Governor's initiative is most commendable, propitious and appropriate for as Governor Leader writes in his letter: "The Aaronsburg Story which first attracted nation-wide attention in 1949 because of its unique attack on Some of the Social and Racial Problems besetting democracy and the free world is not finished. Its future will depend on the support of those citizens who believe that good will among all men must be strengthened by every available means." Now be it therefore

Resolved, That the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania view with fervent approbation Governor Leader's aid to the Aaronsburg Story movement and hopes that with his hand at the helm, this great movement that sprung into existence on Pennsylvania's tolerance-breeding soil, will further proceed along an ever-ascending bath of success for the benefit of humanity and the glory of America, and

Be it further resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be directed, upon the passage of the instant resolution, to forward copies thereof to His Excellency Governor George M. Leader, to Phillip Klein, President of Harcum Junior College at Bryn-Mawr, Pennsylvania, and to Arthur H. Lewis of Philadelphia, author of "The Aaronsburg Story."

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 35, REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BLASS, from the Committee on State Government, to which was referred resolution offered by Messrs. Ruth, DiSilvestro, Silvert and Hays, on March 29, 1955, reported the same without amendment as follows:

PROVIDING A ROOM FOR LEGISLATORS AND STATE EMPLOYEES TO MEDITATE AND PRAY

In the Senate, March 29, 1955.

The one great secret to the success of the American people, which has made them the envy of all peoples of the world, is their firm belief that God is the creator of all good things and that only through Him are we enabled to maintain the height of success which we now enjoy and to achieve even greater success in the future.

Realizing our continued need for inner strength and a wisdom greater than our own and for communion with the invisible and the omnipotent, a channel is needed where, in solitude and silence, we may meet with God and draw upon the never ceasing springs of strength through the medium of prayer; therefore be it

Resolved, That a centrally located room in the Capitol be set aside for the purpose of providing legislators and State employes with a place of meditation and prayer, so that they may look to God for strength and guidance to better their lives and to better conduct the affairs of our Commonwealth.

Laid over for one day under the Rules.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 144,
REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WEINER, from the Committee on State Government, to which was referred resolution offered by Messrs. Kessler, Wade, Ruth and Dent, on August 31, 1955, reported the same without amendment as follows:

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO ASCERTAIN THE STANDARD OF LIVING OF PENNSYLVANIA FAMILIES

In the Senate, August 31, 1955.

During recent sessions of the General Assembly there has been considerable controversy with respect to proposed taxes and their effects upon persons at different income levels; and

Much controversy has been generated by the paucity of reliable data regarding the income position and expenditure pattern of the residents of the Commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to ascertain for Pennsylvania families the level and source of income, number of dependents, and major expenditures such as those for food, clothing, durable goods, and federal, state, and local taxes; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report the results of its investigation, together with such other fiscal data as may be pertinent, not later than October 1, 1956.

Laid over for one day under the Rules.

REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WEINER, from the Committee on State Government, to which was referred resolution offered by Messrs. Malley, Ruth, Derk, Diehm and Stevenson, on October 7, 1955, reported the same without amendment as follows:

URGING THE GENERAL STATE AUTHORITY TO ACQUIRE PROPERTY IN CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA FOR A SCHOOL FOR MENTAL DEFECTIVES

In the Senate, October 7, 1955.

Polk State School in western Pennsylvania and Pennhurst State School in eastern Pennsylvania are devoted exclusively to the care of mental defectives. The facilities of both schools are overtaxed. There is a crying need for an additional school centrally located therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General State Authority be urged to acquire property in central Pennsylvania, with the approval of the Governor and the Department of Welfare, and to erect thereon the buildings and equipment required for a State school for mental defectives, to be leased to the Commonwealth and operated by the Department of Welfare according to law.

Laid over for one day under the Rules.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 153,
REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WEINER, from the Committee on State Government, to which was referred resolution offered by Mr. Weiner on October 11, 1955, reported the same without amendments as follows:

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE THE METHOD OF NEWSPAPER REPORTING

In the Senate, October 11, 1955.

While the freedom of the press is fully recognized, its constitutional guaranty is restricted by the phrase "being responsible for the abuse of that liberty."

Far too often is the liberty and property, even life itself, of individuals prejudiced by irresponsible and prejudiced news reporting of criminal prosecutions and litigation in our courts of justice.

Courts are established for the purpose of bringing a supposed offender to justice by due course of law and impartially determining the rights and liabilities of litigants. These functions are seriously interfered with by inaccurate and incomplete newspaper coverage prejudging merits without benefit of the application of legal principles; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate newspaper reporting and its effect on prosecutions and litigation when it is inaccurate and incomplete; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution constitute the complete directive to the Joint State Government Commission notwithstanding any resolution heretofore adopted.

Laid over for one day under the Rules.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I take it for granted that as a result of usage during the Session this topic on the agenda, Petitions and Remonstrances, has been changed to "Petitions, Reconstrances and Commendations." I wish to speak under "Commendations."

Mr. President, I want to commend the Majority Leader, Senator Mahany, for his gracious remarks pertaining to the Aaronsburg Story. Furthermore, I want to commend His Excellency, Governor Leader, who, true to the tradition established by his predecessors, is taking the lead in enhancing, augmenting and expanding the Aaronsburg Story. There must be something to the sacred soil of Pennsylvania that here in Pennsylvania great movements are born. It was here where the immortal sermon, "Acres of Diamonds," was born; it was here where the Aaronsburg Story was started.

For that reason, Mr. President, I am feeling very proud of being a son of Pennsylvania.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, last week in the headlines of the newspapers throughout Pennsylvania, as well as the United States, we read about an action taken by the Governor of the State of Georgia in reference to a football contest between one of the great universities in Pennsylvania and Georgia Tech University.

The Governor of Georgia saw fit at that time to prohibit the playing of this game, one, because he insisted on segregation in the stands and, second, because he refused to permit a Negro boy, playing on Pitt's team, to take part in the game on the day of the contest.

Mr. President, we, in Pennsylvania, should be proud of the University of Pittsburgh, although it is not in my area nor am I an alumnus of that school, for the action the officials took in insisting that the Negro boy play in the game or that game would not be played. We known today that the University Regents of that college are now permitting the game to take place. However, they have made a stipulation for the future, and that is that Georgia Tech will not play any university or college that has a Negro boy or where they cannot insist on segregation.

Mr. President, I shall introduce a resolution in the Senate next week, asking that any university in Pennsylvania that receives State funds or State assistance shall not partake in sports or any other activity with any university or college in the United States that will practice segregation or will not permit Negro boys to participate. This is a great democracy; Pennsylvania is known for its democracy; Pennsylvania will continue to practice democracy.

Mr. President, I am going to ask the support of all the Members of the Senate on that resolution so that Pennsylvania, and our universities, will be known throughout the United States that we do not agree nor will we have any part of segregation or the barring of any individual because of the color of his skin.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I note by the public press that Governor Leader has seen fit to attempt to dismiss one of the Turnpike Commissioners, David Watson, of Philadelphia.

Over the history of these commissions, which have been set up by this legislative body, no Governor has ever seen fit to dismiss a member of the commission before his term of office has expired. I understand that Mr. Watson's term on the Turnpike Commission does not expire until 1961. Why the Governor would see fit to play politics with a position as important as that of a member of the Turnpike Commission is more than I can understand. Certainly, all of us are proud of the Pennsylvania Turnpike. I think it is one of the finest roads in the Country. We, in Pennsylvania, pioneered in this type of road construction and we have been followed by other States throughout the Country in this type of highway construction.

There is nothing in the Governor's message to Mr. Watson, or in his comments to the public press, which would indicate that Mr. Watson has not done his job well and faithfully. I do not believe even Governor Leader could allege that Mr. Watson has not been on the job and has not faithfully performed the duties assigned to him. Evidently, the only thing which the people of Pennsylvania can draw from an attempt to dismiss Mr. Watson is that it is being done for political purposes and political purposes only. I hope that Mr. Watson will make a court contest over this dismissal, or attempted dismissal, because it is high time that the Senate of Pennsylvania found out just how much power they have in relation to these commissions and to the people whom we confirm on them. I do not believe that the Governor of Pennsylvania has the right to summarily dismiss any member of these commissions, especially the Turnpike Commission, before the commissioner's term of office has expired.

Mr. President, when Arthur James became Governor of this Commonwealth, he was importuned to discharge certain commissioners on these commissions and he refused to do so. He stated that he would not dismiss, or attempt to dismiss, any member of a commission until the term of office of the commissioner had expired. I certainly think that Arthur James set a good example in relation to this matter. I think that we should surely censure the Governor of Pennsylvania, first, for trying to dismiss a commissioner before his term of office has expired and, secondly, I think we should censure him because he is definitely and obviously playing pure party politics in relation to this Turnpike Commission, which has under its jurisdiction and control one of the finest highways in the entire United States.

Mr. BARR, Mr. President, in answer to Senator Mahany, I do not know whether the Governor is playing politics or not. I have not talked to him about this matter. However, I do know that the Republican Caucus is certainly playing politics with the Governor's nominees. Many of them have been over here since January of this year. If the shoe fits, put it on, Senator Mahany.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, first, I want to say that we are not playing party politics with any of the Governor's appointments which have been sent over here. Secondly, if, merely for the sake of argument, Senator Barr were right, that we were playing politics, certainly we all know that two wrongs do not make a right. That is no excuse for the Governor of Pennsylvania to play party politics with the Turnpike Commission.

As I said last week, Mr. President, we are trying to get reports on these people. I think, as we receive them, we will release them to the Senate for confirmation. However, I do want to remove a cloud from the rest of the appointments which have been made by the Governor. Last week, I stated that there was one who had a criminal record and that would, perhaps, cast a cloud on all the others if I did not mention his name. I want to state at this time that I am trying to get a report from the State Police relative to one, Sol Turnoff. His name has been sent over here for confirmation to an appointment to the Pharmacy Board. Colonel Henry told me that he would give me that report as soon as the Governor would release the report to me. Evidently, before the State Police may give any Senator a report, they must get the consent of the Governor to do so.

I did not argue with Colonel Henry. I told him that it would be all right for him to give it to me next Monday. I hope that between now and next Monday, the Governor will see fit to recall the name of Mr. Turnoff because I do not want to go into detail and embarrass him. I understand he had a presidential Pardon and I am not even going to go back to that. However, the fact that he had a Presidential Pardon would evidently indicate that he must have had a criminal record.

I would also suggest to the Governor that he recall the name of Mr. Turnoff because, in talking with various members of the pharmacy profession in the east. I find that they do not hold Mr. Turnoff in very high regard or repute.

Mr. President, I think it would be well, in connection with a board such as this that has control over the granting of licenses or refusing of licenses to persons who really hold the lives of all of us in their hands, you might say, in relation to filling prescriptions and that sort of thing, that a man who has a record such as I understand Mr. Turnoff has would not be a very good person to appoint to that very important board. If the Senators want us to bring the name out, we will be happy to do so next week and, at that time, we can go into this record that will be furnished by the State Police. If the required number of Senators vote "no" on it, then the Governor will understand the reason.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, in the temporary absence of Senator Camiel, who will probably have something to say about this, I want to state that Mr. Turnoff, who is a constituent of Senator Camiel's, is one of the outstanding charitable gentlemen of Philadelphia. He is highly respected by our people. There may be a lot to say in favor of his appointment. If Senator Camiel will deem it necessary, he will probably finish his statement.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I listened here this morning to the tangent of the Majority Leader. When he has the poor taste to bring a man's name before the Senate and indicates that he is not very reputable, I would say that if I were in his position I would, in all probability, talk to the Senators in that particular District instead of bringing his name out here on the floor.

I do not know the gentleman and I have never heard of him. It seems to me that it is the favorite tactic of the Majority Leader to start muckraking about one day of each week..

Mr. President, he gets up on the floor here and he says that we should publicly censure the Governor of Pennsylvania because he dismissed a Turnpike Commissioner. It seems to me, Senator Mahany, that you might have the cart before the horse. Maybe you do not know all the details. Do you not think that before you take the floor and demand that our Governor be censured that you find out the details as to the reason for the dismissal of this man? You talk about playing politics and a political dismissal. Actually you know, and I know, and we must all admit that he was first a political appointment whether or not he was confirmed by the Senate of Pennsylvania. You do not get places on the Turnpike Commission unless you have some political stature. We can all agree to that, I know.

You talk about Arthur James setting a great example here in Pennsylvania by refusing to dismiss Democrats who were on certain boards and commissions. I might say to you that to my memory, and I believe a majority of the people will agree with me, that is about the only good thing Arthur James ever did in his entire life as far as being Governor is concerned.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I was hoping that Mr. Mahany would not bring this matter up because it is going to take me one good full hour to read into the record the messages of the reputable citizens of Philadelphia which they sent to the Governor of this Commonwealth on his nomination of Sol Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy.

I will start off, Mr. President, by reading a letter from one of your former colleagues, Senator McCusker, and he says:

"Dear Governor Leader:

"May I take this opportunity to congratulate you on your choice in the appointment of our good friend, Sol Turnoff, to the Pharmacy Board. We feel that he is most reserving and capable to handle this work, and we feel that he will prove his worth.

"I would also like to express my wishes to you for your continued success and trust that you will enjoy good health and happiness while serving as Governor. I enjoyed being with you many times at Harrisburg. With best wishes, I am

"Sincerely,

"Francis P. McCusker."

The next letter I have here, Mr. President, is from Mrs. E. McFarland, Administrator of the Welfare Fund Association in Philadelphia, who wired the Governor as follows:

"Congratulations on the appointment of Sol Turnoff to State Board of Pharmacy. He is a wonderful community worker and an outstanding pharmacist."

Mr. President, I have another telegram from Mr. and Mrs. J. McNamee, of 3154 Friendship Avenue, Philadelphia, which states:

"Dear Governor

"I notice your appointment of Sol Turnoff to State Board of Pharmacy. Confidence in you, Mister Governor, and your Administration of our State government can only be greatly enhanced by such wise and superb appointments as that of Doctor Turnoff, whose qualifications and capabilities are surpassed only by his deep rooted sincerity undying devotion to duty and unequaled integrity. Congratulations again, Mister Governor, on your well chosen selection and appointment of Doctor Turnoff."

Mr. President, the next telegram is from the Matrick Drugs Company, 206 South Third Street, Philadelphia, addressed to the Governor, and reads as follows:

"I was glad to hear of your appointment of Mr. Sol S. Turnoff as a Member of the State Board of Pharmacy. I consider him a fine and capable pharmacist for this high position."

Here is one from Honorable Byron A. Milner, who is a Judge of the Common Pleas Court of Philadelphia, and a former Republican Member of the House of Representatives:

"This will congratulate you on the appointment of Sol Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy. A fine choice of one of ability and achievement and a leader in his community."

Mr. President, the next one is from Miss Mary Mullen, of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia:

"Congratulations on your appointment of Sol Turnoff to the Board of Pharmacy. I have known him all my life and can vouch for his character and honetsy. We are all proud of your decision."

The next one is a letter from Doctor Benjamin Netreba, of South Seventh Street in Philadelphia, who is a surgeon dentist, and he says:

"May I take this opportunity to commend you on your appointment of Mr. Sol S. Turnoff to the Pennsylvania State Board of Pharmacy.

"His appointment to the board will bring to it a man of highest ethical standard in his profession. As a Philadelphian, he has become one of our foremost citizens in the field of social welfare.

"Again, I congratulate you on your fine choice."

The next one is a wire to the Governor from the Northern Hebrew Day Nursery, Tenth and Ruscomb Streets, Philadelphia, and states:

"We are pleased to learn of the appointment of Mr. Sol S. Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy. A very wise choice indeed."

I have another one ,Mr. President, from Mr. Bernard Ochman, who states:

"It is men like you who make our country the best on earth in choosing people like Sol Turnoff."

Mr. Ochman is the Republican leader of the Sixteenth Ward in Philadelphia, Mr. President.

I have a letter from the United States Marshal in Philadelphia, who is an Eisenhower appointment and it is addressed to, "His Excellency, The Governor of Pennsylvania," and states:

"My dear Governor Leader:

I was delighted to learn of your appointing Sol Turnoff to the three-man State Board of Pharmacy for a six year term.

"I have known Sol since I was a boy and he has been my pharmacist for years. He is a wonderful person; always very fair and honest at play and in business. Sol does excellent work not only in his community but outside as well and is most kind and helpful to those in need. He is very highly respected and a man beyond reproach. We sincerely need men like Sol Turnoff and I know he is well fitted for, and will be an asset to the position he was appointed."

Here is another from the Recording Secretary of the Fraternal Order of Police; Albert Baxter, President, and Maurice O'Leary, Secretary:

"Dear Governor:

"On behalf of the officers and members of the Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge No. 5, we wish to congratulate you on your recent appointment of Doctor Sol S. Turnoff to the Pharmacy Board of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

"Doctor Turnoff enjoys an enviable record not only in his own profession but is also a great civic leader and is very well thought off by the community in general."

The next correspondence I have here is a wire from Mr. Jack Orkin, Drug Representative of the Krull Wholesale Drug Company, and I think they know something about who would be a good man on the Pharmacy Board. They state:

"Your appointment of Mr. Sol S. Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy was an excellent choice. Thank you for your interest for the betterment of Pharmacy. I have known him for twenty-five years and I know that every project he has undertaken has been done one hundred per cent."

The next is a letter from the Philadelphia Armed Services Council, by Rabbi Louis Parris, Major, Chaplain of the Fourth Naval District and Veterans' Administration Hospital, Room 214, 401 South Broad Street:

"Dear Mr. Governor:

"You will probably remember me as the Rabbi who was fortunate enough to assist in the conduct of the worship service in the Chapel of Four Chaplains at the time you delivered that inspiring and eloquent sermon. It was a joy and a great privilege to meet you and your charming wife. May our good Lord bring us together again in joy.

"My purpose in writing to you at this moment is to congratulate you on the excellently good judgment in selecting Mr. Sol Turnoff as a Member of the State Pharmacy Board. This selection has won you many friends and it is universally applauded. Sol is a very dear friend of mine. I have known him and his selfless devotion to the cause of humanity for many years. He is respected and beloved. His character is of the best and highest. He is personable, kind, friendly, loyal, devoted to duty and to friends, and possesses a high degree of moral and ethical values.

"It is a good sign and speaks well for the maturity of a community when a man is rewarded for unselfish devotion and duty toward the public good.

"My fond regards to you, your sweet wife, and our mutual friend Herbie Cohen."

The next wire comes from Mr. Charles Pirolli, President of the Taxi Cab Drivers Union. This is rather a good cross-section of people. Mr. Pirolli is President of Local 156, A. F. of L. in Philadelphia and he says:

"Your Honor, please allow me to congratulate you for a very splendid appointment to the State Board of Pharmacy. From actual knowledge of him, I am sure that Doctor Sol Turnoff will very ably and sincerely serve the best interest of the people of our great Commonwealth. I am quite certain that our 4,000 members concur with my feelings.

"Respectfully yours."

Here is a letter from the Honorable Arthur Rubin who, as you probably know, is a Republican Member of the House and is seated over there today and has not voted for any of the Leader tax measures as yet. He writes:

"Your Excellency:

"May I take this opportunity to express my sincerest congratulations to you upon your nomination of a life-long friend and neighbor, Doctor Sol S. Turnoff, to the State Board of Pharmacy.

"I have had the pleasure and privilege of knowing Sol Turnoff as a boy, as a school chum and as a close personal friend. Throughout these many years I have been constantly impressed by his earnest consideration for his fellow man."

Mr. President, I would like to add here and I like that statement. I do not think that the Majority Leader has an earnest consideration for his fellow man because I have never in my life heard any lawyer ever go behind a Presidential Pardon before. I think the Majority Leader owes an apology to this man, and to all the members of the bar in the State personally.

Representative Rubin goes on by saying, Mr. President:

"I feel certain that he is very well qualified professionally, morally and ethically to serve in this distinguished post. Doctor Turnoff seems to possess the natural instinct which is so necessary toward being a public servant. I am sure that his associates in Harrisburg will share with us in this immediate vicinity his great attributes of friendship and confidence that we have known so well these past forty years.

"My pleasure is doublefold inasmuch as your Excellency has seen fit and proper to bring into your official family Doctor Turnoff—my pharmacist and a resident in the district I represent in the House of Representatives. I feel sure beyond any doubt or hesitation that you will always be proud of your fine selection.

"With kindest personal regards to you and yours"

It might be smart if the Majority Leader would consult the House Members of the Republican Party when these names come over and see what the thought of their constituents might be.

Mr. President, the next letter I shall read is from Mr. Milton Rubin of the Philadelphia Inquirer:

"Dear Governor Leader:

"I was very pleased to learn of the appointment of Sol Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy.

"Mr. Turnoff is a distinguished Philadelphian, dedicated to helping his fellow man, regardless of race, color or creed. His appointment is a credit to your administration. I congratulate you on your selection."

I do not know what Mr. Rubin's job is with the Inquirer, but he works for one of the finest papers in the State.

Mr. President, the next is a telegram from Mr. George Salmon, Vice President, General Electric Supply Company, who wired the Governor as follows:

"Congratulations on your appointment of Sol Turnoff. He is a kind man with strong feeling for people; honest with deep sense of duty."

Here is a letter from the Philadelphia Finance Department Employees, Local 696, by Mr. Charles Santore, the President, who says:

"My dear Governor Leader:

"We want to congratulate you on the appointment of Dr. Sol S. Turnoff to the Board of Pharmacy.

"We of Local 696, AFL, Philadelphia Finance Department Employees, know of Dr. Turnoff's outstanding achievements in charitable and civic work, and know he will be a credit to your administration."

The next is a wire from Dr. Nathan Ralph and reads:

"Congratulations on appointment of Sol Turnoff to Pharmacy Board. We are proud he comes from our district."

The next is a letter from Mr. Isaac Richman of Richman, Price and Jamieson, 1204 Land Title Building, Broad and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia. I think you probably know who he is. I know of him as an outstanding lawyer in Philadelphia. Mr. Richman writes:

"Dear Governor:

"It was with a great deal of pleasure that I read of your appointment of Sol Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy. I have personally known Sol for the past twenty years and it has been my pleasure to consider him among my friends. I have the utmost respect for his ability and honesty.

"His charitable interests are an indication of the type of man he is and the feelings that he has for his fellow man. Appointments of this nature will enable this Commonwealth to better serve its people."

Here is another from Miss Doris Scheuer, Assistant Secretary of the Television and Radio Advertising Club of Philadelphia, which is located on Walnut Street:

"Dear Governor Leader:

"I have just heard of the appointment of Mr. Sol S. Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy, and would like to congratulate you on your choice.

"It is gratifying to know that such a fine man and outstanding citizen has been placed in this important position"

A Magistrate of Philadelphia, Benjamin Schwartz, who I think is a Republican and another one of your boys, wrote:

"Dear Governor:

"May I take this opportunity to offer my congratulations to His Excellency on the fine appointment of Sol Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy.

"I have known Sol Turnoff for many years and have always found him to be first in line to answer the call to serve on any charitable or civic enterprise.

"We, in Philadelphia, are indeed proud that there is a Sol Turnoff. He is truly 'his brother's keeper.'

"I am certain that he will be a credit not only to his great profession of Pharmacy which he has served so well for twenty-five years, but also to the citizens of Pennsylvania and your administration."

The next letter is from Mrs. Victor Segal, President of the Women's American Ort and comes from New York:

"Your Excellency:

"As a citizen of Pennsylvania, I should like to tell you how pleased I am with your appointment of Mr. Sol Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy.

"I am acquainted with the service which Mr. Turnoff gives constantly to our community and therefore it is with pride and gratification that I write to you of this matter.

"With best wishes for continued success and happiness in your administration, I am

"Cordially."

Mr. President, the next letter is from another Republican Magistrate, Benjamin Segal, of Magistrate's Court No. 9. You most certainly do not have your ducks in a row on the other side. Mr. Segal writes:

"My dear Governor:

"May I take this opportunity to express my sincerest appreciation and congratulations to you for your splendid appointment of Dr. Sol S. Turnoff as a member of the State Board of Pharmacy.

"We in Philadelphia are cognizant of his many charitable, civic and professional activities. Dr. Turnoff enjoys an enviable reputation among his profession and his community. Rarely has one such individual achieved so great a popularity.

"This appointment is a credit to you and to your administration. I am certain he will enhance the stature of pharmacy in this great Commonwealth and be an asset to his profession."

The next is a wire from Dr. Frank Sharps, of Philadelphia, who states:

"Congratulations for appointing Sol S. Turnoff to the Board of Pharmacy. A man who came up the hard way and knows the trials and tribulations of life and a feeling for his fellow men."

The next is a letter from Harry Slobberman, Esquire, with law offices in the Widner Building, who says:

"My dear Governor:

"I have just learned of your appointment of Sol S. Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy. You are to be congratulated on this unusually fine selection.

"Sol Turnoff is one of Philadelphia's leading citizens; well known for his many charitable activities, his willingness to extend a helping hand to young and old, black or white, Jew or Gentile, and for his persistent efforts in alleviating pain and suffering of his fellow man.

"Sol is good and kind, entirely without selfishness and with but one thought—to live a good life and to do good. He is a man of the highest moral character and ethics and integrity—his word is his bond.

"Your confidence in Sol is well merited and richly deserved and one which you need never regret.

"Again I say, Governor, congratulations for making such a wise choice."

I have another letter from Dr. Hartley R. Steinsnyder, 6602 Woodland Avenue, Philadelphia, who states:

"My dear Governor Leader:

"I feel it incumbent upon myself to write and congratulate you upon your outstanding appointment of Mr. Sol S. Turnoff to the Board of Pharmacy.

"Mr. Turnoff has the respect of all members of the healing arts profession here and throughout the State. His honesty and integrity have created for him a reputation enjoyed by few businessmen in our State.

"I am sure that in the future you shall find your judgment of Mr. Turnoff reinforced and strengthened by his fair and conscientious service to the Commonwealth."

The next letter is from the Chamber of Commerce, the fellows the Republicans like to quote quite a bit. The letter is from Mr. Thomas E. Willis, Executive Director of the Northeast Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, and he states:

"Dear Governor Leader:

"We wish to congratulate you on the selection of Mr. Sol S. Turnoff, as a member of the State Board of Pharmacy, who is a valued member of this Chamber."

Here is a letter from the WDAS Broadcasting Station, written by Leonard Matt, Editor-Column of the Air and Consul of Guatemala, who states:

"My dear Governor:

"I have read with interest on the news machine in the studio that you have appointed Dr. Sol S. Turnoff of Philadelphia as a member of the State Board of Pharmacy, and I hasten to congratulate you.

"Dr. Turnoff has been a boyhood chum of the writers, and a friend for many years. We were both born on the other side of the railroad tracks,"—maybe that is what is wrong with him—"and I had the pleasure of watching Dr. Turnoff climb the ladder to success with great striving and with much sacrifice of health and energy.

"His whole life have been devoted to helping the poor and underprivileged, and if ever one lived a life of humanitarianism and dedication, I believe that this man can claim that type of accolade. He has had an immense background in pharmacy, having earned the respect of the pharmacist, the manufacturer and the Deans of the pharmacy schools. That in itself fits him admirably for the post.

"It was with pleasure that I told my listening audience of what I considered the most selfless type of appointment that any Governor has even made."

Mr. President, I am sorry to take all this time, but I am sure that I am going to be here a couple of hours reading these telegrams and letters unless the Majority Leader wants to withdraw his remarks from the record. However, if he does not withdraw his remarks I am going to read all the correspondence that I have.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I do not know whether or not that might be a threat on the part of Senator Barr when he says that if I do not do something which he wants me to do, he is going to take up a couple more hours of the time of the Senate to read letters. I am certainly not going to withdraw my remarks or move that they be expunged from the record.

The only two things that I said here were that, first, the man evidently had a criminal record or he would not have received a Presidential Pardon, and secondly, there were some people down there connected with the Pharmacy Association who have advised me that they did not think much of this appointment.

Mr. President, I will admit, if it is going to save time, that Senator Barr has X number of letters over there approving this appointment. If he will tell me how many letters he has, I will admit that he has that many, stating that the Governor did a good thing in appointing Mr. Turnoff, that they think Mr. Turnoff is a fine fellow and that he will be a credit to the Pharmacy Board if he is confirmed by the Senate.

Always when I have a defendant who has been found guilty, I have him produce as many letters as he can so that I can read them to the judge in order to have the judge be merciful to the defendant on sentence day. I think every attorney in general practice always has a lot of letters vouching for the good character of the defendant.

Mr. President, if the Senator will tell me how many letters he has, I will agree that he has that many and that they all read the same way.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not concur in that proposition, so I will keep reading these letters. The gentleman apparently does not have the intestinal fortitude to withdraw his remark, and he is a lawyer. To go back to a Presidential Pardon is something unheard of. I know many men in the legal profession, and this is the first time in my life that I ever heard such a dastardly thing being done.

Mr. President, I will continue to read a letter from Mr. Sol Wittenberg, who has a surety bond business in Philadelphia, and he states:

"My dear Governor:"

Oh, Mr. President, he is a Republican Committeeman. The boys are telling me who these fellows are. I do not think that Mr. Mahany is very popular with the few Republicans who are left in Philadelphia.

"I want to offer my congratulations to you on the appointment of Sol Turnoff to the Board of Pharmacy.

"I am associated with Sol in many charitable organizations and know of many more that he is active in.

"His appointment is a credit to Philadelphia as he is a wonderful family man and a successful businessman."

Dr. Meyer Wohl, of 5734 Oxford Street, Philadelphia, sent a wire to the Governor stating:

"You could not have found a better choice to your State Board of Pharmacy than Dr. Turnoff. He is my kind of an American.

Mr. President, while I get a drink of water, I yield to Senator Dent.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I will not go on with the reading because that is the task which Senator Barr is going to perform. However, I would just like to remind the Senate of a very important thing.

Mr. President, I, too, am sorry, of course, that this matter has come in this manner to the Senate. I think it comes in very poor grace, however, from a gentleman who has, upon at least one and perhaps two other occasions—I am having the record checked—already voted for the confirmation of this man to a public office which required the confirmation of this Senate.

I think that it is only fair to Mr. Turnoff, to his friends and to the people of this Commonwealth, and to the Governor, to note that Mr. Turnoff was originally appointed by Governor Duff to the position of member of the Department of Public Assistance Board which, in the city of Philadelphia, is a tremendous job. It is a job which has a great deal more to do with the common good and the everyday life of our people than membership upon the Pharmacy Board. This man's name came before the Senate and Senator Mahany, along with all the other Members of this Senate, voted for his confirmation. His record then was the same as it is now. He was later reappointed by Governor Fine and this entire Senate, including Senator Mahany, again voted for his confirmation.

Mr. President and Members of this Senate, I do not believe that it is quite fair to, at this time, take up this man's past record when you have twice before confirmed him in a position which required the will and the consent of the Senate of Pennsylvania. I do not believe that any of this matter should go any further.

I do believe that the proper answer to this would be, at his moment, for the Committee on Executive Nominations to call an immediate meeting and bring the name out upon the floor and let each man, at this stage of the game, vote what he believes to be his conscience in this matter. By no other method can we place upon the record our position in this matter. I do not want this man to be living under a cloud in the city of Philadelphia, in his business, in his occupation, among his friends, in his church, in his public activities. I do believe that Senator Mahany should have looked into the record first and to have found out that he, himself, had already voted to confirm this man upon one occasion and probably he was here for the first confirmation of this individual to public office.

You cannot say that you can establish a degree of confidence in a man. If a man is a thief and is so labeled a thief, he is not a thief because he stole ten cents or because he stole $100,000. He is a thief because he stole. Therefore, it is not the degree that we are measuring here. The fact that this man was approved and confirmed by the Senate of Pennsylvania upon two other occasions certainly should have given the Governor of this State the right to believe that the Membership of this Senate believed in this man's integrity and in his ability to hold office. Standing upon that ground, unless Senator Barr has some other ideas in mind and if he wishes to continue reading, which is perfectly all right with me, the thing that I would like to do is to ask whether or not it is possible to have a committee meeting at this time in order that this matter may be cleared up. If they want to vote the other way, that will be perfectly all right.

I, again, yield to the Senator from Allegheny, Senator Barr.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Weiner.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, this seems very strange to me at this time, unless it is done for political advantage. Mr. Turnoff has always been a registered Republican and has also been a very stalwart member as far as the Republican Finance Committee has been concerned. If these objections were valid the first time his name came up, I should certainly think that, at that time, would have been a good time to raise that question. I am sure that the very people who are raising the issue today are people who knew about those problems at that time and also knew of his record at that time. If they feel that since that time he may have strayed from the fold or he may now belong to a different group, which has a different political persuasion, and if that is the reason they are trying to visit upon him this retribution of casting aspersions upon his name and character, I believe that it should come out here and be made public, as well as not only making his name public but let us make the entire record public so we will know what exactly is facing us and why we are going into all these details about one of the gentlemen on the Pharmacy Board.

I believe it was incumbent upon the Executive Nominations Committee not even to report this name to the floor of the Senate when his name was sent over here. If they had reported it at that time, they certainly should have explained or told us at that time that he was on the board and that they are now not any longer holding him in the esteem they did before and that they no longer wish him to be considered as a member.

Mr. President, I feel that Senator Mahany, as the Floor Leader and the responsible speaker for the Republican Party, should make known to the Senate the entire record and exactly why they are taking this position today. I think it is a little inconsistent with the position which they took sometime ago when they confirmed him for the other nominations made by previous Governors. If it was a matter of political expediency at that time, I think they should advise us at this time what the political expediency was and why they are taking a different position.

I think it is rather paradoxical to okay a man at one time and now, today, when nothing else is changed, the man—as a matter of fact, he has become a more outstanding member of the community and is in better standing today than at any other time, within his own professional group—should be accorded this type of treatment just because there is some feeling in some quarters that he may not be in the same standing, politically, as he was sometime ago.

Mr. President, I wish to yield to the Senator from Allegheny, Senator Barr.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I was fearful that the gentleman on the other side might have taken from Senator Weiner's remarks that Doctor Turnoff might be registered as a Democrat. He is not; he is still registered as a Republican.

This telegram is from Miss Dorothy Tracy, of Brockton Road, Philadelphia:

"Dear Governor

"Sincere wishes and congratulations on your appointing Sol Turnoff to your State Board of Pharmacy. He is a dedicated public servant and a fine individual who will bring glory to that department of your administration."

Mr. President, I have so many of these that I cannot even hold them.

"Dear Governor:

"Your appointment of Sol Turnoff was announced in today's Philadelphia Inquirer. I wish to congratulate you on your wise decision. I personally know Dr. Turnoff to be a gentleman, and I have always found him to be active in his community. He is a fine outstanding pharmacist and will certainly be a credit to your administration."

It is just too bad, Mr. President, that the gentleman who made the charges will not listen. That is all right. I do not care whether Senator Mahany wishes to listen or not about Mr. Turnoff's integrity and personality.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BARR. I will, Mr. President, for a moment.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, if the Senator from Allegheny would speak a little bit more clearly into the microphone, I might be able to hear these letters a little better. However, every once in awhile, there are people who have business with me. They come to the railing here and wish to have a word or two with me. I am listening to you out of one ear and trying to give them the other ear. Please pardon me for these interruptions. It is beyond my control to prevent them.

Mr. President, I do want to say, however, that we have a couple of distinguished visitors from New Jersey. Senator Yosko wanted to introduce them. Would Senator Barr mind yielding so that Senator Yosko might do that? After that, we will proceed with listening to the letters.

Mr. BARR. I will yield to Senator Yosko, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, before I introduce the distinguished gentlemen from New Jersey, I ask unanimous consent to present a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I want to add to the remarks that were made by Senator Donolow this morning on the issue that was raised by Governor Griffin involving the post-season football game in the Sugar Bowl between the University of Pittsburgh and Georgia Tech.

In that connection, Mr. President, if my memory serves me correctly, from an article I read in the newspaper this morning, the Board of Regents met last night in the State of Georgia. Although they approve the playing of the game, they also ruled that neither the University of Georgia nor Georgia Tech will be permitted to play football games with teams that have a Negro on the team. In that connection, I want to say that I am going to prepare a resolution calling upon all the colleges and universities in the State of Pennsylvania to either cancel their games with either one of those two teams or boycott them from scheduling games with them until such time as the Board of Regents withdraws or reverses its decision of last night.

I want to say, too, Mr. President, that any person or any king, let me start with, or any president or any governor or any public official or any group or any individual that would carry prejudice involving race, color or creed into the realm of competitive athletics, especially football, is guilty of the lowest type of bigotry and is an enemy of good Americanism and is as low as a troglodyte. Look that word up and see what it means. I want to add, too, that as long as people like Governor Griffin are permitted to hold public office, the Ku Klux Klan will never die.

I, for one, and I am sure the Members of the Senate will join me in approving the resolution that I am about to present, commending the University of Pittsburgh for the stand it took in this matter.

SENATE RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS OF THE SENATE EXTENDED TO THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH FOR ITS FINE RECORD ON THE GRIDIRON AND FOR ITS UNDERSTANDING OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND EQUALITIES

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, December 6, 1955.

The University of Pittsburgh football team, usually referred to as the Pitt Panthers, has recently completed a very successful season against outstanding competition and for their splendid record, both on and off the gridiron, the Pitt Panthers were chosen to oppose Georgia Tech in the Sugar Bowl game, to be played on January 2, 1956, in New Orleans.

Within the past few days, Georgia Governor Marvin Griffin's effort to inject the racial issue into the Sugar Bowl game by requesting his State Board of Regents to call off the game because of the University of Pittsburgh's negro player, Bobby Grier, has shocked the free thinking people of this country and generated indignation and condemnation in the minds of the Georgia Tech Student Body as well as the general public. One can only imagine what is in the minds and hearts of the University of Pittsburgh football team, the coaching staff, the student body and most of all, Robert Grier, the innocent victim of Governor Marvin Griffin's action. Some light was shed on this point in the editorial section of The Patriot of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, as follows: "From the University of Pittsburgh we learn that they have no intention of making any lineup change because of Gov. Griffin's blatant action. Bobby Grier will travel with the team, will live with his team mates, eat with them, practice with them and play with them in the Sugar Bowl game for which they have contracted." Governor Griffin ought to follow the splendid example of the fine athletic director of the University of Pittsburgh, Mr. Tom Hamilton, the great coach of the football team, Mr. John Michelosen, the entire football team and student body and not be guided blindly or influenced by a certain bigoted group of people in the state of Georgia; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania extends its sincerest congratulations to the University of Pittsburgh, its athletic department, the football team, the student body and to Robert Grier, the innocent victim, for their fine record on the gridiron, for their understanding of human rights and equalities and for bringing honor to themselves and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a result of their accomplishments; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the University of Pittsburgh, the Athletic Department and to Robert Grier.

MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NEW JERSEY PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I would like to introduce some gentlemen from the General Assembly of the State of New Jersey who are in our midst. They are here to attend a conference this afternoon on a water problem along the Delaware River.

I would like to present them to you and the names I have here are Assemblyman C. William Haines, G. Clifford Thomas and Ben Franklin, who are Members of the General Assembly. They are here under the leadership of Senator Wayne Dumont, of Phillipsburg. I wish the gentlemen would rise so that we could see them and let us give them a round of applause.

Mr. President, while I was visiting the State of New Jersey some time ago, Senator Dumont took me on the floor and was granted permission to extend the privilege of the floor to me. Now that he is here, I ask unanimous consent to grant Senator Dumont the privilege of the floor. I hope he will accept it and say a few words to us.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair invites the Senator from New Jersey to the rostrum.

REMARKS BY HONORABLE WAYNE DUMONT, JR. MEMBER OF THE SENATE OF NEW JERSEY

SENATOR DUMONT. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Pennsylvania Senate, it is a real pleasure to be here today, accompanied by three distinguished members of our House of Assembly; G. Clifford Thomas, of Union County, Benjamin Franklin, III, of Morris County and C. William Haines, of Burlington County.

We are here, as outlined by the Senator from Northampton, to confer with a joint commission of your Legislature on the question of what might be done about the development of the Delaware River as a source of water supply and storage, with specific reference to the construction of a dam at Wallpack Bend north of the general area from which Senator Yosko and I come. We realize that we will have many problems, one of them being the difficult problem of finances. I have been reading with interest that you have that problem in Pennsylvania. We do also from time to time.

It is a great pleasure and privilege to be here in this very impressive Chamber, to meet with you gentlemen and to have the privilege of the floor.

Senator Yosko and I have had on many occasions the opportunity to work back and forth across the Delaware River on problems of mutual concern. It is not only water supply that we have on our hands in both States as a problem, but since August 18th and 19th we have the very serious problem of flood control on the Delaware River as well, as a result of the disaster that was brought by the floods of last summer.

It is my hope, as he expressed in Trenton, that we can, from time to time, meet through our joint committee and joint commissions and discuss the problem involving the two States. In that way we can have not only co-operation between each other, but also promote the relations which are already good and make them even better between our two sister States.

I want to thank you for granting me this privilege to be here with you. I have great respect for the Senator from Northampton. He and I do happen to be on opposite sides of the fence politically, but we have been able to work together in fine shape across the river.

It is a great pleasure to be here to see some of the other gentlemen whom I had the pleasure of meeting last March when we were out on a somewhat similar mission; the Majority Leader; Senator Scott, who I understand is a member of this water commission; Senator Dent, whom I have had the privilege of meeting not only in Harrisburg, but also in New Orleans and San Francisco on so-called junkets but we consider them legitimate trips for the Legislatures of the two States in an effort to learn through interchange of ideas the things that come up annually in the Council of State Governments which meets in different parts of the United States. It is nice to see you and to be here. I wish you success and happiness in all your endeavors.

I hope we may have the privilege and pleasure of having you with us in Trenton where we meet annually all year around, taking recesses, of courses, from time to time, but at the same time trying to take care of the business of our State as best we know how. It would be a pleasure at any time to have any of you or a group of you come to Trenton. We shall try to make you most welcome.

I want to thank you again for the privilege you have granted to me here this morning. Thank you very much, gentlemen.

The PRESIDENT. Thank you, Senator. The Chair would like to ask the Senator how they got Benjamin Franklin out of Pennsylvania over into New Jersey?

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am going to yield to Senator Silvert for a moment, and then I am going to take the floor again to read the rest of this correspondence. I think it would only be right on my part to excuse the other Members of the Senate, other than Senator Mahany, so that they can have their lunch because he is the gentleman who started this thing and he is going to have to stay for the finish.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I should like to direct my remarks to the statements of the Majority Leader that when Governor James was elected Governor, succeeding Governor Earle, he made it a policy not to dismiss members of commissions whose terms had not expired. I am not going into the propriety of the dismissal of Mr. Watson from the Turnpike Commission. However, I want to call the attention of the Majority Leader to the fact that in 1939 Governor James dismissed all three members of the Democratic Registration Commission in Philadelphia prior to the expiration of their terms.

I recall this because one of them, Mr. John L. Barrett, now deceased, was a personal friend of mine. They took the matter to court and I think the matter was tried before Judge McDevitt, now also deceased, and Governor

James' action in dismissing these three members of the Registration Commission prior to the expiration of their terms was sustained. If my recollection of that is erroneous, I would be willing to withdraw the remarks which I have made here.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, in reading further, I would like to read a letter from the Bernie Berle Agency. I think you have heard of them in Philadelphia. They supply music and acts for every occasion:

"Your Honor, Governor Leader:"

Can you hear me, Senator Mahany?

"I'm writing you to congratulate you on the recent appointment you made—Mr. Sol Turnoff, to the Pharmacy Board of Pennsylvania.

"It was a very wise choice. Mr. Turnoff being a truly excellent gentleman, very respected, has hundreds of friends, and last but not least, a regular fellow like you. He's the kind of a person that as you first meet him, in the next second you call him Sol.

"My very sincere admiration to you on your choice for I am proud to say that he too is a friend of mine.

"You will recall that we met not too long ago in the office of James Finnegan.

"I am the orchestra leader that played for the National Democratic Dinner in Philadelphia for ex-President, Harry S. Truman; the very big dinner for you and Adali Stevenson at the Zembo Mosque; the inauguration of the Democratic Party in Philadelphia (Academy of Music), and also for ex-Vice President Barklay, etc. I am also playing for the $100 dinner, October 27th in Convention Hall.

"My congratulations to you for your upright leadership, your honesty, your sincerity. I am certain that you will go further and I pray that with the Lord's guidance, you will one day be the leader of our wonderful country.

"My very best wishes to you and your family for the best health of all. I will hope to see you one day.

"P. S. Also saw you at the Grace Kelly-Cary Grant Ball at the Drake not too long ago." This fellow is advertising a little. "I played for the Ball. Also played at the Playhouse in the Park all last summer for John B. Kelly."

Mr. President, here is another letter from Mr. A. L. Benjamin, 6919 Souder Street, who states:

"Dear Governor:

"I saw your appointment in the Philadelphia Inquirer the other day of Sol Turnoff as a member of the State Board of Pharmacy.

"I have known Sol Turnoff for over thirty years and have found him to be a man interested in everyone's welfare. Your selection of Sol Turnoff has certainly helped his standing in his community and his fellow pharmacists. Congratulations!"

Mr. President, here is one from Mr. Abraham Belsky of the Almax Paper Company, L.L.B.

"Dear Governor:

"Thank you very much for your wonderful appointment of Sol Turnoff to your State Board of Pharmacy

"I have known Sol for the past thirty-five years having gone to school with him as a boy and in later years as a member of his family.

"During a lifetime of friendship I have been able to observe him closely and to perceive his many activities and deep feeling for people.

"May I express to your Excellency our sincerest and most heartfelt congratulations for nominating a man who has a dedicated life of service to his community and to his fellow men.

"We are proud that you have chosen him to represent pharmacy for he will serve it as he has served his profession so well for over twenty-five years.

"He really is his 'Brother's Keeper.'"

The next letter, Mr. President, is from the Episcopal Hospital of Philadelphia:

"Dear Sir:

"I wish to congratulate you on your appointment of Sol S. Turnoff to the Pennsylvania Board of Pharmacy.

"Gertrude M. Bell."

Here is a wire from the William Bauer Lyter Body Works of Philadelphia, which states:

"The Philadelphia Inquirer published your announcement of Sol S. Turnoff's appointment to the Pennsylvania State Board of Pharmacy. He is a man of great integrity and honesty and a conscientious public servant. This appointment is a great stepping stone in the right direction for your administration."

Here is a letter from Mr. William F. Bauer, President, Lyter Body Company, at Randolph and Callowhill Streets:

"Your Excellency:

"I saw your appointment in this morning's Philadelphia Inquirer of Sol Turnoff as a member of the State Pharmacy Board. His many years of activity in the interests of his community is a matter of record and I am sure that he will serve your administration as faithfully as he has served pharmacy and his fellow men. I congratulate you on your appointment of this outstanding pharmacist."

Here is a telegram from Mr. John Baskin, 641 Benner Street, Philadelphia, which reads:

"All of us at Squibb"—you have heard of Squibb's I think, Senator Mahany—"are thrilled with your appointment of Sol S. Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy. A great honor and responsibility placed in good hands. Congratulations!"

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I do not believe that the Senator is reading all of the letter. There must be a date on those letters, too. Why does he not read the date?

Mr. BARR. I will be very happy to read the date, Mr. President. The next letter is dated October 7, 1955. This fellow is no relative of mine but his name happens to be Carl Barr—B-a-r-r—and he states:

"Honorable Governor Leader:

"I wish to commend you for naming Sol S. Turnoff on the State Board of Pharmacy.

"Knowing Mr. Turnoff and the wonderful work he has done in the community, I am sure that you have made a wise choice. He is trustworthy, conscientious person."

The next one is a wire dated October 10th:

"Congratulations on your choice of Dr. Sol Turnoff for the State Board of Pharmacy. Dr. Turnoff always is generous to the children of my school.

"Albert Barandon, Principal, Paxson School."

The next letter is dated October 10th, from Mr. and Mrs. M. Balansoff, 2375 Seventy-seventh Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania:

"Dear Governor Leader:

"Your choice in selecting Mr. Sol Turnoff to the Pharmacy Board is an outstanding one. He is a very capable and conscientious person. We are sure it will be an asset to the board to have him work with them."

The next correspondence, Mr. President, is from Lieutenant William A. Baker, which was written on October 10th. He lives at Apartment 396 and he is a Lieutenant of Police in the City of Philadelphia. His letter states:

"Dear Governor:

"I read with profound interest your recent appointment of Mr. Sol Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy.

"Your appointment of Mr. Turnoff again emphasizes your intention of attaining the highest calibre of administrators for the various governmental functions of the Commonwealth.

"I have known Mr. Turnoff for the past ten years and can say without fear of contradiction that he is tops in his field, honest, courageous, and above all interested in promoting the status of his profession to the highest level.

"The citizens of this great Commonwealth have profited by this appointment."

I have here another wire from Guy Baird, of Philadelphia, dated October 8th, and reads as follows:

"Heartiest congratulations for your excellent choice in appointment of Sol Turnoff to the State Board."

The next wire, Mr. President, is from Mr. Abraham Adelman, of the Majestic Embroidery Works of Philadelphia. I do not see a date on this wire, Senator, but the answer from the Governor's Office, acknowledging the wire, was dated October 10th:

"Congratulations on your appointment of Doctor Sol Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy. He will be a great credit to the pharmacy and to your administration. You should be commended." This was from the President of the Majestic Embroidery Works.

I have a letter from the same Embroidery Works, written by Esther Adelman, dated October 7th:

"Dear Governor:

"Please accept my congratulations on the appointment of Sol S. Turnoff to the State Board of Pharmacy. Having known Sol all his life, since I am his older sister, I feel qualified"—well, I think she should—"to assure you that he will do his job conscientiously and honestly and will serve you well always.

"Thank you for your fine choice of the right man, and wishing you the best of health and success, I am"

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BARR. It will be a pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, would you say that most of these letters were written on or about October 10th?

Mr. BARR. Well, here is one written on October 26th, and others on October 13th, November 9th, November 13th—I am just reading these at random—October 12th, October 7th. I would have to tell you the dates as I go through them.

Mr. MAHANY. When was Mr. Turnoff's name sent over?

Mr. BARR. I think that you should answer that yourself. You are the majority side and you have kept the appointment in committee.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, I do not keep track of all of these. I am not Chairman of the Executive Nominations Committee. If you know the date, would you mind telling us about when it was sent over?

Mr. BARR. While you are on the subject, I would like to answer that completely. My sympathy goes to the Chairman of the Executive Nominations Committee because he is just chairman in name only. The committee is the Republican Caucus and we all know that.

Mr. MAHANY. Have we had it for some months, is that it?

Mr. BARR. Senator Watson would know, I am sure, but I am positive it has been here for at least over two months.

Mr. MAHANY. Do you know of any reason why all these letters would come on or about October 10th, and since that time, to the Governor on behalf of this man?

Mr. BARR. They were sent to the Governor. I do not know whether you are aware of it or not, but for every appointment, if it be a trustee to a teachers college, if it be a member to a hospital board, hundreds and hundreds of letters and wires come into the Governor's Office. I happened one day to be in Mr. Heagy's office as Governor Fine was packing up to leave the Capitol. The boxes he had would have filled this room and when I asked him what was in most of them, he said that they were letters of commendation mostly on appointments of people on boards, commissions, etc.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, now that you have put a number of letters into the record—as far as I am concerned you can put in the rest—do you not think it would be better to give these letters to the Executive Nominations Committee so that they also can have whatever information can be furnished them? If they then feel that this is a good nomination they can report it to the floor.

As far as I am concerned, I have no closed mind in connection with this man. I just merely wanted to bring out the fact that this was the man whom I had in mind in deference to Senator Dent's suggestion that it was perhaps not good to cast a cloud on all of these nominations which the Governor sent over. That was the reason I focused the spotlight on this particular man. It certainly was no pleasure for me to do it, but in order to remove the cloud from these other people it was necessary to do so.

If this man is all that you say he is, then perhaps the things that he has done over the years, since this other unfortunate experience that he had in his life occurred, might overbalance the other things done by him and he may be a good subject to be appointed. I do not know whether or not he is. However, I think that all of this information should be presented to the Executive Nominations Committee and then they, in their wisdom, can decide whether or not they want to report this name either with a favorable or unfavorable recommendation.

Mr. BARR. Do you mean that the Executive Nominations Committee is going to function? It has only met once this year, in case you do not know it. Perhaps you want me to present these letters to the Republican Caucus. Now which is it?

Mr. MAHANY. I stated, Senator, that you could present this information to the Executive Nominations Committee. I suggest that you give it to Senator Watson.

Mr. BARR. Will they have a meeting of the committee, which I can attend also? I am a member as you know, and Senator Dent is a member and we have attended one meeting which was in the President pro tempore's office when the Governor's Cabinet came over, but that is the only meeting we have ever had.

Mr. MAHANY. That would be up to the chairman of the committee. As far as I am concerned, you can attend any committee meeting that we have in the Senate. I have never yet objected to any Senator attending any committee meeting regardless of whether he is on the committee or whether he is not.

Mr. BARR. I suggest then that the Chairman of the Executive Nominations Committee call a meeting of the committee, at which time I will present these letters and wires.

The thing that I have tried to put across today is that you, as a lawyer and as a friend, have hit below the belt, Senator Mahany. I do not know of any lawyer who ever went behind a Presidential Pardon. In fact, I did not even look myself to see what it was because I was always led to believe and still continue to believe that once a Presidential Pardon is granted, everything is wiped off.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, in the first place, I did not go behind this Presidential Pardon. I merely referred to it, which I think I have a right to do, and stated that in order to have a Presidential Pardon there must have been some record to have a Presidential Pardon on. I did not go into any details about what the man was convicted of or say anything about it. I do not know where you get the idea that I went back of a Presidential Pardon. I merely mentioned it.

Mr. BARR. You did go behind it. You said you wanted to find out what the Presidential pardon was for.

Mr. MAHANY. I have not gone behind it as yet, Senator. I asked for the same report from the State Police that they had given the Governor. Now if you think that I am not entitled to that, why then perhaps that is another thing.

I still think that we ought to find out more about these people when their names are sent over here. I think too often the Senate confirms without too much knowledge about the man. I think as long as the Constitution gives the Senate the right to confirm and not to confirm appointments which are made by the Governor, we should do our jobs and find out as much as we can about these people. Evidently the framers of the Constitution thought there was something in this power they gave us, or otherwise we would not have been given the power.

If we are just going to confirm names that are sent over, without going into detail about these men, then we might as well give up our right of confirmation of the Governor's appointments.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am wondering why the gentleman did not look into this the last two times this man's name was before him, and which was sent over by Republican governors for confirmation.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, as you know, I was not the Majority Leader at that time and I did not have any occasion to go into these names. If anything such as this had been called to my attention, I certainly would have gone into it. Probably this is one of the many names that was read off by the Clerk one day and they all sounded the same to me. I probably voted "aye." Sometimes we sit here, you know, and no one is even heard voting, but we are all recorded as having voted "aye" on these things. I do not believe there has been a time that I know of when we had—yes, outside of Mr. Daremel; I think that was sent over here and we non-confirmed him. Outside of that one instance, I do not remember of a time when we had a long, slow roll call on these appointments. As you know, they usually call out "Bane, Berger and Yosko," and we all say "aye" and that is it.

Mr. President, I did not have occasion at that time to go into this particular matter. Even to this date, I personally do not have anything against this man. I do not know him; I have nothing personal against him in any manner whatsoever. If he is the good man you say he is and he can do this job, perhaps I will change my mind in relation to this particular gentleman. All I am saying is that I think you should give this information to the Executive Nominations Committee and they can study it. If they, in their wisdom, decide that this is a man whom they want to report out favorably, then I would like to have them so report.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I intend to read to Senator Mahany—and I do not think it is news to him what I am going to read.

"Judge Welsh, in the Federal Court, ordered and decreed: The clerk of court is ordered to insert across the docket page of the within case the following:

"Pres. Pardon granted to Solomon S. Turnoff on Dec. 13, 1945. On 6/6/55 officer examined criminal docket 6151.'"

This name was sent over with the State Police with the same complaint that was sent into the Governor's Office at that time. He examined it and it was dated 4/12/50, and states "Pres. Pardon granted to Sol S. Turnoff on 12/13/45."

Is that sufficient proof?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I did not deny that the man had been given a Presidential Pardon. I agree that he has been given one. I think, in relation to that particular statement, that is on the record. It was done after a petition was presented by Mr. Turnoff in which he asked the court to expunge his name from the dockets and impound all the records in connection with this case. The court turned down the petition; it refused to grant it. Instead, the court agreed that that particular statement should be written on the docket. I think you will find that is the status of the case.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Have you investigated and looked at the docket in the Federal Court?

Mr. MAHANY. No, I have not.

Mr. BARR. Then, what you are saying is just hearsay. What I am reading is quoted.

Mr. MAHANY. I got my information from a very detailed account of this. I believe it appeared in the Philadelphia Bulletin some years ago. If that is an inaccurate state of the record, then I should be happy to have you correct me. I have agreed on the statement that you just now made relative to what appears on the record. I do not know what more you could ask me to do.

Mr. BARR. There is only one thing I can say, Senator Mahany. I think today you have hurt a man's character. You know, in life, there are very few things that we have. Yes, some of us have things of profit and money. Others have just their word and their reputation. This gentleman, in my opinion, has had his reputation marred by the statements made on the Senate floor today. To Mr. Turnoff, from the Members on this side, I apologize deeply and gracefully.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I am sorry if I have unjustly hurt Mr. Turnoff. However, on the other hand, I believe it is my duty to call to the attention of the Senate anything that appears on records in connection with anybody who is sent over here by the Governor. It is for them to weigh whether or not that is important or whether it is not. I think the more knowledge we have about these folks who come over here from the Governor's Office, in the way of appointments, the better shape we will be in order to confirm or non-confirm them.

Mr. President, I am sure Mr. Turnoff cannot blame me for getting into whatever happened in relation to this particular docket entry. I had nothing to do with that. Senator Barr knows that as we go through life, if we go before a court and there are docket entries relating to a particular case in which we are involved, perhaps that record and those entries might haunt us the rest of our lives. If we are in public life, that is what happens. For instance, I remember the sad case of Albert Fall, many years ago. He was a member in one of the Republican President's cabinets. He received a Presidential Pardon. After he got that pardon, it did not mean that the next President would be justified in putting him in his cabinet again. Now, merely by stating that, I do not want Senator Barr to think that I am running behind the Presidential Pardon on that one. However, those are things that we should all have knowledge of.

If Mr. Turnoff is the fine, outstanding citizen that Senator Barr says he is, then we can take all that into consideration. If Mr. Turnoff is going to be a very important adjunct to this very important Pharmacy Board, then we can also take that into consideration as to whether or not the man can do the job to which the Governor has appointed him. I do feel that those are things about which we all should know.

I say again, to Senator Barr, that certainly I had nothing to do with the making of this record. If anyone is to be blamed, Mr. Turnoff can only blame himself. If I had a record, that would have ended by running for public office. I am sure that Senator Barr, as the Democratic State Chairman, even though we are good personal friends, would not have hesitated very long in bringing it out to the public about any record that I might have in the courts of Crawford County or any place else.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I resent Senator Mahany's last remark. There is no cop in me. I have never rung the bell on any one in the opposition who ever ran for any office. I am a little too old to start it now.

Mr. CAMIEL. Mr. President, I have no desire to prolong the discussion of Doctor Turnoff's fitness as a member of the Pharmacy Board. I think any discussions that should have taken place, or any placement of his record before this Senate, should have taken place in the Committee on Executive Nominations. Unfortunately, it was brought out onto the Senate Floor and I believe that his reputation as a fine, upstanding citizen has been injured somewhat.

In answer to the statements made by Senator Mahany concerning the appointment of Doctor Turnoff to the Pharmacy Board, I would like to refresh the Senator's memory and recall the previous honor given to Doctor Turnoff by former Governor Duff, in which Senator Mahany, at that time, concurred. Doctor Turnoff was appointed to the Philadelphia Board of Assistance by Governor Duff and served in that capacity to the satisfaction of the Republican Administration and to the satisfaction of the people of Pennsylvania. Incidentally, Governor Duff knew of Doctor Turnoff's Presidential Pardon and approved Doctor Turnoff's appointment at that time. At that time, Doctor Turnoff was confirmed by the Senate and the Senate was composed of the majority of the Senators seated here today. Not a word of criticism, censure nor opposition was raised by any Member of the Senate at that time.

Doctor Turnoff's record as a fine, publicspirited citizen and servant of the people has not changed since his appointment by Governor Duff. I believe the letters just read by Senator Barr are a good indication of the high regard in which the people in his community hold Doctor Turnoff.

Mr. President, I believe that I know the answer to the opposition to Doctor Turnoff's appointment. Senator Mahany stated that the opposition originates with the members of the Pharmacy Association of Philadelphia. That, I believe, is not true. The opposition to Doctor Turnoff was engineered by an officer of the Philadelphia organization who, for personal reasons, has engineered this behind-the-scene opposition. If Senator Mahany is sincere about his position, he should disclose the name of the individuals who gave him the slanderous information concerning Doctor Turnoff. I am certain that he will find that it originates with an officer of the P.A.R.D.; that is the Philadelphia Association of Retail Druggists and not the membership. His opposition stems from his desire to place himself above the Governor and the Members of this Senate in selecting members of the Pharmacy Board. This officer has stated on numerous occasions that unless the appointees to the Pharmacy Board from Philadelphia have his personal stamp of approval, he would organize opposition to their appointment.

Mr. President, if we in the Senate are going to lend ourselves to the scheming and connivance of a cunning, willful, dictatorial individual who believes that his position as an officer of an organization places him in a position to dictate the appointment and approval of members of the Pharmacy Board, I believe we are lending ourselves to something which none of us are anxious to be a part of.

I know that no Member of this Senate is going to allow this individual to dictate the actions of this Senate. Therefore, in line with the suggestion made by Senator Mahany, I believe the Committee on Executive Nominations should meet and go into this matter thoroughly and come out with their recommendations to the Senate.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

Mr. PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska. Will state his point of information.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, once a candidate has been confirmed for any office in this great Commonwealth, upon the advice and consent of the Senate, and sent to the Governor, can this body, for various reasons that may develop later, recall that confirmation?

The PRESIDENT. For the information of the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, the answer is no, it cannot be done.

Mr. HALUSKA. Can the appointing Governor discharge that person after he has been confirmed?

The PRESIDENT. In reply to the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, that is a question of law and one which the Chair cannot decide.

Mr. HALUSKA. Will you kindly state that answer again, please?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair said, for the information of the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, that is a question of law and the Chair cannot decide that particular question.

Mr. HALUSKA. Is it within the procedure for this body then to pass a resolution and send it over to the Governor asking for a dismissal?

The PRESIDENT. In reply to the Senator from Cambria, that could be done. The Senate could pass any type of resolution they desire. If it would be to recall, it would depend upon the action the Governor wishes to take whether he complied with the wishes of the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Then to keep myself straight, the other question was that it is a matter of law; that if the appointing Governor should decide that he has made a mistake or, after the resolution passes, he is shown that he has made a mistake, you then inform me that the only recourse is to law. Is that right?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. HALUSKA. Thank you, Mr. President.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MALLERY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, in the Borough of Huntingdon the county seat of Huntingdon County, is located Juniata College. Juniata College was founded in 1876. It is a small college. It stresses excellence in scholarship. Over the years, graduates of Juniata College have become prominent in the ministry, in the law, in public service, in business and in many prominent endeavors in general.

It is surprising, therefore, Mr. President, that in a small college, having an enrollment of a few over 1,000, and where they stress excellence in scholarship, there should be developed such an outstanding football team. The Juniata College Football Team has a record of twenty-three straight victories, unequaled among Pennsylvania colleges and second only to Oklahoma.

Therefore, Mr. President, I take pleasure in introducing this resolution.

CONGRATULATIONS OF THE SENATE EXTENDED TO THE FOOTBALL TEAM OF JUNIATA COLLEGE

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MALLERY offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, December 6, 1955.

The Juniata College football team, undefeated since 1952, and with a record of 23 straight victories, unequalled among Pennsylvania colleges and second only to Oklahoma with 29 in the national ranking, has been signally honored with an invitation to play in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Florida on January second.

The team is coached by Bob Hicks of Lancaster who played with Penn State in the Cotton Bowl in 1947.

The Commonwealth takes great pride in the accomplishments of its sons in every field of endeavor and in particular in their gaining national recognition; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania extend its commendatory "well done" to each member of the victorious football team of Juniata College and tender its congratulations to the college and the coach for their contribution to the extraordinary accomplishments of the team; and be it further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate present certified copies of these resolutions to Dr. Calvert N. Ellis, President of Juniata College and to Bob Hicks its football coach.

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, the hour is approaching two o'clock and some of us have not had the opportunity of having lunch yet. I would like to hold a Republican Caucus at 2:30 o'clock and, for that purpose and also for the purpose of having lunch, I now move that the Senate do take a recess until 3:00 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. HARNEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 35, TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, at this time I call from the table Senate Resolution, Serial No. 35, which was reported from committee at today's Session.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

PROVIDING A ROOM FOR LEGISLATORS AND STATE EMPLOYEES TO MEDITATE AND PRAY

In the Senate, March 29, 1955.

The one great secret to the success of the American people, which has made them the envy of all peoples of the world, is their firm belief that God is the creator of all good things and that only through Him are we enabled to maintain the height of success which we now enjoy and to achieve even greater success in the future.

Realizing our continued need for inner strength and a wisdom greater than our own and for communion with the invisible and the omnipotent, a channel is needed where, in solitude and silence, we may meet with God and draw upon the never ceasing springs of strength through the medium of prayer; therefore be it

Resolved, That a centrally located room in the Capitol be set aside for the purpose of providing legislators and State employes with a place of meditation and prayer, so that they may look to God for strength and guidance to better their lives and to better conduct the affairs of our Commonwealth.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

A motion was made by Mr. RUTH and Mr. LANE,

That rule 39, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie over for one day, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Which was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL NO. 152, TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I call from the table Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 152, which was reported from committee at today's Session.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

URGING THE GENERAL STATE AUTHORITY TO AC- QUIRE PROPERTY IN CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA FOR A SCHOOL FOR MENTAL DEFECTIVES

In the Senate, October 7, 1955.

Polk State School in western Pennsylvania and Pennhurst State School in eastern Pennsylvania are devoted exclusively to the care of mental defectives. The facilities of both schools are overtaxed. There is a crying need for an additional school centrally located; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General State Authority be urged to acquire property in central Pennsylvania, with the approval of the Governor and the Department of Welfare, and to erect thereon the buildings and equipment required for a State school for mental defectives, to be leased to the Commonwealth and operated by the Department of Welfare according to law.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

A motion was made by Mr. MALLERY and Mr. DIEHM.

That rule 39, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie over for one day, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Which was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

HOUSE MESSAGES

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL NO. 342

STUDENTS FROM EASTERN LEBANON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. DIEHM. Mr. President, there is assembled in the balcony of the Senate, from the Eastern Lebanon County School District, the Newmanstown Senior Problems of Democracy Class, numbering twenty-three students. They are here today under the supervision of Miss Elsie Goldman. Kindly give them a reception.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair, on behalf of the Members of the Senate, welcome this group to the Senate. We hope you enjoy your visit with us today.

BIRTHDAY FELICITATIONS EXTENDED TO SENATOR BERNARD B. MCGINNIS

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I promise that I am not going to make a speech.

Last Thursday, Mr. President, there was a birthday of one of our Members and we were not here to celebrate it. He is the youngest member of his family. On the same day, his sister had a birthday and she was ninety years of age.

Mr. President, I refer to the seventy-seventh birthday of my good friend, my County Chairman, a great man for everyone to know, Senator Bernie McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair says "Happy Birthday" to the distinguished Senator from Allegheny and decognizes the Senator.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BERNARD B. MCGINNIS

Mr. MCGINNIS. When in our lives, like Senator Taylor and myself, the frost of winter comes, of course, it may make us sad. Like yesterday and the other day, the frosts of winter came to two men on this floor.

I am reminded here now of an address, or a lecture that William Jennings Bryan gave around the world. I heard him deliver it when I was a young man. At one point, he said something like this:

"If the father deigns to touch matter mute and inanimate, like the rosebud, and to make it blossom forth in another springtime, will he deny to me the sweet assurance of another springtime when in my life the frosts of winter come?"

Ah, I am as sure there is another life as I stand on this floor today. Therefore, I am sure it is the wish of every Senator on this floor that in the lives of these two Senators, when the frosts of winter came to them in their lives, their souls will burst forth in another springtime.

REMARKS BY SENATOR ISRAEL STIEFEL

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, it is indeed a privilege and an honor to call to the attention of the Senate the fact that Senator McGinnis appointed me as his amanuensis to prepare a book. The title of the book will be as follows: "I Saw Them Come and Go, McGinnis' Cavalcade of America."

SENATE BILL No. 837 TAKEN FROM TABLE

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 21, AND THAT THE SENATE CONCUR IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL No. 837

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate concur in the amendments placed by the House to Senate Bill No. 837.

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I second the motion. On the question, Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his point of order.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I still insist that you cannot make two motions at one time. The last time I rose on the floor of the Senate, the motion was carried. You cannot make a motion to suspend the rules and in the same motion move to concur. I object to the motion and ask that we take one at a time.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order raised by the Senator from Cambria is well taken. The Chair feels it would be proper to divide the motion.

MOTION WITHDRAWN TO SUSPEND RULE 21, AND THAT THE SENATE CONCUR IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL No. 837

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I wish to withdraw my former motion.

Senate Bill No. 838, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 858), entitled "An act establishing a State employees' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; . . ." by providing an additional State annuity on retirement for superannuation, and providing for minimum retirement allowances in certain cases and appropriations for payment of the costs thereof.

Whereupon,

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. McMENAMIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, the bill which I am about to introduce, on behalf of Senator Silvert, Senator Blass, Senator Mallery and myself, is addressed to a situation which came to my attention a few months ago and arose out of an incident in the Federal Court in the western part of the United States where some sociologists, with apparently the consent of the court, put a microphone in a jury room, or several jury rooms, and made tape recordings of the jury's deliberation in some litigation which was pending out there.

I think, to myself and the co-sponsors with whom I have talked about this problem, this is a rather shocking situation. I think all of us in America, and particularly lawyers, are proud of our jurisprudence and we know, I think, that one of the strongest basis upon which western civilization is founded is the system of jurisprudence which we have here in America and in sister countries, such as England. It seems to me that the very keystone of this judicial system is the jury system. The jury system cannot function unless its deliberations are inviolate and absolutely secret. It seems contrary to the entire tradition of our legal history to allow, for any reason, any outsider to listen in to or have knowledge of the discussions of a jury in arriving at a verdict on a case. This is particularly reprehensible, it seems to me, when the eavesdropping is done with the jury's knowledge that it was done.

Therefore, Mr. President, we find there is no statute immediately addressed to this situation in Pennsylvania, and we offer this bill, as an amendment to the Penal Code, to prohibit any such practices or tampering in any way with jury deliberations in the future in Pennsylvania.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. McMENAMIN, SILVERT, BLASS and MALLERY read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 907, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "The Penal Code," prohibiting the interception of jury deliberations and prescribing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 908, entitled:

An Act reenacting and amending the act of August 17, 1951 (P. L. 1254), entitled "An act fixing the minimum pensions of policemen and fire men in certain cities," taking advantage of amendments to section 11 of article 3 of the Constitution.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

The first article was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the article?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I would like to offer at this time some amendments to the excise tax bill, which is House Bill No. 1879.

Mr. President, these amendments have been agreed to because they clear up a situation that none of us want to happen in Pennsylvania. These amendments take out of the excise tax bill those tangibles which today in Pennsylvania are carrying an excise tax of their own. One, particularly, is cigarettes. As you all know, this General Assembly this year added an additional cent which makes the excise tax on cigarettes today something over twenty-one per cent. We passed that additional cent for the emergency flood relief in the Commonwealth. We do not feel that it is proper to again tax cigarettes. In the interest of simple justice—as you have so often heard me say, there can be no equity in taxation but there might be some justice—I offer this group of amendments which will remove from the excise tax law of the Commonwealth all of those articles in this State that are now taxed by an excise tax.

We have to be a little disturbed, too, Mr. President, over the question of diminishing returns. I think it was Chief Justice Marshall who once said that the power to tax is the power to destroy. When you get a tax somewhere around twenty to twenty-one per cent of the retail sale price of any commodity, you are coming pretty close to that margin of destruction. I do not believe that this General Assembly wants to pass any legislation which will create further injustice, as it were, on certain articles that are used in this Commonwealth by the great masses of the peoples.

Another amendment which I will offer at the same time, too, clarifies the language which was contained in an amendment introduced yesterday, and accepted by this Senate, on the matter of confections. This amendment spells out the exemption for confections.

Mr. President, I was going to say that if we adopt the amendments, I would like to ask that the bill be held on second reading so that we may read it before we move it up. There may also be other amendments forthcoming.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the article?

Mr. DENT offered the following amendment:

Amend House Bill No. 1879; Article I, Section 2, (c) following the word "drinks" by adding the following: "including but not limited to confections".

It was agreed to.

The article was agreed to as amended.

The second article was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the article?

Mr. DENT offered the following amendments:

Amend Article II, Section 201, page 11 by striking out on lines 10 and 11, beginning after the word "of," the following: "Spirituuous and Vinous Liquors and Alcohol sold to the Liquor Control Board and"; Amend Article II, Section 201, page 11 by striking out on line 13 the letter "S" at the end of the word "paragraphs". Also striking out on line 13 the word "and" and the numeral "(4)"; Amend Article II, Section 201, page 11 by striking out all of lines 18, 19 and 20; Amend Article II, Section 201, page 12 by striking out all of lines 1 and 2; Amend Article II, Section 201, page 12, line 3 by striking out the numeral "(4)" at the beginning of the line and by substituting in lieu thereof the numeral "(3)"; Amend Article II, Section 202, page 16 by inserting between the lines 16 and 17, the following: "F." The manufacture, sale, storage or use of manufactured tangible personal property upon which or as to which the Commonwealth has or currently does collect an excise or special tax."

They were agreed to.

The article was agreed to as amended.

The third, fourth and fifth articles and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended.

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 1879, Printer's No. 1184, on second reading, go over in its order, as amended.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make reports from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LANE from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 882, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 23, 1931 (P. L. 932) entitled "The Third Class City Code," permitting elected officers of a city to serve as members of the legislature.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 883, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 15, 1874 (P. L. 186), entitled "An act declaring what offices are incompatible," permitting members of the legislature elected to the office of councilman in an incorporated city to serve out their terms.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I especially want Senator Dent to hear this.

Mr. President, I would like to have Senator Dent, or someone speaking for the Administration, get us the following information. I want to have answers to those questions and I would like to have as exact estimates as it is possible to get:

1. What is your estimate of the total tax yield from the tax on manufacturers as contained in subsection (a) of Section 201 of this excise tax act?

2. What is your estimate of the amount of that tax money that will be absorbed by the manufacturers and not passed onto the wholesalers?

3. What is your estimate of the amount of that tax money which will be absorbed by the manufacturers and passed onto the wholesalers?

In other words, Mr. President, the second question should be, what is the amount of the tax which the manufacturers will pay? The third question is, what is the amount which they will not be able to absorb and will be passed onto the retailers?

4. What is your estimate of the amount of the tax money which will soon be absorbed—

Mr. DENT. Mr. President—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would suggest to the gentleman that if he will ask me the questions now, one at a time, I will give him the answers.

INTERROGATION

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. MAHANY. Are they going to be fairly accurate answers, Senator?

Mr. DENT. We will stand by them.

Mr. MAHANY. All right. What, Senator, is your estimate of the total tax yield from this tax on manufacturers?

Mr. DENT. The total tax yield, as it is now amended in a fifteen month collection period which is left to us, will amount to approximately $320,000,000 in round figures.

Mr. MAHANY. Is that the amount that the manufacturers will pay, Senator, or is that the total amount which both the manufacturers will pay under that subsection (a) and the amount which the consumer will pay under subsection (b)?

Mr. DENT. There is no human being who can tell how much, to an exact point, will be absorbed by manufacturers, how much will be absorbed by the wholesale or commission agents, how much will be absorbed by the retail outlet at the mercantile level and how much will be passed onto the individual consumer or the corporate consumer. Therefore, I have to give you, in fairness to everybody, an estimate of the total yield of the tax.

I do not want you to think that I am trying to duck anything; I just do not think it is humanly possible for anybody to ascertain how much of it will be absorbed. If you wish, I can give you the history of the tax bill. The history of this tax bill, where it is now in existence in Canada, is that between forty and sixty-two per cent, depending upon the individual line of commodities and tangible goods that are dealt in, is absorbed somewhere along the line before it reaches the ultimate consumer.

Mr. MAHANY. Do you have any idea, Senator, as to how much it might cost by reason of certain pyramiding of costs to the consumer, by reason of the trade custom of making percentage markups?

Mr. DENT. I can answer that very clearly because amendments will be added to this bill when we reach some final decision between the two bodies here, the Democratic and Republican membership of this Senate, where we will prohibit the tax being pyramided in any manner whatsoever because no person who collects this tax at any level will be permitted to charge more of a tax to the next consumer or receiver of that goods than the amount that is returned to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which is different from the sales tax because there was no such guarantee that the tax that was collected was ever returned to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, do you feel that such amendments could be introduced, passed and made a part of this law and be enforceable?

Mr. DENT. I certainly do. I think that a lot of us have been chasing—Joe Barr says daffodils—but I would change it and say we are fighting windmills, because too many of us have not taken time to really give this an honest study.

When you base a tax at a known price level, there is nothing anybody can do that can change that tax except cheat. No law that was ever passed can protect us against cheaters. We assume that the great majority of the people in this Commonwealth in the mercantile field, the distributor field, the agents and commission agents, and the manufacturers will do an honest job and will try to pass onto the people only that amount which is necessary to carry on the work of this government.

I think that the amendment is not only feasible, but I think that it is workable and absolutely necessary.

Incidentally, Senator, talking of the so-called pyramiding which appears to be one of the stumbling blocks that has been thrown in the path of the passage of this bill, I would say that there is a great deal of misapprehension about this pyramiding for this reason. In this bill, for instance, there are, of course, like in any legislation, some rough spots but we can hold pyramiding down to a very low minimum. However, in a direct sales tax, you not only do nothing to stop pyramiding but you demand that pyramiding be put onto the tax because you allow them to take the price that they pay at the manufacturers level, pay the handling and transportation charges to the next receiver of goods, pay his markup plus the handling and traveling or transportation charges to the next receiver of goods, then plus the handling and charges and markup of the next receiver of goods and we have, in many instances, four receivers before it comes to the ultimate consumer. That individual back at the end of the line, who is paying the retail tax, has to pay on all of the markups along the line, plus all the costs of transportation, handling and the incidentals. Very frankly, it does an injustice to a good manufacturer who is efficient. An efficient manufacturer tries to place his goods at the platform level at the lowest possible price which will give him a decent and respectable profit. Another manufacturer, who may have a load-up on his overhead with a couple of nephews and brothers-in-law and cousins-in-law on the payroll and other things, may put his particular product at the platform level at a slightly higher rate. However, under a sales tax when it gets down to the consumer level, because of a percentage tax being placed at that sale price at the consumer level, you tend to equalize the price back here at the platform. Therefore, the competent, efficient manufacturer finds himself at a disadvantage in a competitive, retail market because his goods bear the same type of a tax, or the same amount of tax, even though he starts out there at a percentage much lower than another individual who ships from another platform.

We have gone into this thing.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I did not want to engage in debate; I just wanted to have some answers to my questions.

The last question, Senator, is do you have any idea about how much it will cost the Commonwealth to enforce and collect this tax?

Mr. DENT. I can only say that it cost the Commonwealth $7,000,000 to enforce and collect the sales tax. I can say that officials from the State of Ohio, which has the same kind of a tax that has been introduced in the House of Representatives Waterhouse, told me that it cost them $12,000,000 a year to collect their tax, which is about $24,000,000 a biennium. I do not know how far we can get with this, but in our conferences with your representatives we hope that we can maybe pinpoint the collection point. There has been running through my mind an idea that instead of taking the tax right at the manufacturers level, we can make the next receiver of goods the collector of the tax for the Commonwealth which would give us the added advantage of having a direct check on imports.

It may interest the people of this Commonwealth, and the gentlemen of the General Assembly, to know that approximately seventy per cent of the commodities in our retail outlets come from outside of the State. We are trying to safeguard Pennsylvania industry as much as we can. If we can pinpoint the collection, we ought to be able to collect this tax in the next fifteen months for approximately $5,000,000. We are hoping that it will be closer to $4,000,000. This is not out of line and it is not near the eight per cent that it cost us to collect the State sales tax in Pennsylvania during its twenty months of operation, and I hope that we can get by it.

Mr. MAHANY. Thank you, Senator. Of course, it is not fair to draw percentage comparisons because the excise tax which you are figuring on putting on will, no doubt, collect a lot more money than the sales tax which we had heretofore and, therefore, the percentage it would cost to collect it might be a bit different. In other words, you have the same overhead and it might cost you almost as much to collect $100,000,000 as it would to collect $200,000,000 or $300,000,000 because you have to have offices and staff, etc. For that reason, it would be a lot better to have a tax that you could collect more money on and it would cut down your percentage of cost of collection.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, that is very fine. I think that you have given a better estimate of the cost than I have, Senator Mahany.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, that is all I have to ask of Senator Dent.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I just want to say this to all of you Members of the Senate. I think we have reached the stage here where, for the moment at least, we are going to have to reconsider our positions. We must of a necessity, for the good of the Commonwealth, set aside any personal opinions in the matter. Let us work towards a solution of the problem on a give and take basis.

I think that the institutions of this Commonwealth are entitled to the best that this Senate can give them. I suppose I have been as big a contributor as anybody in this Senate, and perhaps in the minds of a great many a bigger contributor than most of you in the ten or eleven months that we have spent here and the many hours of debate we have been engaged in. However, I am willing and have been willing for a long time—and I want it clearly understood that the Democratic Caucus has given me a great vote of confidence. They have told me to work with the Membership on the other side in any committee that they may name to try to work out a solution to this problem in order that we will not have to go out and borrow more money in order to keep from endangering the stability of Pennsylvania's financial government.

I want the Majority Leader and the other Members on the other side to know that I like a good fight and I can engage in one without getting bitter. I can engage in a good political fight and sometimes I even relish one. I feel kind of despondent when I have not had a few cracks made at me and I make a few in return. However, at this point, let us try to sweeten our dispositions toward the problem which is before us. It is not our fault! it is not your fault as such, as individuals. It is not particularly the fault of political parties that we find ourselves in the situation we are in. The fault lies mainly with people through many associations who devote a great deal of their time to harassing the Legislature for greater public services, for greater participation in the cost of public education. Even though today we are having a difficult time in meeting the mandated and necessary costs of government, my mail is about equal between those who write in against tax bills of any kind and those who write in asking me to see what I can do to get out of the House of Representatives two important school bills that would further increase the cost this biennium of something like $42,000,000 more.

Mr. President, I am willing to vote for that legislation and I think most of the men in this room are. However, we want to say to industry and to business and to the welfare clubs and to all of the parent-teacher associations, to the chambers of commerce, to the boards of trade, to the labor unions and to all of these organized bodies, that from now on, think a little bit. When they write to us and ask us to add $30,000,000 there and $30,000,000 here and $50,000,000 here to the cost of this State Government, they should add a postscript to the bottom of their manuscripts and say to us, "This will cost, I imagine, $40.00 per person in the Commonwealth to do this or $4.00 per person—whatever the figure is—and I am willing to subscribe now that when you pass this, you can directly bill me for my share of it."

Let us get down to where the Legislature, as such, is not the scapegoat everytime we turn around. This is not new. I have watched it come and go for twenty years. I have watched men in this General Assembly be badgered into voting for tremendous amounts of moneys for worthwhile causes, let us put it that way. None of us regret that we have contributed to our schools. There is not a man here who would not be happier if he could contribute a great deal more to them.

Mr. President, I want to again reflect upon this observation. Members of this General Assembly are taxpayers in their own rights. Some of us, and most of us, have interest in businesses or professions or banks, where we are stockholders, or we are landlords or we are common laborers, but all along the line we have activities in this Commonwealth. Everytime we pass a tax bill that covers this State, we cover ourselves with a certain amount of the necessity for paying these taxes.

I would like to be able to vote "no" on the excise tax bill. I do not want to hurt the men who have come into me, imploring me to vote no. I do not like to say to them, "I am sorry. I am not being stubborn; I am only trying to be factual." It would be very easy for this General Assembly to walk out of here tomorrow and say, "Well now, the problem is this. No one wants to pay taxes, so we will just let the schools close." That is the easy way, probably. The hard way is to stand up and take the necessary buffetting that goes with public life. There are not many of us who will have inscriptions written on our graves that will leave for all posterity a very noble thought of the deeds that we performed as Members of this General Assembly. I can imagine what they will write on mine. The only nice thing about it is that I will not be around to read it and it will not hurt me as much.

Mr. President, I just want the Members on the other side to know that the time has come to sit down and if anybody has to take the blame for whatever tax bill comes out, if it will help you vote with us to give us the necessary votes, if it can all be piled on my shoulders, I am willing to go before the people of Pennsylvania and say, "I, alone, am to blame for the taxes that have been placed upon you."

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. SEYLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I would like to instruct the Majority Leader. However, I see that he is leaving and I will not be able to do it unless he waits just a minute.

Mr. President, the Majority Leader asked one question which dealt with the problem of absorption.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Does the gentleman from York, Senator Seyler, desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I do not care to interrogate him. I do care to instruct him, however.

Senator Mahany asked a question of Senator Dent relating to absorption and Senator Dent quite properly, I believe, replied that it is humanly impossible to figure this out. Unless Senator Mahany thinks this is just a political answer, I would like to tell him that if he consults a good book on economics which deals with taxation, he will find that the economist will tell him that there are three factors which will enter into the amount of absorption by the manufacturer on an excise tax. One of them was the question of how much—what degree of monopoly exists in a given line. In other words, of the range from free competition, absolute free competition, to quasi-monopoly or monopoly. The second factor he will find is the elasticity of demand in that particular line. That is to say there are some products in which the demand will not decrease because of the raising of price. For instance, items which are necessities or almost necessities. Therefore, the degree of elasticity or any elasticity of demand will enter that. Thirdly, the decisions of the individual entrepreneur are involved because each businessman makes choices daily as to whether it would be an advantage to him in regard to a given contract to absorb to some degree or to pass on.

Therefore, unless the Senator is able to read the minds of every individual entrepreneur and is able to analyze the elasticity and degree of monopoly in every industry in Pennsylvania, he is quite right in saying to Senator Mahany that it is humanly impossible to answer this question.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MILLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, tomorrow is December 7, which is known as Pearl Harbor Day. I think all of us will remember fourteen years ago when the people of this Nation were informed of the attack on Pearl Harbor in the Pacific. That started four years of a long and bitter war, and caused a great amount of destruction and bloodshed for the people of this Country.

Along with three other Senators, I would like to present this resolution and let it be a reminder to the people of this Country that we should continue to follow the path of peace and at the same time keep this Nation strong.

Therefore, Mr. President, on behalf of Senator Wade, Senator Barr, Senator Koprivier and myself, I am offering this resolution.

SENATE RESOLUTION

COMMEMORATING THE FOURTEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF PEARL HARBOR DAY

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. MILLER, WADE, BARR and KOPRIVER, JR. offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, December 6, 1955.

December 7, is the fourteenth anniversary of Pearl Harbor Day, on which this Nation was plunged into World War II. It is a day which this Nation will always remember as a warning that it must remain strong in order to be prepared to repel unwarranted and vicious attacks by aggressor Nations.

The death and suffering endured by thousands of young men in the military service of this country were sacrifices which they willingly made and which their families endured because of their patriotic dedication to the justness of their cause and a true and sincere attachment to the principles of a democratic government in which the citizenry is the source of power of a government which governs without oppression, and which the citizenry trusts without any thought of fear.

By their long years of suffering, the Americans who patriotically served their country in the Second World War dedicated themselves to their Nation and its leadership in attempting to achieve international good will honesty and peace.

The present day threat of atomic warfare presents a new challenge to the ingenuity of the citizens of this country. Those who have in the past given of themselves in the wartime military service are ever mindful of the destruction which may be unleashed by the new weapons of war. Viewing these dangers with characters and mature minds which have been moulded by the fires and adversities of war, as well as the peacetime endeavors of the greatest Nation which the world has produced throughout the years of history, the veterans of the past wars in which this country has engaged now stand ready to lead this glorious Nation to new heights of achievement, and to the successful destruction of all obstacles to the achievement of its honorable and just objectives; therefore be it

Resolved, That this Senate of Pennsylvania hereby commemorates the fourteenth anniversary of Pearl Harbor Day with the hope that this Nation may ever pursue the path of peace, but that it remain strong so that it may, when necessary, lend its strong and effective voice to the side of justice and right; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the State headquarters of the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, AMVETS and Disabled American Veterans, and to the State headquarters of all other Nationally recognized veterans organizations.

HOUSE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 662

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

Lord Jesus of Nazareth, as our heads are bowed in prayer may our whole being-body, mind and soul be opened to Thy Spirit. Give us grace to wait upon Thee; for, they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. Thou has invited us to seek, to knock assuring us that if we seek we shall find, if we knock it shall be opened to us.

Our Father in heaven, be gracious unto Thy servants, the Representatives of this Assembly. Give them strength for the tasks of this day. Bless the noble company of employees of this state government. We place every member of the families of these Representatives and employees in Thy Holy, gracious keeping.

Forgive us all, Lord, for the acid of bitterness; for despair in the midst of life's difficulties; for unlovely motives; for deep resentments that persist, for foolish pride and egotism; and, for vanity that is only a protective mask that keeps us from facing life's realities.

O Christ grant to all of us forgiveness, the warmth of Thy mercy and the brightness of Thy divine light for all our tasks in the name of the ever living, ever present God, in Christ our Redeemer, we pray it. Amen

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. SARRAF, VERONA, MATT S. ANDERSON, KAMYK, WALSH, RIGBY, VAUGHAN, VARNER and McLAUGHLIN. RESOLUTION No. 134.

In the House of Representatives, December 6, 1955.

Georgia Governor Marvin Griffin's recent effort to inject the racial issue into the Sugar Bowl football game on January 2, 1956, by requesting his State Board of Regents to call off Georgia Tech's participation in the bowl contest because of the University of Pittsburgh's Negro player, Bobby Grier, has shocked not only the consciousness of the Georgia Tech student body, but also of all fair-minded people throughout our country and abroad.

Football is a game and the basis for judging participation in it ought to be ability to play the game and that alone. That the Pittsburgh team has a back who is a Negro has nothing to do with the contest. Athletic contests such as football develop the mind as well as the body and it promotes a spirit of competition and sportsmanship, all of which has gone a long way in making the United States a strong democratic country. But how better to supply our Communist enemies with propaganda ammunition to use against our nation than to inject the racial issue into an athletic contest and playing right into their hands.

In the United States of America the philosophy of fair dealing, fair play and equal opportunity as enunciated in our Bill of Rights has been in most instances the guide and rule of conduct of our citizens. The proud Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Keystone State, takes pride in its treatment of all citizens alike, irrespective of race, creed or color, and is humbled by the knowledge that another sovereign state has permitted itself to be degraded by the conduct of some of its citizens; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the name of people of Pennsylvania voice its indignation over the efforts of Georgia's Governor Marvin Griffin to inject the racial issue into a football game and urge the Congress of the United States to pass adequate legislation precluding the injection of racial issues not only in football games, but also in all athletic contests; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of the resolution be forwarded to the Universities of Pittsburgh and Georgia Tech and to the Governor of Georgia, Marvin Griffin.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. VAUGHAN and SARRAF. RESOLUTION No. 135.

In the House of Representatives, December 6, 1955.

Officiating of high school and State Teacher's College football games during the past football season has evoked much adverse criticism and has impeded an essential part of the athletic programs of these schools in Pennsylvania.

Large sums of money have been expended for coaches' salaries, athletic stadia, equipment of players, bands, cheer leaders and other activities attendant at these football games. In addition, preseason training has made necessary large expenditures of money for maintenance of training camps, travel and other necessary activities in conjunction with such pre-season training.

The compensation of the officials who officiate at football games played by such teams in Pennsylvania has not been increased since 1929. This is unfair to the well qualified officials who should be adequately compensated as experienced specialists well qualified to perform a necessary function in the modern educational process. The adjoining states compensate these officials on a much higher scale than does Pennsylvania. Many of our leading football officials are naturally attracted to these adjoining states by higher pay.

A state as large and industrialized as Pennsylvania should be in the forefront of those states offering well rounded sports activities for its State Teacher's Colleges and secondary schools. This objective cannot be attained unless it provides competent officials attracted by adequate compensation; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives recommends the following schedule of compensation and number of officials for football games:

	Number of Officials	Compensation for each
Champion AA Playoffs	4	$50.00
AA Season Games	4	$40.00
Champion A Playoffs	4	$40.00
A Seasonal Games	4	$30.00
Champion B Playoffs	4	$30.00
B Seasonal Games	4	$25.00
Champion C Playoffs	3	$25.00
C Seasonal Games	3	$20.00

By Mr. BOIES. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 136.

In the House of Representatives, December 5, 1955.

Different bills involving the administration of medicine and osteopathy and the licensure to practice same are in proper committees of the General Assembly for study and determination.

The bills involve separate and distinct philosophies of the healing art which are difficult to understand and determine, so much so that although they have been and are still being studied at the top national level no satisfactory solution has been reached.

If these bills are reported to the floors of either the House or the Senate at this stage of development, it would force the issue and make a determination that may be unjust, unwise, unprofessional, unscientific and not for the best interest of the people of the Commonwealth and a proper administration of the healing art.

The bills involve controversial professional philosophies and should not be resolved by the State before being determined by scientific and professional research; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the question of licensing practitioners of either medicine or osteopathy and all bills concerning same introduced in the General Assembly at this session be referred to the Joint State Government Commission with directions that they shall study the same with especial reference to the following:

1. Whether the different philosophies can be reconciled in their administration by the State Government;
2. Whether the different laws should be amalgamated and administered as such;
3. Whether the two professions can be administered on a more simple, practical, scientific basis; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Hocker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Hocker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOCKER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire the gentleman to explain as briefly as possible what this bill does. I think perhaps we might get better order in the House if we know what this bill is about.

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the Majority Leader and the Members, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for some unknown reason, it dates away back to the early days of the liquor laws, we have 1219 licensees in restaurants, eating places that have only a beer license. We have 26 hotels and we have 260 clubs in the same predicament.

Now the Liquor Board is bound hand and foot, they cannot give these people a liquor license.

Under this bill they will be able to turn that beer license in for a beer and whiskey. This will not create any new licensees and will not open any other taverns. It will not infringe on the dry element in any way whatsoever. The only thing this bill will do is to allow some people who are restricted to selling beer only, to sell beer and whiskey.

This bill, I think is a fair bill. I think it is a good bill, and there is very little opposition that I have run into on it.

There is one other thing—one question I have been asked—in regard to towns where whiskey has been voted out under local option, they will still remain out of the picture. It will not change their status at all.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. I think his explanation was very clear and to the point, and I am asking the membership on this side of the House to vote for this bill, if they can possibly do so.

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman just a minute.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOCKER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, if this bill is passed, would it be possible after it was enacted into law for someone to buy a beer license separately from a liquor license?

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, I do not quite get the question. Will the gentleman rephrase it or give it to me again?

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, after this bill becomes a law, would it be possible for somebody to apply for a beer license only?

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, I imagine that it would. There is nothing in this act that says you cannot continue to have a beer license.

Mr. WILLIAM B. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman mean that they could apply for a beer license and then later on they convert it into a retail liquor license?

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, by paying the additional fee, yes.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I think that as a result of the last interrogation, there may be some confusion in the minds of the members.

It is my opinion and recollection that beer licenses are presently counted within the quota, so that no individual would be able to get a new beer license and later turn it into a liquor license unless there were a vacancy in the quota.

This will not permit additional licenses to be granted. If there are no openings in the quota, you can get neither a beer nor a beer and whiskey license, and this bill would not open the quota.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Messrs. ROSEN, McCORMACK, BAZIN and NEEDHAM requested a verification of the roll.

The affirmative roll was verified and the roll was as follows:

Section 19 This act shall take effect immediately but Sections 14 and 18 shall not become operative until November 1, 1956

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COMER. Mr. Speaker, I hate to repeat the words I spoke last week on this bill, but I think it is essential that everybody understands this bill fully. This bill was introduced, I believe, in every session of Legislature for the last ten years. Up until last session it was defeated over in the Senate after it reached second reading.

I will attempt to point out, Mr. Speaker, the bad features of this bill and why I think it should be defeated.

No. 1, it would prevent many of our practical nurses from working in hospitals.

No. 2, it would force all of our private practical nursing schools out of business.

No. 3, it would allow every licensed attendant in our hospitals to exchange his present license for a practical nurse license, whether they be male or female.

For the most part in our big city hospitals these licensed attendants, who are for the most part men, are nothing but stretcher bearers or only serve meals.

To return to Item 1, if this type of licensing legislation should pass, there are many of our present day practical nurses who in many cases through no fault of their own would fail to qualify for a license under this bill. Through no fault of their own they have but from five to six years of education, and this would disqualify these women from a license. Many of these women are members of the only practical nurses association in Pennsylvania, the Keystone State Practical Nurses Association.

Eight years of schooling is very liberal today, but 25 or 30 years ago most of our women left school after four or five years of schooling to either stay home and raise younger brothers or sisters or take care of aged parents. The lack of school grades did not retard these women from becoming fine members of their communities and they have served as practical nurses for years.

The second part of this bill that I oppose is the one that I cannot find one person who can explain how it can work. I have contacted medical and surgical doctors and registered nurses in Philadelphia, and they say it cannot work due to the demand and the need for practical nurses in the home today.

This part would require all students, after this bill became law, to attend school for eight hours a day five days a week for three months. At the end of this period they would enter a hospital and work for eight hours a day five days a week for nine months for anywhere from $50 to $75 a month.

Nine out of ten women who enter this field of nursing are widows, or women who have invalid husbands who now look to them for support, or women who have raised their families and for some reason must work to support themselves. These people could never exist on wages like those I mentioned, and I do not think any Member of this House could either.

The Board of Education has been working under this type program for a few years and out of the entire state of Pennsylvania they can only graduate 70 girls a year from the schools, and after a short period of time spent in a hospital they are assigned to in this nine-month period, working for such low wages, they quit in disgust and seek employment in another field. As a result, the money spent by the state has been a waste of money.

On the other hand, the private practical nurse schools which this bill would destroy have a program that has proved successful for the students over a long period of years. These women who attend the private schools go either in the daytime or evening for six to eight hours a week. This way they can work full-time or parttime and attend to their duties at home and still receive their practical nurse course. With this system these schools graduate 2,100 nurses a year. That figure Mr. Speaker, should be considered. The public schools supported by state funds, graduate 70 nurses a year, the private schools graduate 2,100 of these women a year, and they are sorely needed today in the homes.

It would be impossible for the private schools to operate under this bill. No student could afford to pay the rates that the private schools would have to charge for tuition. Most of the teachers in these private schools are registered nurses with B. S. degrees who teach parttime aside from their positions in our large hospitals.

These private schools have thousands of dollars invested in these schools, and I believe if this bill passed it would be the first step to destroying our private school system that many of us in the House have made use of in times gone by.

I do not believe many of us in this House want to have any part in telling these women, if you want to be a practical nurse you must work for starvation wages, while our Federal Government in Washington is raising the minimum wage to one dollar per hour. If you vote for this bill, you also are saying to these private educators who operate these nursing schools, "We are putting you out of business because we are not in favor of the free enterprise system, but believe in the state having a monopoly on the training of practical nurses."

You also will deny many a woman who has spent many years as a practical nurse the right to be a licensed practical nurse, but, on the other hand, you will allow licensed attendants, who have only training of either serving meals or being clean-up men, to become licensed practical nurses.

No doubt you have talked with the two fine women who have been present in the House for the last few weeks, and not to belittle these two women, but to the best of my knowledge they did not understand this bill. After going over it a few times with them, I think there is a lot of doubt in their minds as to how good this bill is.

Mr. Speaker, I have not heard one person who can show how these women can support themselves and train under this program.

Since 1938 this piece of legislation has been introduced in 22 legislatures in the United States, and out of 22 states only four have licensed practical nurses under this type of legislation. It is not successful.

To conclude, I have a letter from the only practical nurses association in this state, the Keystone Practical Nurses Association, who are not in favor of this bill, but are in favor of two other bills that were introduced in this House. I would like to introduce this letter into the record, Mr. Speaker.

6035 Haverford Avenue
Philadelphia 31, Pa.
February 1, 1955.

Honorable Harry R. Comer
House of Representatives
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

The Keystone State Practical Nurses Association will greatly appreciate your undivided attention and cooperation in the presentation, discussion, and passing of their Licensure Bill being presented during this session.

Its passing will be a great asset to their contact, security, and moral integrity in present and future practice.

You have our complete confidence in its contents, what it will mean to the Health and Welfare of the State, Communities involved, and our future.

Thanking you in advance, we sincerely remain,

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Naomi Jackson
State 2nd Vice President &
President of District #4

Miss Gladys E. Robinson
Secretary & Chairman—
Legislative Co. Dist. #4.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Comer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Comer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COMER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, under our present practical nurses program, do they try for the examination to become nurses?

Mr. COMER. Under our present system, Mr. Speaker, we do not have any practical nurses in Pennsylvania recognized by the state, they are called licensed attendants.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask this question, do we have in this state public accountants, recognized public accountants?

Mr. COMER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. They are not licensed—

Mr. COMER. Certified, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Is that right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COMER. Right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, certified public accountants, but not accountants. They are not licensed in the state, is that correct?

Mr. COMER. Right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, but they do take the examination to become certified public accountants, do they not?

Mr. COMER. That is true, Mr. Speaker, to be accountants.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, but our practical nurses do not take any examinations to become nurses in Pennsylvania, do they?

Mr. COMER. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, if there is no desire for these practical nurses to become registered nurses, then I don't know why we should license them, do you?

Mr. COMER. That is what I am trying to convince the House of, Mr. Speaker, under this bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

I want to say to the membership of this House that I feel we are dealing with a subject that relates very much to a bill on accountants in Pennsylvania, who were very anxious to be licensed as accountants in Pennsylvania, and they were refused the right to be licensed as accountants in Pennsylvania. I see no need at all for a bill to license practical nurses in Pennsylvania.

Therefore, I do not think it is a good bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LIGHT. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, House Bill 592, Printer's No. 1156 has been on the calendar since March 19th of this year. It passed first reading April 16th, second reading on April 19th, and then it had a long delay. On November 23rd it was re-reported by the Committee on Agriculture.

I doubt very much whether many people in this House know what this bill contains. It is the first effort to break the Milk Control Law by a list of amendments which appear in this House Bill 592, Printer's No. 1156. This Printer's No. 1156 cannot be compared to the original bill except in the title. Everything is practically new that is in this bill. It is impossible to discuss the details, but I wish to discuss the general plan and what it will do to agriculture in this state.

We should remember that the basic principle in the Milk Control Law is that in the interest of public health an adequate and pure milk supply must be available to the public. That is the basis of the Milk Control Law. To that end the farmer or the dairyman who produces milk must receive sufficient money from the sale of milk to warrant and justify the production of milk under proper sanitary conditions.

The dealer is entitled to receive a reasonable return for the services rendered through processing and distributing. The price paid by the consuming public must not be exorbitant and should be consistent with the prices of other food.

More than 20 states have Milk Control Laws and the Pennsylvania Milk Control Law has been used as a typical law because it was the first permanent milk control law enacted. This law has been tried and tested in the courts and before any drastic changes are made like the intent of House Bill 592, Printer's No. 1156 this House should give serious study to the matter. To comprehend the effect that House Bill 592 may have if enacted into law, let us consider just a few important conditions in the milk industry.

Pennsylvania is the third largest milk producing state in the United States, and the dairy industry supplies more income to the farmers than any other branch of agriculture. It must be apparent to everyone that the farmer, the dealer and the consumer each in his own interest has a stake in the milk business and in the amendment which is before you, and the Milk Control Commission needs must always be the arbiter or umpire, for that is the function of the Milk Control Board.

I would like to continue by saying that the amendments to Sections 408, 409 and 410, which are in House Bill 592, Printer's No. 1156, will bring new problems to the producer and the consumer. No doubt hearings by the board and proceedings to apply the new schedule must be followed. Because of the increased cost of licenses to dealers, the dealers will surely wish to establish their increased cost of processing, hauling and so forth.

It is a known fact that the Commission must hold hearings to establish new orders, and orders can only be established upon the basis of evidence produced in the hearings.

The dealer is able with the aid of his statisticians and experts to establish definite costs of operations for the consideration of the Commission. The milk producer cannot meet this strong competition for he does not have cost systems upon which he can depend. No, in the final analysis any increase in costs to dealers will result unfavorably to producers.

In stead of passing this amendment, the opinion of those who are familiar with Commission hearing procedure, is that the greatest need is to get sufficient legal talent for the Milk Control Board who will develop the true and exact facts at hearings so that the Commission will have the true story on which to base orders. The farmers, the dealers and the consumers, yes, you can readily see, have a stake in this amendment. If the House passes this bill 592 and enacts it into law the cost to the dealer becomes too great, he will look for sources of milk supply costing less money, to the disadvantage of the Pennsylvania producer and the consumer.

The major farm organizations of Pennsylvania have taken a position on this bill and they generally are opposed to any amendments to the Milk Control Law.

Before I proceed to discuss that, I wish to call attention to what has been the financial background of this Milk Control cost.

As you well know, the Commonwealth appropriates in its budget an amount for the Milk Control Commission's use. Since 1935, inclusive of 1953 and 1955, the Commonwealth has appropriated $3,279,750 and the receipts from fees, fines and all other income of the Milk Control Board are $2,693,776.03.

In the last session of the legislature the rate the milk dealer paid was increased and in 1953 to '55 the dealers in Pennsylvania paid into the Milk Control Fund $432,671, and there was an appropriation of $300,000 from the Commonwealth towards the cost of the Milk Control Commission.

Now, hear what the Pennsylvania Council of Farm Organizations said. "They favor the perpetuation and effective enforcement of the present Milk Control program of the state and are opposed to any amendments of the present act which will offset the administration of that law and its effective enforcement."

The Pennsylvania State Grange too is opposed to any tinkering with the law. In speaking of groups such as the Pennsylvania Farmers Organizations, a resolution was passed that since the Milk Control Commission was established for the benefit of the consumer and the producer, the functions and expenses of the Commission over and above the income received from the dealers' license funds and fees should be paid out of the general fund. So it would seem that the farmer organizations, the majority of Pennsylvania producers being represented by these organizations, are opposed to the principles of House Bill 592, Printer's No. 1156.

The Milk Control Law is the best help farmers have had in their milk problems in the past 30 years. This law was passed by the Democratic party in 1937 and I believe as the Majority Party today you will not let it be damaged or destroyed. Should this House pass this amendment, it will be the first step toward breaking down Milk Control legislation.

In the final analysis the additional cost which will be paid by dealers, because of the increase of these fees and penalties, will mean an added cost of production to the farmer and to the dairyman.

I should like to add very briefly, this bill should not pass in view of what I have said, and in addition, the income, the farmers income in 1955, by no less an authority than—our own Secretary of Agriculture, is 10 per cent less than in 1954. And according to his figures and data 1956 promises to be another 10 per cent less.

I have before me a resolution that was passed by one of the farm organizations within the last month which states:

The picture of farming continues to cloud darker and darker. The farmer's share of the consumer's dollar grows less each year and now is at an all time low. Farm help is more difficult to obtain. Farm investments climb higher and higher. Taxes continue to increase as community improvements grow and demand attention. The real farm population decreases yearly."

Before we vote on this bill, I think we ought to ask ourselves a few questions.

First, I would respectfully ask that the Membership consider five things:

First, that the Commission has had sufficient money to operate.

Second, that the proposed schedule in House Bill No. 592, with the additional license money will produce more than sufficient money.

Third, is House Bill No. 592 an effort on the part of the Milk Control Commission to become self sufficient and beyond the reach of the legislature?

Fourth, can the consumer depend on a guaranteed ample supply of pure milk?

Fifth, if House Bill 592 be passed is it the purpose of the administration to withdraw an amount from the budget amounting to $300,000?

I would respectfully ask that the Membership of this House to consider very carefully these five questions before voting "aye."

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, as one farmer to another, I think the gentleman from Lebanon deserves a brief answer.

House Bill 592, Printer's No. 1156, does not carry the ramifications as expressed and feared by the gentleman from Lebanon, Mr. Light. It is primarily a measure which corrects an inequity which has existed for a long time.

True enough, at the time of the passage of the original Milk Control Act in 1937 sufficient moneys were appropriated to administer the enforcement of the act from the General Fund budget.

However, at that time it was suggested that after the Commission would get into a position to become self-sustaining that such should be done. During the following years that had been done in a partial manner.

At the present time House Bill 592, Printer's No. 1156, finally accomplishes that which was promised to be done in 1937, eventually for the Milk Control Commission to be self-sustaining.

This is the only amount of money this will raise, a sufficient amount of money so that the act will not be weakened.

We have here a piece of legislation which puts this Commission in the same position as our Public Utility Commission, and other commissions throughout the state government which operate in behalf of a particular industry.

It has no ramification or effect on the farmers. It primarily raises very slightly the fees to dealers in order to make this Commission self-sustaining.

As to the fifth question of the gentleman from Lebanon, yes, in the event this proposal becomes law the amount that it will raise will be withdrawn from the budget. It cannot be the entire amount at this late date, because of the effective date of the act, only a portion can be raised and that portion which will be raised for the time allotted in the bill in this biennium will be withdrawn from the budget. In the future there will be no necessity for appropriating money from the general fund to sustain the Milk Control Commission's operation and enforcement in the manner in which it should be enforced.

I ask the Members of the House to vote for the proposal before us.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Messrs. LIGHT, OGILVIE and STONER requested a verification of the roll.

The affirmative roll was verified and the roll was as follows:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the House, the bills that are before us, namely, 1823, 1825, 1824 and 1831, are what you might call the "Highway Package."

House Bill 1823 seeks to increase the bonding power of the Highway and Bridge Authority for projects which are already on the statute books, or will be put on the statute books, having to do with the building of new bridges, new tunnels and new highways.

House Bill 1825 permits an increase in the bonded indebtedness of the Highway and Bridge Authority in order to match Federal funds over and above Federal funds granted for the 1953-1955 biennium, which I will explain to you further.

As you know, House Bill 1824 is the fee-raiser bill which raises the fees of your automobile license from $10 to $15 and also raises the truck plates from $16.50 to $20, and so forth.

House Bill 1831 sets up the special suburban type license for station wagons and makes the fee $18.

Mr. Speaker, as long as these bills all refer to practically the same thing and in order to save the time of the House, I would like to discuss the entire package, if that is permissible.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed. The Chair has no objection.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, the theory we have before us today is not new taxes, it is not accelerating taxes, it is not saving money, but as far as 1823 and 1825 are concerned it is borrowing money, it is increasing the indebtedness of the state. As I stated, bill 1823 gives the Secretary of Highways and the Governor a blanket authorization to issue bonds for projects that have been or may be authorized in the category of bridges, tunnels and public highways.

We Republicans have been accused of pyramiding our state bonded indebtedness to a point where it is the highest in the nation. Deficit financing was condemned in the gubernatorial campaign, but here we have more of the same thing. We have quite a catalogue of newspaper clippings up in our office having to do with the gubernatorial campaign last year and it certainly makes funny reading. You would think you were reading Miller's Joke Book when you read the promises made by your Governor when he ran last year. I will read to you a clipping we have from the Philadelphia Bulletin of October 25, 1954. Here is what the article said:

State Senator George M. Leader pointed today to Pennsylvania's indebtedness as evidence that "something is wrong with Republican management in Harrisburg."

The Democratic gubernatorial candidate, here for tonight's $100-a-plate dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford and a statewide telecast, said in a statement that Pennsylvania's debt is the highest of any comparable state.

"Pennsylvania's total debt has now reached the staggering total of $952,751,000," he declared.

"Of this amount, $449,491,000 represents full faith and credit obligations, leaving a non-guaranteed debt of $503,260,000."

"Any way you take it, guaranteed or non-guaranteed, it represents a firm and fixed obligation of the Commonwealth that must be paid off in dollars—not buttons or Republican slogans."

The lead in the article, which is of course the thing I am bringing to your attention today, is that the then candidate for Governor said that this indebtedness is evidence that something is wrong with Republican management in Harrisburg. All right, what do we have here today? We have that same person who was condemning us to the people of Pennsylvania coming before us through these bills and seeking to do exactly the same thing he condemned during the campaign. That is only one of the hundreds of promises made during the campaign which were not kept.

Governor Leader has in eleven short months earned the title of being the biggest taxpayer and the biggest spender, and now he wants to add to that the title of being the biggest borrower in Pennsylvania's history.

If the Legislature passes these bills increasing the borrowing capacity of the State Highway and Bridge Authority without any limit, I predict that by 1960 at least half of the receipts from the gasoline tax will be diverted for payment of interest and principal on borrowed money.

Here we have a bill that will allow the Authority to borrow money to build any highway or bridge project which is authorized by the Legislature. What does this mean? It means that in another decade we will have the Authority doing all the building and the Highway Department relegated to the job of maintaining and repairing our roads. Right now there are pending bills which if this bill becomes law would authorize projects totalling at least $290 million.

I will just quickly tell you some of the projects that are before us in the form of bills in Committee and some of which have passed this House. For instance, there is a bill in for a toll bridge near Brownsville, $7.5 million; there is a bill in for the so-called Delaware Expressway in Philadelphia and Bucks Counties which would cost $195 million; a free bridge over the Susquehanna near Wilkes-Barre, $2 million; free tunnel in Allegheny County, $19 million; free tunnel on Route 30 between McConnellsburg and Fort Loudon, $25 million; and so forth. Those projects would total $290 million.

If this bill becomes law, this will be only the beginning. I predict that after this bill becomes law every Member out of self-defense will be forced to introduce bills for projects in his own district, or see his constituents go without any new roads. It will be an open invitation to the greatest deluge of log-rolling and back-scratching to get individual projects through that we have ever witnessed in this legislature.

We want to see the state build new roads. We know new highways are badly needed in every section of our state, but we do not want to mortgage future generations to pay for them long after they have been worn out. We know that the Highway Department with the funds it now has can build more roads than have ever been built before, if it only gets on with the job of building roads.

There is no need for more money. Every dollar of Federal aid that is available for this biennium can be matched from the expected receipts of the motor funds and the state can still have enough money left to give bigger grants to municipalities, spend more money on maintenance and right away, and still have more than $70 million left for construction of highways outside of the Federal aid program.

Right now the motor fund has more than $30 million in it than it has had as a balance at this season of the year at any time since the end of World War II, and as 1956 license fees come in and gasoline receipts continue through the winter, it will start the 1956 construction season with the biggest balance in its treasury that the state has ever seen.

If we give the Highway Department more money now with an election year ahead, it will take a band of angels to refuse to use those funds for campaign purposes. Whatever we have heard this administration called, we have never heard it called that.

I have given you some figures as to the condition from what we have been able to glean of the motor license fund at the present time. Here is just an example of some comparative figures. For the eleven months of 1953 there was $85.9 million worth of road contracts let; in 1954 in eleven months there was $85.7 million let; this year to date, for eleven months, in 1955, there has been $55.7 million. In other words, there has been $30 million worth of contracts less in eleven months this year than last year.

Let us look at the cash balance of the motor license fund. On December 1, 1950, it was $11.1 million; on December 1st of last year it was $18.9 million; on December 1st of this year, it is $50.5 million, or $30 million more money.

Let us take a look at the gas tax collection picture. For the 1951-1952 fiscal year we collected $104.3 million; for the fiscal year of 1954-1955 we collected $123.7 million; and we are pretty safe in our estimate that this year from June 1st to next May 31st we will collect approximately $135 million. That does not take into consideration the emergency increase in the gas tax which we put through because of the flood.

I believe the Governor's budget shows that for the 1953-1955 biennium, there was $215 million after payment of fixed charges which was available for contract construction. We have made a compilation taking into consideration the increase in anticipated receipts and we come up with a figure of $242.5 million in this biennium as being available for contract construction, which is an increase of approximately $30 million over the last biennium.

This bill 1825, as I stated, provides that when the Federal aid apportioned to Pennsylvania shall be in excess of the amount allocated during the 1953-1955 biennium, which was $52 million in Federal aid for the last biennium, the State Highway and Bridge Authority may issue bonds in an amount not to exceed the difference between the $52 million and what we will get in the 1955-1957 and 1957-1959 biennium. The figure we have on that is $84 million. So if this 1825 goes into effect, $32 million worth of Highway and Bridge bonds can be issued immediately for any road project they want to spend the money on, as we see it. This $32 million is the differential between the 1953-1955 and 1955-1957 biennium.

Such a proposition is utterly fantastic when you consider that the Federal aid funds for the 1957 fiscal year starting July 1, 1956, will not be available for obligating until June 30, 1959. So Pennsylvania will have until that time to obligate these funds by formulating plans showing how they intend to spend the money and then having the plans approved by the Bureau of Public Roads.

I know in the Governor's message he said:

"The reason I want the power to issue Highway and Bridge Authority bonds in excess of the Federal aid during the 1953-1955 biennium is so that if the Federal Government comes through with a gigantic program we will be able to issue bonds to match it."

Let us look at that. We are practically through this year, we will be back in session again January 1, 1957, with a new session, just one year away. If Congress should pass this very fine national, gigantic roadbuilding program and they do as they have always done, they will pass the enabling legislation this next session of Congress and then will appropriate the money in the subsequent Congress. That is the way they have always done it with respect to our present Federal aid highway program. Therefore, we will be in session next year when and if that bill is passed, and when and if additional funds will be necessary to match a Federal program. As you know, the highway program that is before Congress now, or was before Congress and we feel will be renewed, would only require Pennsylvania to match the Federal money by ten per cent. In other words, if Pennsylvania, as they would have been entitled under that bill, received $50 million in one year for the interstate highway system, the matching money would only have to be $5 million. So we cannot see why you need this extra $32 million and then the extra millions on top of that in order to match any Federal program, particularly when in a letter we received from Mr. Lawler, your Secretary of Highways, in answer to the questions from Mr. Smith he states that already they have set aside in their budget $27.5 million for matching Federal aid this biennium, which is matched by motor license funds. Then he says, in addition the balance of the Federal aid for 1956 is to be matched from motor license funds with $10.7 million and from existing funds of the Highway and Bridge Authority with $3.7 million.

In the other bill you seek to increase the registration plates on the motorists from $10 to $15 and, as I stated, increase the fees for trucks from $16.50 to $20. The Governor in his message said he wants this money for matching purposes and other requirements of the motor license fund. But in his message he does not take into consideration the fact that they will be practically an eight per cent increase in the money that will come in now from registration and license fees just by reason of the tremendous increase in the number of automobiles titled and registered in this state. Nor did he take into consideration the approximately $15 million that will come in during the biennium from increased truck fees as the result of the truck bill that we passed earlier in the session.

Without going on any further, I say in summation that by reason of the small number of contracts that have been issued so far this year, by reason of the large cash balance that we have in the motor license fund at this time, by reason of the tremendous increase in the money that is going to come in from registration plate fees during the biennium the eight to ten per cent increase in the money from the gasoline tax in the biennium through the increase in the use of automobiles and by reason of other factors, such as not having design engineers, survey crews, and so forth, to lay out these roads you certainly have enough money in this biennium to carry on a successful roadbuilding program without saddling the people of Pennsylvania with an increase in the bonded indebtedness in the Highway and Bridge Authority in direct contradiction of your promises in your campaign. Without raising the registration fee of the motorist from $10 to $15 and without increasing the fees on the small trucker, you can get along this biennium with what we have. When we come in the next biennium, if the picture is changed you will know where you stand, you can show us where you stand and then we can consider the matter further. At that time perhaps there will be a Federal program which will need matching, and we can match it a year from now. It is not necessary at this time to put this debt on the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I have listened at great length to the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, and I am amazed at several statements that he made, and more amazed that he takes the program which should be a non-partisan or a bi-partisan program, because with the highway program in the State of Pennsylvania we must recognize that all of the people of Pennsylvania and those doing business in Pennsylvania who traverse and go across our highways, are using the highways system in the State. Not too long ago when trying to take our Highway Department to task the gentleman at the time stated that the department was not being operated properly and they did not even have any funds around to match Federal moneys and build the Federal aid highways in the event that such proposal was passed in the Federal Congress.

Today he changes his tune when he picks up at random a great number of figures and uses them to his specifications in presenting his arguments on House Bills No. 1823 and 1825.

I am not going to go into great detail into a lengthy debate on House Bills Nos. 1823 and 1825. However I will at the conclusion of a brief message that I have here I would like to present the complete figures, the overall picture, the well organized program that is now existing in the Highway Department, and those figures if I can have them presented for the Journal will be of enlightenment to the Members in their reading as to what are the needs of the department, and what the department is going to do for a much needed expansion of the highway program and what it is today.

House Bill No. 1823 has in itself sufficient safeguards to control the expenditure of these monies that are necessary for the State Highways and Bridge Authority to be spent upon projects that have been approved by this General Assembly. Now, it goes beyond that with its safeguards for it further states that there must be an established need for these projects that we passed upon here in the Assembly, and beyond that they must be approved by the Highway Department and the Governor of the Commonwealth. Now those are your safeguards, and may I inform the gentleman that right at the present time over in the Highway Department there is a batch of General Assembly legislation which he calls log rolling that is passed that would stack up that high and necessitates the spending of millions of dollars that they do not have, but those were log rolling bills and there was no need for those projects and they were disapproved the same as any project will be disapproved in the future under the safeguards contained in this legislation, and there is no necessity or no fear of this bonded debt becoming so great that it will take away the revenues that we have from the license fund to pay for the interest on the bonded indebtedness. The gentleman need have no fear on that.

Further on House Bill No. 1825, the only moneys that can be used for matching Federal moneys are monies that are brought in for specific Federal projects. I do not believe a Member of the House can get up and say that these projects we need on our Highway Department are not necessary. We are 20 years behind in our highway program. You may think that is a far-fetched statement but any of you know that in the last several years with the campaign that was carried on for further highway safety, and certainly you cannot get a maximum of highway safety until such time as you construct your highways in such a manner as to provide for the many more motor vehicles that are traversing those highways. Recognize this factor, today you have 54 million vehicles upon the highways of the United States, and by the best yardstick that we know we are told that there will be at least a minimum of 85 million vehicles on our highways in these United States by 1975. Now can we build that kind of a highway in 1975 or must we plan today and project that plan for the positive building into the future to provide for those motor vehicles to have a place to ride along those highways. I think we have got to take this step forward. We have got to take a step forward, we have got to provide for this because the very economy of your state will stop if you can not provide the arteries for the transportation system to continue into the future as you can see the picture projected by the greater number of motor vehicles that will be upon those highways. Now that is all those bills do, the safeguards are written into those bills, the safeguard is there. We do not say let us increase this borrowing capacity by 200 million or 300 million, we say just so much is necessary to do a job for the people of Pennsylvania, we are not doing the job for the people of New Jersey, or New York or any place else. We are trying to protect our economy, we are trying to keep in step with our sister states so that we can have something here in the state of Pennsylvania that will redound to the benefit of all the citizens of the Commonwealth.

On the matter of House Bill No. 1824, Mr. Speaker, I think that we are not outlandish when we say that for the registration fee to be increased from 10 dollars to 15 dollars is such a terrific amount. We need this additional money; it is a proven factor.

Now then how do we compare with our neighboring states? Take the "R", "S" and "T" licenses, truck licenses. We increase the R plate registration from $16.50 to $20.00. And our neighboring state, one comparable state, in the economy of our sister state, New York has a $22.50 fee. Now in the S plate we increased from $20.00 to $25.00, New York State has a $35.00 fee. Now the T plate we increased from $30.00 to $35.00, New York has a $55.00 fee. Take the next state of New Jersey, $30.00 for an R plate, $40.00 for an S plate and $60.00 for a T plate. We are considerably lower even with the raise effort here than our neighboring states.

Now let's take Ohio to the west.

In Ohio the top on an R plate would be slightly lower than the Pennsylvania request in this proposal. It would be $17.00 compared with our $20.00. Let's consider the S plate. The S plate in Ohio would be $42.00 in comparison to the $30.00 we request for the S plate in Pennsylvania. And going to the T plate we find a $76.00 fee in Ohio, compared to the $35.00 that we request.

Now, Mr. Speaker, we can recognize these problems. Do we just want to sit here and decay away and not provide for the future? That is just the position that this Commonwealth will take amongst our sister states in the economy of its people.

We should apply ourselves to good practical, positive thinking, plan a program so we can be a lead state of all our sister states in showing the way the provide for a better economy and a better future for the citizens of Pennsylvania.

You know and I know that in today's mode of progress the movement of transportation of your state is one of the basic items that affects the very economy of the people living in the state.

Mr. Speaker, I do not want to belabor the House with the figures and data I have, so I respectfully request in order to keep the record straight, that not just a few figures be used to show what the over-all program planning of the Highway Department is, but that there be inserted in the Journal the full and complete figures so that each and every one can read just what the program is in the over-all picture for the people of Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may offer the material for the record; it will be included in the Journal.

Mr. PETROSKY offered the following material to be included in the Journal.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Harrisburg, Pa.

November 21, 1955

Honorable Joseph J. Lawler, Secretary
State Department of Highways
North Office Building, Room 501
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Lawler:

Since speaking to you at the recent State Highways and Bridge Authority Meeting, I have had the opportunity of examining the data you gave me at that time, and I find it does not answer the questions or supply the information I requested of you in my letter of September 29th.

In that letter, I requested the following:

1. Cash balance in fund on May 31, 1955 (supplied).
2. Receipts during June, July and August. (I appreciate also receiving the receipts during September and October, and a comparison with the estimates for those same months.)
3. Commitments against cash balance on May 31, 1955.
4. Commitments made from May 31, through August 31, 1955. (I would appreciate it if you would include all commitments up to the present or the nearest date to the present that is available).
5. Portion of Federal aid for Fiscal Year (Federal) 1956, beginning June 1, 1955, which has been committed by construction contracts.
6. How much of the Federal aid for Fiscal Year 1956, already committed, has been matched with motor license funds and how much with Highway and Bridge Authority funds.
7. How much of balance of Federal Aid for Fiscal Year 1956, will be matched with motor license funds, and how much with State and Highway Bridge Authority funds, now in hand. (In other words, Highway and Bridge funds within present borrowing limitation.)

In examining the statement entitled "analysis of Motor Fund, November 15, 1955", which you handed to me last Wednesday, I find a number of variations from similar items in the Governor's budget for which I need information. They are as follows:

1. "Anticipated Receipts—all sources" is given as $535,378,500, in your statement and $462,938,500 in the Budget. I can appreciate that the new total includes the anticipated receipts from the emergency tax on gasoline and also the proper amount of Federal Aid already allocated. But what other items does it include which were not included in the Budget estimate?
2. "Allocations to other Departments" is given in your statement as $48,475,864, but these items, as enumerated in the Budget only total $42,941,648. What increases are contemplated which were not recommended by the Governor last April?
3. "Appropriations to local municipalities" is listed as $88,921,439, as compared with the $60,300,000 recommended in the Budget. I realize that your total must include the special flood appropriation of $15,000,000, but this does not explain the $28,000,000 variation.
4. The "fixed charge" item include $37,000,000 for right-of-way which certainly is an item of cost of new construction.
5. After sharply criticizing prior administration for 'force work' you include $32,000,000 for "Department force construction", which does not appear in the Budget.
6. What is included in the $162,000,000 current Federal-aid construction program. Does this include all the Federal Aid for Fiscal 1956 and Fiscal 1957, matched with motor license funds, when as a matter of fact, won't some of this Federal Aid be matched with presently available Highway and Bridge Authority Funds?
7. Is the item of $38,900,000 list as 100 per cent. state construction program in addition to the $32,000,000, "Department Force Construction" which will also be a "100 per cent. state construction."

If we may have a prompt reply to these additional questions, I will greatly appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Charles C. Smith

Page 2—

4 Included among the fixed charges in our November 15 statement was an item for Right-of-Way acquisition. Department procedure has always segregated this item as a separate cost and it has, therefore, been separated from the construction accounts.

Page 2—

5 The statement regarding Department Force work is incorrect inasmuch as the item of $32,000,000 for Department Force Construction appears in the Budget on Page 3 under the category of 100% State Highways. Incidentally, Department Force construction has for many years been maintained at the level of about $32,000,000 for a biennium, which is required in addition to funds available for maintenance to maintain a fairly constant level of employment in each County to undertake the necessary maintenance and be prepared for any and all emergencies that may arise.

Page 2—

6 The figure of $162,000,000 set up in our November 15 statement for Current Federal-Aid Construction Program for biennium June 1, 1955 to May 31, 1957, represented the total cost of this Program, including all the Federal-Aid funds available and the Motor License Funds required to match the Federal Funds. There were not State Highway & Bridge Authority Funds included in this total, since monies from this fund were not available before our November 15 meeting with the Highway and Bridge Authority. The monies which were made available to us at that meeting ($3,700,000 or a portion thereof) will free a commensurate amount of Motor Fund Money for use on 100% State Construction work, and will permit us to expand this program by this amount. Incidentally, the Highway and Bridge Authority funds will be allocated to the Schuylkill Expressway Project in Philadelphia, L.R. 67057, Sections 5 & 6.

7 The item of $38,900,000 listed as 100% State Construction Program for biennium June 1, 1955 to May 31, 1957 is the contract construction program, whereas the $32,000,000 Department Force Construction item is obviously the Department Force Construction Program. Together they represent the total 100% State Construction Program for the for the biennium.

Respectfully yours,

Joseph J. Lawler,
Secretary of Highways

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, the debate we have heard has been very enlightening, It was ably presented by both gentlemen who spoke I assure you I am not an expert on highway affairs or the financing of highways and I do not intend to take more than a minute of your time.

I would like to remind you that you only get what you pay for. I remember eight or ten years ago when the Republican party was in control they saw need for greater expenditures on highways, and they proposed in this House that we raise the gasoline tax by one cent. As I recall the vote was very close and I think there were but two or three of us Democrats who believed the program was right and we voted for that additional one cent. Believe me, it was not very comfortable to do so since our party more or less was solid in deciding that we should not do so. But I voted for it, I thought it was right. I think the events that transpired afterwards, the better roads we received, the safer roads, well warranted the addition of that one cent tax.

I do not know what the vote on this is going to be today, I am speaking now particularly of House Bill 1824, but it seems to me that after the number of years we have had a $10 passenger license fee, with the cost of living practically doubling or more during that time, we are well warranted in asking those who drive cars and own cars in this Commonwealth to now contribute an additional $5 for the privilege of having good roads and using those roads. You simply cannot buy roads if you do not have the money. If we do not get this additional money, you are going to get the kind of roads we can afford with the present income, and no better.

I do not think there is a person in this House who does not drive almost daily on some roads which irritate him, which perplex him, and which are just plain downright dangerous.

I am asking the membership of the House when they vote on 1824 to vote for it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to emphasize the fact that all those upon the sidelines are our guests and during the calling of the roll the Chair will insist upon the decorum to which the dignity of this House is entitled.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

(Following the calling of the roll and before the result was announced)

The SPEAKER. The Chair might remark for the benefit of the gentleman from Philadelphia, the Minority Leader, that the Chair in the past having had such better experience with manipulated roll calls, has made a resolution that during his term as Speaker the Chair would not tolerate any roll call manipulation.

For what reason does the gentleman from Philadelphia rise?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Just to make a brief statement, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman would not be in order until the announcement of the result of the roll call.

Section 3 This act shall take effect the first day of the registration year commencing 1956

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, at the risk of being repetitious, I would like to remind the Members of the House that this is the bill which would increase the license fees from $10 to $15 per passenger car, and make a slight increase in various truck licenses.

I would also like to remind the membership of the House that on page 3 of today's calendar is House Bill 1311 which provides for permanent allocation of certain money from the license fund to the municipalities. As I recall the figures it increases the amounts which have been allocated to the local municipality for highway and bridge purposes from $18 million a year to $30 million a year. I do not want anybody to think that I am making a threat when I say that if 1824 fails to pass you will not get an opportunity to vote on 1311.

I say it is not a threat because if we don't have the money we cannot allocate $30 million to the local municipalities. I just state a simple fact. I am very hopeful that some of you gentlemen will weaken, to the extent of maybe four or five of you and vote for 1824 and then you will very shortly after have the opportunity to vote for House Bill 1311. I am asking the membership to vote for 1824 and not let it die.

Mr. JOHNSON. I would like briefly to answer the Majority Leader.

Again I will return to the lofty promises made in the last campaign. I believe your Governor went through Pennsylvania and promised the municipalities a full cent of the gasoline tax without any increase in the gasoline or motor license taxes.

That speech is ringing in the ears of all of us. Here we have a situation today where you say, "Well, we are sorry Mr. Voter, back in those municipalities, you can have all this money but you will have to swallow a bitter pill to get it. You are going to pay fifteen bucks for your car," which is $10 more for the car owner during the biennium.

You can put through 1311 based on existing funds by reason of the extra money you are getting from the truck licenses that have already been passed this session, and other funds that are coming in that I have previously talked to you about. I say you don't need the money.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, if I understand the gentleman correctly, he said the Governor in his campaign promised to use the additional one cent on gasoline for that purpose. Was I incorrect in my hearing?

At any rate, what I would like to say now is that the Governor with all his fine qualities could not possibly foresee the catastrophe which happened in the Stroudsburg area when the floods came along. He did not at that time have any idea that one cent of gasoline tax would have to be diverted for flood relief. That has been done with the Governor's consent, to his credit. It had to be done in some way and that was done.

I still say that 1824 is necessary and it should be passed to raise this money.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. LIPPINCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. LIPPINCOTT. Mr. Speaker, we all appreciate the devastating humor of sitting here and seeing the majority party humiliate itself by these laborious roll calls. Cannot the Majority Leader merely inquire if there are any changes in the prior roll calls? I think we all have other things we would rather do.

The SPEAKER. It is entirely within the province of the Majority Leader, or it is entirely within the province of the gentleman from Delaware to ask for a slow roll call. The gentleman from Delaware can ask for a slow roll call; any Member of the House can demand a slow roll call.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McCORMACK. I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, is it in order at the present time to suggest the absence of a quorum?

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order but the calling of the roll.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. READINGER, STANK, PETROSKY and CAPANO.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the Hall of the House a very distinguished former Member, the gentleman from York, Mr. Goodling.

The Chair was privileged in former days on many matters to work shoulder to shoulder with the gentleman from York. We agreed on many matters. He was a good soldier and a good Legislator.

The Parliamentarian tells me he comes from a mighty good Democratic county.

Mr. JUMP. Mr. Speaker, may I add that we miss his singing. We haven't had a chance to get someone to lead us in any songs like he used to do.

The SPEAKER. He was a mighty singer.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, to preside temporarily.

Mr. HELM IN THE CHAIR.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, if I may join the ranks of the mighty singers for a moment, I would like to inform the House that we do not intend to bring up any more controversial bills this afternoon and that tomorrow will be a consent calendar. There seems to be a terrific desire on the part of many Members to depart for home and elsewhere. For that reason I am now advising the membership that we do not intend to bring up anything further that is controversial today.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, December 7, 1955

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. PENNOD L. DUNLAP, Pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Steelton, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, our Father, who has prepared for us from Thy goodness things not yet seen nor heard not imagined, keep us faithful, we pray Thee, to the tasks that are assigned to our hands to do. We pray, gracious Father, that Thou wouldst be with this Senate, which had a hectic week here. We have seen one in its midst drop by the way, yet we hear Thy voice saying, "Two shall be working in the field; one shall be taken and the other left." Those who are left here, teach them, O Father, that they are left because of Thy mercy and that they are to be more concerned about their faithfulness to Thee.

O God, as we approach the Christmas season, we pray that we will accept anew the Christ Child in our hearts and make room for him in all our affairs.

Go with us, we pray Thee, as we prepare to leave for our several homes. For those on trains, be their engineer; for those who travel by automobiles, take the steering wheel; for those who go by air, be their pilot. Take them to their homes and may they not only have a merry Christmas, a blessed season, but stretch the years out before them so that they may accomplish much good. In Thy Name, we pray, Amen.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. JUMP. RESOLUTION (Not Printed).

The history of St. Nicholas Parish, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, dates back one hundred years ago when the parish was first organized in 1855 under the administration of Reverend Fathers Schneider and Sommer, of Honesdale, Pennsylvania. In 1858 Reverend Peter C. Nagle was appointed the first resident pastor.

The first church structure was located at the corner of South Washington and East South Streets, Wilkes-Barre. The parochial school was built in 1868 on East South Street and in 1873 Mother Pauline and the Christian Charity Sisters came to Wilkes-Barre at the request of Father Nagle and established their Motherhouse at the present St. Ann's Academy while teaching at the school and which they continue to do at the present.

Meanwhile it became evident that the first church building was not large enough and in 1882 the present church was erected in Gothic architecture, of red sand stone, measuring 67 feet by 265 feet, with a steeple rising 190 feet and a seating capacity of 1200. For the building fund drive, Father Nagle appealed to each parishioner for a contribution of $1.50 per month for fifty months and at the end of the drive contributions varied from $75.00 to $1,000, with Father Nagle contributing the first $1,000. On May 8, 1883 the corner stone was laid.

After 53 years of priesthood, Monsignor Peter C. Nagle passed away on March 12, 1911.

Reverend Charles J. Goeckel was appointed the second pastor on April 1, 1911, and his first assignment was the erection of the present school building which was dedicated by Bishop Hoban on January 2, 1916. On September 10, 1928 St. Nicholas High School was opened, while the present parish hall was completed on July 12, 1931.

Monsignor Charles J. Goeckel, while on a cruise on the Mediterranean Sea to regain his health, passed away on March 11, 1935.

The present pastor, Reverend Father Cyriac A. Staib was appointed immediately and he has faithfully, diligently and untiringly carried on the tremendous progress of the parish in cooperation with the parishioners for the past twenty years. During his tenure as pastor the parish has purchased some 35 acres of land for a cemetery at Shavertown, Pennsylvania, repainted and redecorated the church, made major improvements to the rectory and the Sisters' convent and raised the standards of education at St. Nicholas school comparable to the best in the State.

The one hundred years of history of St. Nicholas parish was rightfully and proudly celebrated by a Centennial Celebration held from October 15 to the 30th and climaxed by a parish banquet attended by 550 parishioners; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives congratulate Reverend Father Cyriac A. Staib, his predecessors, and all the parishioners of St. Nicholas parish on their One Hundredth Anniversary and for their charitable, industrious, faithful, tireless actions and deeds in fulfilling their obligations as servants of God, and be it further Resolved, That a copy of the Resolution be forwarded to Reverend Father Cyriac A. Staib, pastor of St. Nicholas parish.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

Re: Resignation

Dear Sir:

Whereas, on November 2, 1954, I, the undersigned, was duly elected a member of the Senate of Pennsylvania for a term of four years, beginning January 4, 1955, to represent the 32nd Senatorial District, comprising the county of Fayette; and,

Whereas, on November 8, 1955 I was duly elected to the office of judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 14th Judicial District, comprising the county of Fayette; and,

Whereas, under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania applicable thereto, said offices are incompatible; and,

Whereas, it is my desire and election to assume the duties of the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 14th Judicial District to which I have been duly elected; and,

Whereas, the foregoing circumstances necessitate my resigning as a member of the Senate of Pennsylvania,
Now Therefore Know All Men By These Presents That I, Eustace H. Bane, member of the Senate of Pennsylvania, representing the 32nd Senatorial District, comprising the county of Fayette, do hereby tender my resignation as such Senator, effective midnight, December 31, 1955.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 12th day of December, 1955.

Witness:

/s/ G. Harold Watkins.

/s/ EUSTACE H. BANE (Seal)
Senator—32nd District
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

REMARKS BY MAJORITY LEADER UPON THE RESIGNATION OF SENATOR EUSTACE H. BANE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, all of us, more or less, have been considering that at some time we were going to receive this resignation of Senator Bane's in the Senate, after we saw the election returns from his judicial district and found that the people there had wisely chosen Senator Bane to be their judge for the next ten years. We are all going to miss him in the Senate because we have come to know him and to love him as a colleague, a friend and an associate.

I want to say to him, on behalf of all the Republican Senators, that he has certainly been looked up to as one of the outstanding statesmen of the Senate of Pennsylvania. We admire him, we respect him and some of us even envy him a bit because he is going to be able to get out of this muddle down here and he will not have to worry after the first of the year about how some of the affairs of the Commonwealth are going to be carried on in the halls of the Legislature.

Mr. President, I see that Senator Bane is going to resign as of midnight, December 31, 1955. If things happen as usual at that particular hour, the bells will ring and the whistles will blow to welcome him as one of the Judges of the State of Pennsylvania, and we will have a little bit of mourning in our hearts for having lost such an outstanding gentleman and friend as our good Senator, Senator Eustace Bane.

It seems as though all the Senators want to applaud to show that they agree with me, on this side.

Mr. President, I regret that we must accept this resignation, and we do so with regret.

ACCEPTANCE OF RESIGNATION OF SENATOR EUSTACE H. BANE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the resignation of the Honorable Eustace H. Bane as a Member of this Senate, from the Thirty-second Senatorial District, be accepted effective December 31, 1955, at 12:00 o'clock, midnight.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to second the motion just made by Senator Mahany.

Mr. President, the action we are taking here today, as the result of an election back in the district of our esteemed colleague, Senator Bane, belies the story that a prophet without honor in his own home. I think that this is a good lesson to all the Members of this State Senate. Although over the years, as a Member of both the House and the Senate, Senator Bane had to face many problems, I know that on many occasions he worried quite considerably about how the reaction of the way in which he voted in the Senate and the House would affect his people at home. It is a great credit to him, as an individual, that the people at home must have approved—at least, the great majority of them—of the actions which he performed here as a Member of this Senate.

I am sure that it gives all of us a great deal more pleasure to say good-by to Eustace Bane when he is being elevated in the field of public duty. Too many of us fall by the wayside in this game of politics and our ranks become decimated both by casualties at elections and also by the choice of the Master above who decides that our time has run out.

Therefore, Mr. President, it is befitting that this Senate pause a moment and reflect that although we at times disagree on many acts upon which we vote and we sometimes approach the point of bitterness in our discussions on the floor, it is a credit to Eustace Bane that at no time in all the years that he ever served with us has he, at any time, participated in any particular debate where he became obnoxious to anyone. I am sure that we on this side join with you on the other side in regretting the necessity of accepting this resignation from our body.

To Eustace Bane, on behalf of the Democratic colleagues who have served with him over the years, who have learned to love and respect him, we can only say to him, "Godspeed in your new duties and may the Lord preserve you for many more years of service to the people of Pennsylvania."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was unanimously agreed to.

THE PRESIDENT. The resignation of Senator Bane, together with the motion for acceptance and the remarks, will be spread upon the Legislative Journal.

REMARKS BY SENATOR EUSTACE H. BANE

Mr. BANE. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, it is very difficult for me at a time like this to express myself in the manner in which I should like to. At moments such as these, we find that words very often are extremely inadequate to express the sincere feelings which we have in our hearts.

I can only feel at the moment, with a certain amount of nostalgia, that I have reached perhaps a point in graduation which many of us have gone through. We have spent the years together with our friends; we have done the very best that we possibly could within the limits of our capacities and abilities and we have reached the day of graduation. Gathered about us are all our friends whom we know, and we assure each other that we shall join together in the days which lie ahead; that we will not let the friendships pass from us which we have made at a time such as this. However, we know that with the passing of the years there has been a tendency, as in the past, for those to momentarily forget. The letters become less and less frequent, the visits become less and less often.

Therefore, I say to you from the very bottom of my heart that I hope this is not good-by, that there will be times when I shall have the occasion, the opportunity to once again return to this body where I served and meet again the friends which I have made over the years here in Harrisburg. I say to you that I recognize a graduation from one very high and esteemed body to that of another branch of government where my friends, at least at home, have seen fit to bestow upon me the responsibilities of a very high office. I sought it very humbly and I sincerely hope that I shall not fail in the charge which they have placed upon me. I give you my assurance that I shall try to bring the same credit as a Judge as I have tried to bring to the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, it is with deep regret that I part from my friends, but certainly with a happy outlook on the future to assume the duties and responsibilities which will be mine in the days which lie ahead. Thank you.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STIEFEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, this bill deals with a very important phase of Pennsylvania's history. May I say that within the last two weeks, while Senate Bill No. 672 and Senate Bill No. 673 are languishing on the Postponed Second Reading Calendar, further acts of rape were committed in Philadelphia upon the history of Pennsylvania. The Engle House, which was built in 1758, which is one of the outstanding examples of colonial architecture in America and which has been studied by architectural students for years, where the first tannery of the Colonies was constructed, has now been demolished to become a parking lot.

Mr. President, a speculator purchased the Squire Baynton House, one of the finest early examples of colonial brickwork, for $17,000. When the Germantown Historical Society came and asked to buy the house, offering him $1,000 profit, he said that he would not take less than $25,000.

In my opinion, Mr. President, this is rape committed and if we would have passed Senate Bill No. 672 and Senate Bill No. 673, these dastardly acts would not have been permitted and speculators would be unable to take advantage of historical societies.

Mr. President, this bill which I am about to offer will create in Philadelphia a colonial compound, compared to Williamsburg, in Virginia, and other historical projects will be just carbon copies. It is a most important and vast project which will not cost the Commonwealth a penny.

With great pride, Mr. President, I am introducing this bill and also the recurring county historian bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. STIEFEL read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 916, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to make a study of appropriate ways and methods for developing and promoting the historical interest of Philadelphia and vicinity and specifically for developing a "Colonial compound" in Germantown.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 917, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to appoint an honorary county historian in each county of the Commonwealth not having a historical society.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, true to my vein of action, I am going to speak now not under Petitions and Remonstrances, but at this juncture I will speak upon commendations.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate, I am about to unfold before you one of the most breath-taking and scintillating attainments of Philadelphia's city administration, under the helmsmanship of Mayor Joseph S. Clark, Jr. This is the story of the meteoric rise and success of the Department of Recreation which was created in January 1952, pursuant to the provisions of the Home Rule Charter of Philadelphia.

Per aspera ad astra! It took a man of great vision, indomitable energy, exemplary dynamism and genius of execution, the Honorable Frederic R. Mann, the first Commissioner of Recreation under Philadelphia's Home Rule Charter of 1951, to reach the following lofty goals:

1. Take a bureau which was formerly a humble and inconspicuous part of the old Department of Public Welfare and make it a full-fledged, independent body with broad responsibilities.

2. Take the old-fashioned notion of recreation as "a field, a ball and a bat" and expand it into a program of real scope, variety and interest.

3. Take an assumption that recreation was just for children and replace it with the realization that recreation is for everybody, no matter what age.

4. Take worn-out, badly constructed, ill-conceived facilities and turn them into attractive, functional, modern centers for healthful activities and fun.

This is only the quintessence of Mr. Mann's attainments, who was ably assisted by his deputy, Robert W. Crawford, considered the Country's top professional recreation expert. I will speak about the multifaceted activities of Philadelphia's Department of Recreation later, taking up first the introduction of Frederic R. Mann to you.

Mr. Mann is a fabulous personality. He is undoubtedly Philadelphia's Maecenas par excellence. I could go on for quite a long time listing his club memberships, business affiliations, his membership on numerous industrial and bank boards, his membership on civic boards such as The Free Library of Philadelphia, Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia, the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and many others, his community affiliations and his affiliations with musical organizations, such as his Presidency of Robin Hood Dell Concerts, Inc., his treasurership of the Philadelphia Orchestra Pension Foundation, his service on the Philadelphia Committee of the Metropolitan Opera Association, and the fact that he was one of the founders and is a Director of the Israeli Philharmonic Orchestra.

But I know we are pressed for time and I am, therefore, limiting myself to summations.

I can sum up all these services and Mr. Mann's egregious generosity by stating that not unlike the legendary King Midas of antiquity, he possesses a magic touch with that difference that instead of turning everything into gold, he is coining great cultural values that inure to the comfort and spiritual advancement of his fellow citizens and add to the glory of Pennsylvania and the luster of Philadelphia.

On November 1, 1952, the National Recreation Association published its outstanding report on the first complete survey ever made of public recreation in Philadelphia. Their verdict: "The City's recreation facilities and programs are strikingly deficient . . ." Among these striking deficiencies: "serious defects in many buildings . . . swimming places with few exceptions substandard . . . woefully lacking in neighborhood playgrounds . . . not one of the recreation sites developed since 1946 could be designated as a well-planned area."

On September 4, 1954 LIFE magazine, in a four page article focused the attention of the nation on Philadelphia's recreation program. Their comment: "Two years ago in Philadelphia, which venerates tradition, recreation department officials took a long look at the city's playground facilities and decided tradition no longer was good enough. They launched one of the most impressive playground programs in U. S. Municipal history, a program that is modernizing Philadelphia's play areas and filling them with an assortment of bold new play devices."

Today, with 25 new and redeveloped playgrounds completed, 25 more under construction, and 20 more on the planning boards, Philadelphia is acknowledged the nation's leading city in the field of recreation, a pioneer of new standards, pacesetter for new developments. In a short time, recreation in Philadelphia has come a long way. The Department of Recreation is less than four years old.

It was established under the Home Rule Charter in January 1952, and the job that faced the new Department was tremendous. What it had to do with Philadelphia's recreation "tradition" was this:

1. Take a bureau which was formerly a small part of the old Department of Public Welfare and make it a full-fledged, independent body with broad responsibilities.

2. Take the old-fashioned notion of recreation as "a field, a ball, and a bat" and expand it into a program of real scope, variety and interest.

3. Take an assumption that recreation was just for children and replace it with the realization that recreation is for everybody, no matter what age.

4. Take worn-out, badly constructed, ill-conceived facilities and turn them into attractive, functional, modern centers for healthful activities and fun.

To do this job, Fredric R. Mann, well-known businessman, philanthropist, and leader in Philadelphia's civic and cultural affairs was named the city's first Recreation Commissioner; and Robert W. Crawford, considered the country's top professional recreation expert, was named Commissioner.

Together, they began from the ground up to demonstrate what a public recreation program should be.

What remained of the old Bureau of Recreation was completely reorganized. Standards for all professional positions were raised, and for the first time—with help of the City's new reclassification and pay plan-recreation personnel received salaries comparable with those of professional people in allied fields.

On-the-job training courses were inaugurated for the general staff, followed by intensive in-service training programs for all personnel, and a continuing of workshops. The result has been a professional staff with qualities of leadership, and a recognition of individual differences, basic needs and social goals in recreation.

All playgrounds and centers were put into operation on a year-round supervised basis for the first time in the city's history. They offered enriched programs which include music, drama, dancing, and arts and crafts as well as athletics.

In expanding the program they did not stop there. From sponsoring the Greater Philadelphia

Drama Association to presenting free concerts by the Philadelphia Orchestra in Convention Hall and at Robin Hood Dell, the department has participated and/or cooperated with almost every organized recreational activity in the city, as part of the program. Games, tournaments, celebrations, championships, parties, festivals, are the standard fare of the Department's extensive activities. The city's remarkable cultural endowment became part of a public recreation program as—through the Department—grants were given to the Museum of Natural Science, the Museum of Natural History, and the Franklin Institute; while the Atwater Kent Museum and Betsy Ross House are now actually operated by the Department.

At the same time, all these varied programs were integrated with the activities of the Fairmount Park Commission and the Board of Public Education through the creation of a Recreation Coordination Board.

This was the new approach to recreation: a total community program utilizing all available resources centered under one management. But for such an approach to be successful, to really work, a new look in recreation facilities was needed. A community cannot have a family recreation program on a ballfield. Modern playgrounds and centers are needed. And in these, as the National Recreation Association pointed out, Philadelphia was woefully lacking.

With the same energy, enthusiasm and imagination they had used to revamp the program and activities, Mann and Crawford, at the same time embarked on a huge physical reconstruction program. At less cost to the taxpayer than had been spent in the previous comparable period—1945-51: $18,000,000 plus; 1952-53: $15,000,000 plus—they scheduled the capital program that would bring a new look to Philadelphia's recreation facilities and give the people of the community the kind of modern playgrounds and centers which had been denied them.

Of the more than 70 projects—playgrounds, centers, parks, public squares, swimming pools, camps—which have been substantially improved since 1952 by the Department of Recreation, it is the family-style playground which has received widest acclaim. For it was with the typical Philadelphia playground—a cinder field, a small concrete shelter house, and a couple of swings surrounded by a high forbidding fence—that the department most concerned itself. And it was here, too, that there was the greatest opportunity to start from scratch, to build a virtually all-new facility.

Philadelphia's new playground (25 and growing at the rate of approximately one per week in the summer of 1955) and center's (one complete, and one nearing completion) are a concrete expression of the Department of Recreation's basic philosophy: the program must serve everyone, regardless of age, sex, race, creed, neighborhood or income group.

Thus the basic design of the playground consists of five separate play areas, safely apart from one another; for pre-school-age children, older children, teen-agers, adults, and older people. While each playground has special equipment and facilities for all five groups, no two playgrounds, are alike. They differ according to the needs of the community, the size of the area, and the function of the facility.

Colorful, imaginative, varied, the new playgrounds have brought to Philadelphia's neighborhoods new recreation resources, and new play experienced, For adults, shuffleboard, bocci, quoits, horseshoes, and tennis courts have been made available in most places for the first time. For teenagers, courts and fields for games of all kinds—football, baseball, softball, volley-ball, basketball, soccer, handball, badminton are being provided throughout the City.

For older people, new walks and benches in park-like areas, with chess, checkers and other passive recreation featured in each of the new playgrounds.

Baseball stops, basketball back-boards, lighting standards, ordinary park benches—all have been redesigned, painted and improved by the department. No part of the facility is too small or too unimportant to receive attention in the integrated design of the modern, functional playground. Everywhere the break with the past is in evidence.

It is in the tot-lot, the special play area for small children, however, that Philadelphia's new feeling for recreation is most explicit. In place of the small sandbox, the rigid wooden swings, and the see-saw, there have been created a series of intriguing new play devices designed, as Life magazine put it, "to be pleasing in line, safe to use and stimulating to the imagination. The new playthings cater to the natural inclination of youngsters to climb like mountain animals, crawl through dark passageways and hang by their heels." The official name for these magical new pieces is "playsculpture," and whether they take the form of a tent-like turtle, a spiral slide, a 70 foot-long dragon, or a star-shaped climber, they have proved to be the delight of the children of Philadelphia.

Playsculpture, spray-pools, striped swings—each in many varieties and colors—are but a few among the many innovations which have made these new playgrounds the most remarkable ever built in America.

Only half-way through the initial capital construction program, the department has already changed public recreation in the city. Meanwhile, playgrounds and centers will be soon by swimming pools, ice-skating rinks, day camps and a host of other improvements. By 1958 almost all of the 116 playgrounds and centers operated by the department will have been completely redeveloped or reconstructed, and bold new plans are already being made for the years beyond.

Recreation in Philadelphia has come of age.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, last week in both the House and Senate, resolutions were introduced and comments made on the situation in Georgia, created by the Governor of that State when he attempted to prohibit the participation of a colored boy, who is a member of the University of Pittsburgh's football team.

Mr. President, I have a very good friend in Georgia. His name is George Hamilton and he happens to be the State Treasurer there. He apparently read something in the Georgia newspapers on what took place here in the Pennsylvania Legislature. He sent me a little note, plus a copy of the Atlanta Journal, dated December 6, 1955, in which appears an editorial that I thought would be worth reading in order to give the Members of the Senate an indication of how they feel in Georgia about the situation.

The editorial is entitled "Regents Deserve Thanks," and is as follows:

The Board of Regents acted with good judgment on Monday. They voted that Georgia Tech should play in the Sugar Bowl. They voted that the athletic policies of Tech and the University of Georgia should continue virtually as they have been. For these reasonable and proper decisions, the people of Georgia owe them thanks.

Gov. Griffin and his advisors have received the setback they deserve. In an obvious grandstand play, in an effort to call attention to themselves and to further themselves politically, they were willing to break a solemn contract and sacrifice the athletic program at Tech and the University. They quickly found that, in overstepping the bounds of commonsense, they had offended many of the people of Georgia.

The Regents, in their wisdom and independence, have restored the situation to normalcy. The Regents proved in this instance that they merit the confidence of the state, and the state looks to them to keep the University System inviolate, completely apart from the political ambitions and maneuvering of any individual or group.

This whole affair was ill-conceived and unfortunate in the extreme. Certainly Gov. Griffin gained nothing. Nor did the Tech students who disregarded the law in their attack on the capitol and disgraced themselves by hanging a governor of Georgia in effigy.

No one benefited; but the state of Georgia was harmed. Its standing in the nation has been somewhat lowered because of the strained and rather foolish sounding off by a shortsighted governor.

L. 1937)

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President and Members of the Senate this piece of legislation has been on our calendar for quite some time. We, on the Democratic side, have caucused in opposition of this legislation. I have before me a communication, dated August the 2nd, 1955, addressed to the Honorable Leroy E. Chapman, Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, and signed by Mr. Mattison, Secretary of Health, in which he states:

"Regarding Senate Bill No. 38, Printer's No. 208, this letter will confirm my telephone conversation with Mr. Stoner this afternoon. I should like to make two points concerning the above mentioned bill:

"First, the figure of $2,600,000 was based on this department's best estimate at the end of 1954. But on the basis of additional information and requests for reimbursement received during the past six months, our best current estimate of the cost of this program for the biennium is $3,200,000.

"Second, the amendment pushing the date of eligibility for reimbursement back to 1920 presents very serious difficulties in administration. According to a very rough estimate this would entail about another $1,000,000 of reimbursement. But perhaps more important, our experience with records of construction costs on these older plants has made it evident that really accurate estimates of cost are almost impossible after so many years. Furthermore the years prior to 1937 were times when a great deal of Federal financing was involved, again complicating the determining of local financial participation. On top of all this, a number of plants constructed during the 20's and early 30's are already obsolescent.

"Thank you for your consideration of these additional facts as the bill is considered in your committee.

"Very truly yours,

"Berwyn F. Mattison, M.D.

"Secretary of Health."

Mr. President, after talking with the department, they advised me that in the event this bill is passed in its present form it will cost the Commonwealth the sum of $4,200,000. I say to you here today that, in my opinion, there is no necessity of going back to the year 1920. I feel that we committed ourselves several years ago to provide for reimbursement to our various districts on disposal plants, but we never agreed to go back thirty-five years.

Therefore, Mr. President, in the interest of economy and in the interest of good government, I feel that this bill should be defeated in its present form and I ask the Members on our side to vote "no" on this roll call.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll, the following occurred:)

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 657, Printer's No. 278, on final passage, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, this bill has been on our calendar for several weeks. I feel that we all know the contents of the bill. It is a bill which would give Elwyn Training School a certain reimbursement for the students or enrollees down there, or the wards of the State, in line with the approximate cost that it costs this school to take care of them.

I think we are ready to vote on the bill. I cannot see any reason to hold it any longer and I think that we should dispose of this bill one way or the other today. Therefore, I object to the request to delay action on it any longer.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, this bill has been before our Caucus a number of times and there has been quite a difference of opinion with regard to the subject matter contained in the bill. We, on the Democratic side, have not resolved that difference and, therefore, I requested that the bill go over in order.

However, Mr. President, if the Majority Leader insists, we can debate the bill right now and I will yield to Senator Yosko of Northampton County.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I spoke on this bill before when I asked that it go over in order. At that time, I said that I was for institutions which render a service to the Commonwealth getting such funds to which they are entitled. At that time, I asked that the bill go over in order so that we could study the figures that are involved here. Since that time, I did make such a study.

I came to the conclusion that this institution is not entitled to this money. If it was, I would be one of the first to say so and would vote for it.

Mr. President, I think the Members are entitled to the facts so that when they vote, they can vote intelligently. During the last Session of the Legislature there was a bill passed. When this bill was passed, it constituted a contract between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Elwyn Training School. In this contract, which was in the bill, the Elwyn Training School was authorized to take care of 600 patients that would be assigned to the institution by the Commonwealth. The school was to receive $850 per patient, and an appropriation to that extent was made.

Mr. President, State-aided institutions, and there are many of them in Pennsylvania—there are 186 medical-surgical hospitals alone—are given appropriations based on a stipulated sum per person they treat or maintain, but they have to earn the money. For that purpose, there was a quarterly audit made of a statement which is submitted by the institution itself. When this statement is issued and sworn to, it goes to the Auditor General and the Auditor General, in turn, goes back to the institution and checks the records to find out whether the statement is correct and makes a charge against the Commonwealth for whatever is due.

There are eight quarters in a biennium. As I said before, the amount of the appropriation totaling $1,020,000 was based on the fact that this institution would care for 600 patients. Mr. President and Members of this Senate, this was not done. In a statement submitted by the institution itself for the first quarter, which ended in August, 1953, there were 594 patients or six less than the 600. For the quarter which ended in November of 1953, there were 584 patients or sixteen less than 600. In February 1954, there were 573 patients or twenty-seven less than 600. In May 1954, there were 572 patients or twenty-eight less than 600. In August 1954, there were 581 patients or nineteen less than 600. In November 1954, there were 585 patients or fifteen less than 600. In February 1955, there were 595 patients or five less than 600. The only time that the institution actually maintained 600 patients was for the final quarter of the last biennium, which ended May 31, 1955, and the number of patients at that time was 600.

To that end, Mr. President, the Commonwealth carried out its contract with the institution and it paid the institution the total which it earned, based on the number of patients that were cared for. This institution was paid $996,036.37 and is not entitled to any more money.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, if we should give this institution the difference between what was appropriated and what was not earned, then we ought to do the same thing with the 186 medical-surgical hospitals because many of them which received an appropriation of money forfeited some of it because they did not earn it. However, they still lost money because it cost them more to maintain a patient than the amount that the Commonwealth agreed to pay. As a result, there was $900,000 which was lapsed into the General Fund which was originally appropriated to the 186 medical-surgical hospitals and they are on a par with this institution.

I say, Mr. President, a contract was entered into. The Department of Justice objects to this bill because of that. The number of patients that were cared for, the institution was reimbursed for and, therefore, there is nothing due this institution. The Commonwealth at the moment, frankly, is in bankruptcy. It is in bankruptcy because we have not passed a tax program to finance the obligations of the Commonwealth. The gentlemen on the other side have been on a legislative sit-down strike so far as a tax bill is concerned to finance these obligations.

Mr. President, I realize that the amount is only $23,000, but you cannot pay out $23,000, first, when you do not owe it and, second, you cannot pay it out when you do not have it and we do not have it. We have about $136,000,000 worth of obligations at the moment and we only have about $61,000,000, or thereabouts, in the State Treasury; $17,000,000 of which is in cash and the balance in investments.

Therefore, Mr. President, under all these circumstances here, I do not see how I could vote to give away to an institution, although it is a good one and I have no complaints against it, something to which it is not entitled and, thereby, show partiality against other State institutions which perhaps suffered a loss because the Commonwealth did not pay them the actual cost of maintaining a patient, whether it be in this institution, a medical-surgical hospital, a home for the aged or any of the others.

For that reason and as a matter of economy, I ask, Mr. President, that this bill be voted against.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I do not care to go into any political debate about who is holding up the tax program or just why the Commonwealth is in the financial situation that it is in today. However, I would like to say, very briefly, that Senator Yosko has always been a great fellow to stand up and say that he believed in taking care of hospitals and I thought he was serious about that.

Senate Bill No. 657, Printer's No. 278, only pays twenty-three odd thousand dollars to the Elwyn Training School which has 600 patients of the State. This twenty-three odd thousand dollars is money which is now held in reserve, money that has never been used, money that is available to pay them what I would call a deficiency. Even though the bill does not say it is a deficiency appropriation, the money is due the institution.

Mr. President, if the Senator would prefer to have a deficiency appropriation made up, we will be glad to do so. I certainly do not agree with his figures and the way he has them broken down, that on certain dates they had so many patients there. At the present time, I do not have figures available to say that his figures are correct or incorrect.

I say to the gentlemen of the Senate, Mr. President, that Senator Yosko, and only Senator Yosko, has continuously tried to deny these poor invalids and sick people at the Elwyn Training School the $23,000 which is gravely needed. His great plea is that it is unfair to pay this money. I ask him if it is fair, Mr. President, to pay the bills for patients which we have in our mental hospitals. I ask him, in the other State institutions which we have and solely control ourselves, whether we pay the bills or whether we do not pay the bills.

Mr. President, I say just this very briefly. This money is due Elwyn Training School and I ask the gentlemen of the Senate to vote in favor of the bill regardless of how Senator Yosko might feel.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I want the Members of the Senate to know that these figures on the number of patients who were maintained at this school were given to me from official, sworn statements, filed by the institution itself with the Auditor General's Department. Whatever facts I gave here, I have because they were given to me from an official source.

I was also informed, Mr. President, that this institution has been the only one in Pennsylvania that has been able to come back here each biennium, at least for the last couple, and pick up the unearned amount, representing the difference between what was earned and what was actually appropriated. I was told that it is about time this sort of thing was stopped, because it is not fair and just to the other institutions in the same category.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, in reply to the statement of Senator Watkins, I might say that we on this side of the aisle want to pay our just debts. We want to pay for the care and maintenance of the wards at Elwyn Training School. However, we have never received a proper statement as to what is actually owed. All we know is the statement of the Senator from Delaware, Senator Watkins, when he says that the amount of $23,000 is due. The question in the minds of the Members of the Senate on this side is this, do we owe the money and, if so, what is the amount. That is our question.

Mr. President, we want to pay our debts and we want to help out these unfortunates. We do not want anyone left under the impression that we are opposing the maintaining of these wards of the State. However, we want to make sure that the amount of money is correct.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I would like to say to the gentleman from Washington, in answer to this question, just this. There is actually more money due, $156,000 is due, but there is no need of asking for something which we do not have. There is twenty-three odd thousand dollars available and that is all that we are asking for in this bill. If I were to put in a deficiency appropriation, it would be for $156,000. That is my answer to your question.

We are only asking that these people be paid justly and fairly, the same as the State of Pennsylvania pays their own institutions regardless of what the cost might be.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Watkins.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Watkins, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATKINS. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Senator Watkins, you stated that the sum of $23,000 is all that is available. Could you tell the Members of the Senate where you received that information?

Mr. WATKINS. From the Budget Director, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. How long ago?

Mr. WATKINS. Within the last ten days.

Mr. LANE. He did not give you a statement in writing to that effect but just gave you those figures, is that correct?

Mr. WATKINS. I have no reason to doubt his word. This has also been investigated by the Senate Majority Leader, Senator Mahany, and he can confirm that the money is there.

Mr. LANE. I wish to thank the gentleman.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I was just going to say that if this money is due the Elwyn Training School, then every State-aided institution that expended more for the care of the indigent in Pennsylvania ought to be accorded the same treatment. My information is that it would run into millions of dollars because we only gave the medical-surgical hospitals, I think, seven dollars a day to maintain a patient whereas, in some cases, it cost them as high as thirteen dollars a day to maintain them. Those facts were brought out on the hearings on the budget.

Here is an institution that made a contract with the Commonwealth, and all institutions do, to care for patients at a per capita cost. The Commonwealth took care of its obligation and paid this and every other school the amount that it earned. This happens to be an unearned balance which Senator Watkins is talking about, and it is not due to this school as earned funds which the Commonwealth owes.

Mr. President, so far as my figures are concerned, I will be glad to have the official reports brought here by a representative of the Justice Department and the Auditor General's Department for verification purposes, because that is where I got my figures and if they were lying to me, which I do not think they were, then, of course, they would be in error. However, I feel that the figures are correct because they came from statements which were submitted by the institution and they are sworn to. During the two year period, there were 116 patients under the 600 figure at $850 a piece.

Mr. President, I repeat that this is not earned money. This is unearned money, this balance of $23,000.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll, the following occurred:)

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, having voted under a misapprehension, I desire to change my vote from "aye" to "no."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will be so recorded.

REORGANIZATION PLANS Nos. 2, 3, 4 AND 5 CALLED UP OUT OF ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, inasmuch as the hour is relatively early at the present time, I would like to go to page 24 of the calendar, before we take up the Second Reading Calendar, and dispose of the Reorganization Plans which the Governor has sent to us. I notice this is the 28th day that these plans have been before us and it will be necessary to take some action on them today or tomorrow. Otherwise, they would go into effect without any action on our part, under the Reorganization Act which we passed earlier in the Session.

Therefore, Mr. President, if there is no objection, I request that we revert to page 24 and the calendar and take action on these Reorganization Plans.

RECESS

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of holding a Democratic Caucus.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, has called up from page 24 of today's calendar, Resolutions, Reorganization Plans Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5.

REORGANIZATION PLANS

REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 2 OF 1955

Section 1. The functions of the Department of Public Instruction as set forth in the Act of May 13, 1925, P. L. 644, and its amendments, are transferred from that department to the Department of State.

Section 2. There are hereby transferred to the Department of State to be used, employed and expended in connection with the functions transferred by Section 1 of this Reorganization Plan the records and equipment now being used or held in connection with such functions; and the unexpended balances of appropriations or other funds available or to be made available for use in connection with such functions Section 3 The Act of May 13, 1925, P. L. 644, as amended is suspended in so far as it is in conflict with this Reorganization Plan.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 2 OF 1955 APPROVED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, Reorganization Plan No. 2 would have the effect of moving the bureau or the group of people who have to do with administering the Solicitation Act from the Department of Public Instruction, where it now is, to the Department of State. In the plan of transmittal, there was nothing stated as to whether or not any money would be saved. I understood that under the Reorganization Act, which we passed, that when the Governor sent over plans of reorganization there was supposed to be some paragraph or statement in this transmittal message of how much money would be saved. Under the transmittal message, not only under this plan but also under Reorganization Plan No. 3 and Reorganization Plan No. 4 and Reorganization Plan No. 5, there is no statement of any money to be saved.

Mr. President, we understood that the Governor had some plans up his sleeve somewhere that he was going to save a lot of money by reorganizing the State Government. However, we feel that under Reorganization Plan No. 2, perhaps it is well for this particular bureau to be transferred from the Department of Public Instruction to the Department of State. It is one of those functions of government which, when you set it up, you are not quite sure under which department it should be. I think for awhile, it was under the Department of Revenue—no, it was under the Department of Welfare. From there, it went over to the Department of Public Instruction because there were licenses involved in this connection. Frankly, at the time we studied this, no one was quite sure where this particular function should be. If the Governor feels that he wants it under the Department of State for the purpose of better functioning of this particular service, I move that Reorganization Plan No. 2 be approved.

Mr. DENT. I second the motion, Mr. President, made by Senator Mahany, that Reorganization Plan No. 2 be approved.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The roll was called and was as follows:

L. 1898, in the Department of Health.

Section 419 of the Act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, known as "The Administrative Code of 1929", and its amendments, in so far as it imposes functions, powers and duties on the Secretary of Health, and in so far as the name "State Board of Undertakers" is concerned.

Section 2112 of the Act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, known as "The Administrative Code of 1929", and its amendments, in so far as the name "State Board of Undertakers" is concerned.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

REORGANIZATION PLAN No. 3 OF 1955 DISAPPROVED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, Reorganization Plan No. 3 would transfer the Undertakers Licensing Board from the Department of Health, where it now is, over to the Department of State.

Mr. President, when we had a hearing on these Reorganization Plans a couple of weeks ago, the representatives of the morticians or funeral directors or undertakers, whichever they choose to call themselves, stated that they had not been advised of the hearing and, therefore, they were not present at the time. However, since that time, their representatives, as well as the individual members of the Funeral Directors Association, have advised me that they are very much opposed to this plan. They feel that their particular function has to do with health and they feel that they have been going along well under the Department of Health.

They also feel that there is no money to be saved under this particular transfer and, therefore, rather than make some change and put them under a department which would be foreign to their particular powers and functions, they have sent me innumerable telegrams—I hold them up and you can see that I have approximately twenty-five or so from all parts of the State—saying in effect that they request us to defeat Reorganization Plan No. 3.

Therefore, Mr. President, I move that Reorganization Plan No. 3 be disapproved.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not believe that we will take the time of the Senate to get into a long discussion over the merits of these Reorganization Plans. I think it would have been just as well if Senator Mahany would have discussed both Reorganization Plans No. 3 and No. 4 at the same time. They both do practically the same thing.

The Majority Floor Leader questions whether or not these Reorganization Plans will save money. First, I would like to add to that by saying that if you put into effect a coordinated plan of reorganization of government, it cannot do anything except save money. The idea behind these Reorganization Plans is to put in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, which is the proper office of these particular licensing boards, all of the functions of the licensing boards in that particular department, by taking them out of the Department of Health and in the next Reorganization Plan, out of the Department of Public Instruction. There is no question in my mind that when you consolidate these functions into one department, you are bound to save money. You cannot do anything else but that.

Another thing, Mr. President, I might suggest that the fact that the undertakers have come forth with opposition is not anything new. We all know that the minute you start to make any change in a governmental function or any governmental department, those affected immediately distrust any change and want to fight that change as much and as hard as they can. I remember, not too long ago, when the Republicans were in control, when we took the State Police and put them under the Department of Justice in the State. Of course, they fought that rather bitterly, but you Republicans went into it. As I understand it, it has saved a great deal of money, something like—I do not know what the actual amounts are, but someone said it was over a million dollars in the functioning of that department. Incidentally, the Prison Board was included in conjunction with the prisons.

Reorganization Plan No. 5 just finishes up that particular reorganization plan, started under the Republicans, and takes other functions that should have been transferred at that time to the Department of Justice and we are now attempting to put them all into one department.

I do not see anything wrong and I do not see where any undertaker is going to be aggrieved or hurt by the transferring of the functions of his licensure board from the Department of Health and putting it into the Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth. There is not anything in this Reorganization Plan that changes the operation of that board. It does not take away from the board any existing powers, any of its existing duties. It does not give the Secretary of the Commonwealth any duties other than those which are contained now in the law. It does not in any way affect the operation of the licensing board to set up its own standards or to set up its own examinations. It does not affect the membership of the board whatsoever. It does not alter or change that. The only thing that we are trying to do is to give you exactly what we promised you, a reorganization of some of the administrative functions of this government. They are being performed after a great deal of study, and they are not being performed as a matter of trying to disturb things just for the sake of disturbance. I do not believe that you are giving the Governor the cooperation that he justly deserves when he asks for the right to reorganize these functions of government.

The same argument that I am making holds for Reorganization Plan No. 3 and I am going to ask those of you who are interested in trying to readjust governmental functions on this Hill, and in trying to get a more efficient form of government in existence, that you at least should give the Governor an opportunity to try it his way. All you are saying is, "We are against it because the undertakers do not like it."

Mr. President and Members of this Senate, you all know that no matter which board you try to disturb—and the next Reorganization Plan disturbs thirteen licensing boards in the Commonwealth and just as sure as we are alive, they will probably come down here with a great protest. However, none of them have been able to point out to me where it makes any difference to their profession, where it makes any difference to their licensing board whatsoever, to move their offices from where they now are into a consolidated department which will have control of all licensing boards in one department.

Therefore, Mr. President, I am asking our Members to vote "no" on this motion of the gentleman on the other side, and would request that they take another view of it before they completely vote out the Governor's Reorganization Plan.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman if I understood him correctly to say, in moving the approval of Reorganization Plan No. 2, that he believed the board that was moved in that case would function just as well, or presumably better since he approved it, in the Department of State as it has in the Department of Public Instruction?

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, the reason I voted for Plan No. 2 was because there was no particular good reason why the Solicitation Act enforcement should be under the Department of Public Instruction. The fact of the matter is, the Solicitation Act has been so adulterated, we might say, by various amendments which we have put in to exempt just about everybody out of it that it does not amount to a whole lot any more anyway, so you might as well put it over in the Department of State if that is where you want it. That was the reason I voted for Plan No. 2.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, while not agreeing with all of the gentleman's remarks, I agree with his main point, that it will function just as well over in the Department of State as it did in the Department of Public Instruction.

I would ask him now to instruct me how the operations of this board, or any of the boards mentioned in Reorganization Plan No. 4, will be changed by the move from the department they are now in, namely Public Instruction, over the Department of State. How will their operations be changed?

Mr. MAHANY. We are under No. 3, Senator, instead of No. 4.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, the gentleman's point is well taken and I would ask the chair whether I might have the same latitude, hitherto extended to the Minority Leader, since the Plans are related and I do not wish to repeat the same arguments twice, in order to save the time of the Senate in discussing Plan No. 3 and Plan No. 4 at the same time?

The PRESIDENT. Anything that will save the time of the Senate is a point of order well taken.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I thank you.

To continue, I would like the gentleman to tell me how the moving of a board from the Department of Health, or the Department of Public Instruction, to the Department of State as in No. 3 and No. 4 would alter, in any way, the operations of those boards. Will the gentleman kindly explain that?

Mr. MAHANY. Well, I do not know how far it would interrupt their particular method of carrying on business. As we understand the law, those who allege must prove and certainly the Governor, in sending over his transmittal plan, should have told us why he thinks that this move would be a good one. Until such time as they advise us why they feel this move is good, I think we have the right to say, "Well, we think the status quo should be preserved." In other words, this board has been functioning properly under the Department of Health and its functions are closely connected with the Department of Health. For instance, I have a telegram here from John D. O'Connor, President of the Allegheny County Funeral Directors' Association, in which he says:

"All members of Allegheny County Funeral Directors' Association feel that the State Board of Funeral Directors should remain in Department of Health, the agency to which its activities are most closely related. Operation of this board has been well handled while under Health Department jurisdiction. We are opposed to passage of Reorganization Plan No. 3 and respectfully request your support in defeating it."

Mr. President, I have a number of telegrams along similar lines. Senator Dent says, "Well, any move is going to save money." That is not true. There is no reason to believe that because you make some transfer from one department to another—

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, is the gentleman under the impression that he is still answering the question?

The PRESIDENT. He is conserving the time of the Senate.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I would thank the gentleman for his answer, and I think that he has gone afield. If the gentleman is willing to stop, I will excuse him from further questioning.

Mr. President, I take from the Majority Leader's answer, since he has offered no instance where there will be any difference in the operation of the board other than the feeling on the part of some individuals that it is more comfortable where it is, that he agrees with me that there is no practical difference in the operation. The board will still be appointed in the same way, the laws governing their action will still be the same and there will be no change.

As far as the reasons for offering it, I would refer the gentleman to the much forgotten Chesterman Report, which I think we all recall and which was prepared under Republican auspices, in which a fine group of outstanding men in the Commonwealth studied this situation. They recommended the same thing and they did give lengthy reasons why they felt that this would be advantageous to the Commonwealth.

Mr. President, the only thing I can take from the position of the Majority Leader on this question is that he is against all reorganization. He was against the Chesterman reorganization, or at least he did nothing effectual to put it into effect, and he is now against the Leader reorganization. It seems to me that the time has come for him to say, "I am just against reorganization. I am for the status quo." We now have had two studies made, one by the Chesterman Committee and one by the gentlemen who are now working in government trying to make reorganization and they both have come to the same conclusion.

All this business about the operation of these boards, as the gentleman very well knows, is imaginary. There will be actually no change whatever made in the operations of those boards. I am just a little bit inclined to think that it is time now to blow away the smoke screen and have the gentleman admit that he is just against reorganization period, and he prefers the status quo.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, in the first place, Senator Seyler knows that his statement that I am against reorganization plans in general is certainly misleading and quite false. I voted for Plan No. 1, which was sent over and put into effect. I just recently voted for Plan No. 2. Now, because I come to the first one which I cannot see any reason for, he immediately brands me as being against all reorganization. That sounds like all the other propaganda that emanates from the Governor's Office and probably will continue to be so. I can well imagine the spokesmen for the Democratic Party next year saying, "The Republicans were always against the reorganization plans. The Governor had all kinds of ideas on how to save money but the Republicans turned them down."

Mr. President, the Governor has not as yet come up with any recommendation or any plan of reorganization which would save five cents, although he stated many times in the campaign that he had such plans. Why does he not send one over which he was for?

Unfortunately, Mr. President, Senator Seyler was not in the Senate when we had Senator Leader here, but when these plans which were incorporated as part of the Chesterman Committee Report were presented to us in the Senate, the Senator from York at the time, Senator George Leader, voted against them, Senator. Why he is now convinced that something is good, in something that he voted against when he was a Member of the Senate, I cannot understand.

Today, I would like to vote along with the way your Senator, Senator Leader, voted in the last Session of the Legislature. For you to stand over there and say that I did nothing in order to get the Chesterman Committee Report implemented by legislation is another false statement, because if you will examine the record you will find that Senator Dent and I both co-sponsored every bill with regard to that report. Some of the time, and most of the time, Senator Dent and I voted together in opposition to them. We were not very far apart in our vote, Senator, and we are still waiting for the Governor to send over some plans that will save all this money which he said he was going to save during his campaign for Governor. If you will just urge to send something over which will just save five cents, I will be happy to vote for it.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, perhaps my indictment of the Senator was unfair in that he did sponsor, as I recall, with Senator Dent, bills which would have implemented the Chesterman Committee. I was in the House at that time, and so I do know that is correct. However, none of these came to anything so perhaps my indictment should have been broader. I should not have indicted the Senator personally, but I should have indicted perhaps the party to which he belongs.

I would like to make this comment. The gentleman talks about these statements which emanate from the propaganda agencies of the Governor's Office. I would like to refer him to one of the outstanding propaganda agencies of the Governor's Office and that is the Harrisburg Evening News, which I take it the gentleman recognizes as a regular advocate of the Governor's measures, and I would like to refer him to the editorial they have in this evening's paper. If that is not a sound argument, in my mind, for the very thing I have been talking about, then I will let it to the judgment of the Senator as to whether this is a propaganda document, inspired by the Governor, or whether it is a thoughtful publication of good reasons for it. I regret that this came out too late probably to come to the Senator's attention. However, I would honestly recommend it to his attention, because it says some very good things. If the Senator has not read it, it might just possibly change his mind.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The roll was called and was as follows:

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 4 OF 1955 DISAPPROVED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, we had a hearing a couple of weeks ago in relation to all of these plans, but most of the testimony was produced in relation to Reorganization Plan No. 4. At that hearing, the Realtors Association was represented, along with the Association of Pharmacists, the Engineering Association and others. The Medical Association was also represented. All these people testified that they did not see any good reason to transfer the functions, which they were performing very well under the Department of Public Instruction, over to the Department of State. They felt that they were getting along good the way they were functioning. They felt that they did not want to have this advisory committee put over their boards, and they felt that perhaps the Secretary of the Commonwealth might be more political than the Superintendent of Public Instruction. They are borne out by the fact that the present incumbent of the Cabinet Office of the Department of State, as you know, has been signally honored by being made the campaign manager for one of the leading candidates for the Presidency next year. Therefore, we feel that that particular office seems to lend itself to more or less political activity. The various representatives feel that the business of the Pharmacy Board or any of these boards, for that matter, in the granting of licenses which have to do with our every day lives should not be placed under a Cabinet position which might very well become a political football.

Mr. President, there is no reason at all for making this change, as set forth in the transmittal message. For instance, if I went home some night and said to my wife, "I think we should make a move from this place where we have lived for fourteen years. I think we should move down the street to some place else." Her first question would probably be, "Why do we have to move?" Unless I gave her a pretty good reason, I imagine she would resent it as much as she could and perhaps she would not go along with my plan to make a move. That is just exactly where we are here. These people have been getting along very well.

There has been no reason given to us by the Governor, or anybody else, why this move should be made. There is no money to be saved. There is no showing here by anybody that they will function any better. On the other hand, there is some showing on the part of these people, whom we are supposed to represent, that they do not want the move and they are asking us, as their representatives, to be opposed to it.

Surely, Mr. President, I think all of us, if we are going to be representatives of the people, should pretty much carry out their requests, especially as voiced to us through their associations and through their representatives, if we are going to stand for representative government.

The only person who showed up in favor of this was evidently the author of the plan, Doctor Charlesworth. Outside of him, no one else showed up who was in favor of these plans.

Therefore, Mr. President, I move that Reorganization Plan No. 4, as outlined in the B Resolution, be disapproved.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, of course, the remarks I made before go for this particular Reorganization Plan. The only added note is the inconsistency of the argument of Senator Mahany when he said that the representatives of these various groups were afraid that if their boards were put into some secretary's office, they might get into politics. The fact that they are organized strong enough to come down and wield enough influence on the Republican Caucus to get a unanimous vote not to have their little dunghill disturbed by any measure here or any change in the status quo, proves that they are not averse to being in politics. I imagine they are a darn sight better politicians than the man you mentioned, Doctor Charlesworth. I do not think anyone on this side even accuses him of being political.

Mr. President, I just want to remind the gentleman from Crawford of one thing. He said that it is good because they have been there constantly for four years and, therefore, it is wrong to change. I might remind the gentleman that he must have learned a long time ago that the only thing constant is change itself. Unless you change now and then, you get into a rut which you cannot climb out of. Even the gentleman, himself, likes a little change now and then. He pursues it very diligently when he is out getting acquainted with many of the various activities of life. He does not stay put. He likes to get out and do things.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I do not want to make this as a criticism, but I do believe all of us recognize how these boards have become very autocratic over the years. I believe that most of us know that we have had occasion, upon occasion to have some of our constituents believe that they were aggrieved by actions of these boards. I do not think that they are above reproach. I believe that a change would do them good. I think that by putting them all into one department and under one singular head would be beneficial and in the end it will save money.

You cannot prove that the Reorganization Plans will not save money because you will not allow them to go into existence. If you allow them to be put into effect and they do not work, then you can stand aside and criticize. However, so long as you do not allow the Governor to put his Reorganization Plans into effect, you can expect nothing but more of the same during the next election, that you have stood pat and would not allow reorganization of government that might have saved a great deal of money.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I was surprised to hear the Majority Leader say that his main objection to this resolution was that the boards might be put into the hands of a politician, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, I am going to say now that every Senator on this floor is a politician, every Member of the House is a politician and every member of every governing body in the United States is a politician. It is politicians who make our laws and run our government. For the leader of a great Party in this Senate to object to a politician handling an affair of this State is certainly surprising to me.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I always respect the remarks made by Senator McGinnis. However, I do want to say that the word "politician" was not used in its better sense. It was used in relation to some officeholder who might put his political views on these particular boards. For that reason, I referred to that particular department as being one that these particular boards should not be under.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, in the school department of the State of Pennsylvania—I want to remind every Senator on this floor that some of the slickest politicians in Pennsylvania are schoolteachers.

And the question recurring,

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 565, on second reading, entitled:

An Act providing for regulation by the Public Utility Commission of charges made by owners and operators of parking lots and similar facilities imposing duties on the owners and operators and prescribing penalties be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President. I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, in connection with this bill, I would like to interrogate, but not tonight, three eminent Members of the Senate; Senator Watkins, of Delaware; Senator Watson, of Bucks; and Senator Harney, of Chester. Their constituents suffer just as much as Philadelphians do in the hands of manipulators, speculators and persons who mulct the public. I refer to owners of parking lots in Philadelphia. I do not want to take advantage of the three Senators because they are not prepared. I am going to ask them about figures. Senator Watkins has been the champion par excellence of all those wage earners who come to Philadelphia from Delaware County. Although Senator Watson has not been so vociferous, he always espoused their cause. Senator Harney has never spoken about it, but I know that many people from Chester County come to work in Philadelphia and park their cars.

Mr. President, so as not to embarrass them about statistics, may I suggest that instead of dooming the bill to execution tonight, it should be postponed so that we can debate it? I appeal to Senator Pechan to pass the bill over. They have the votes and they can do it tomorrow or the day after tomorrow. The hour is late and I do not want to work.

Mr. President, I can deliver a speech on this object that would last for hours. However, some person said that if a speaker cannot strike oil within ten minutes, he should stop working. I do not want to work tonight. Let us pass it over and then fight it out another day.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, if the Senator from Philadelphia was making that little speech in order for me to withdraw my motion, he has failed. My motion stands to recommit the bill to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I have the singular distinction of being the greatest collector of bills on the Second Reading Postponed Calendar. I have thought, "Let them be, I have another one so they will still have a chance to survive maybe; I do not know."

Mr. President, may I offer a substitute motion to place the bill on the Second Reading Postponed Calendar? Make me champion by doing this.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I object to this motion and ask my colleagues generally, and some of those people on the other side whose hearts beat in unison with my ideas, to defeat this motion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, it seems to me that the Majority Party has taken some arbitrary action here today. As a matter of fact, I never knew much about this bill until last week. I received a number of telephone calls and quite a lot of correspondence in my office with regard to this legislation. The more I think of it and the more correspondence I receive, I believe there is some merit to this legislation.

I know there was some argument in Caucus today as to whether or not it was constitutional. That certainly is beside the point. I think, in this modern day and age, motor vehicles cease to be a pleasure. As a matter of fact, they are commercial because most people use motor vehicles in the course of earning their livelihood.

Mr. President, this racket of public parking is becoming a scrouge to the motorists of Pennsylvania. I firmly believe that there should be some regulation. In the city of Pittsburgh itself, some of the operators are making fortunes on the motorists who drive down town in Pittsburgh to shop. The opposition can argue all they want, and I suppose you have Caucus action over there to recommit this bill, but I believe that you are faced with something you do not know too much about. I think your action is hasty because this legislation carries considerable merit. I want to congratulate the sponsors on their foresight. As a matter of fact, I received four calls on Sunday from people who drive into the metropolitan area, saying this is just what they needed.

The Public Utility Commission should have a right to regulate public parking lots. I think that the Majority Party is making a mistake in recommitting the bill. Of course, as Doctor Steifel said, if you start drilling for oil and you drill for ten minutes and you do not strike oil, you had better quit.

Mr. President, I am going to quit, but I want this in the record. Some day this action you are taking here today is going to come back to haunt you. Look at the parking problem right here in Harrisburg. They write their own ticket and the owners of vehicles are penalized because of the fact the streets are not wide enough or there is a prohibition on parking. If they do go to a parking lot, they cannot get away with less than one dollar or one dollar and a half a night.

Mr. President, I think that Doctor Steifel and Senator Camiel have good legislation, and we should not recommit this bill arbitrarily.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, this embarrassing situation is quite paradoxical. At least I cannot be accused of being a politician tonight. What am I doing? I am pouring more oil on the lamps of the Republican Public Utility Commission. I am giving them all the trust and a new domain.

Again I say I am not going to make a political speech, but by doing this tonight you are giving a present to William Green, the Chairman of the Democratic Party in Philadelphia, of 50,000 votes. If you want to do that, go ahead and do it. I have done my duty and I may retire. In the words of Shakespeare, "The Moor has done his duty; the Moor may 'go.'"

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, we have certainly allowed a great amount of latitude in relation to these remarks. In the first place, when you make a motion to recommit to committee, the merits of the bill are not subject to debate. I believe that all the Senators over on that side know of that rule and they should respect it. The question here is only whether the bill should go back to committee or whether it should not.

This committee, as I understand it, was polled by one of the Senators to get this bill out. The committee did not have the opportunity of having joint discussion in relation to this bill when it was presented to them. Certainly the Senators over there know that—and I am asking them for the same latitude which we gave them for just one statement in relation to the merits—if you put parking lots under the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Commission, then you are giving people who have parking lots monopoly. Before anyone else could start a parking lot, he would have to come in with a petition to the Public Utility Commission in order to find out whether or not this was permissible. He would have to show a general demand of the public for a parking lot, he would have to show that he is equipped to operate a parking lot and this certainly would interfere a great deal with what you might call free enterprise.

Senator, if that is losing votes in Philadelphia—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Washington, Mr. Lane, will state his point of order.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I am wondering if the Majority Leader is practicing what he preaches?

Mr. MAHANY. No, I am not.

Mr. LANE. Is he speaking on the motion to recommit or on the merits of the bill? If he says that he is speaking on the motion to recommit, I will be glad to listen to him but I am wondering if he practices what he preaches.

Mr. MAHANY. Well, Senator, when you put your statements on the record and I allow you the latitude, then certainly you should not object to me having the same latitude as you had. You were making political statements over there for the record. I think we have a right to show our particular side of this. Now in the future, upon a motion to recommit, if we can all agree that there shall be no argument—

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I am not objecting to the gentleman making his remarks, I just wanted to call to his attention the fact that he always brings to our attention that we are debating the bill on a motion to recommit. I do not object to him speaking. I just wanted to let him know that we were observing what is going on. We agree that he can talk all night and we will be glad to listen.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I pled guilty before I even started my remarks. I said that if they will allow me the same latitude as I allowed them, just for one brief statement, I would put something in about the merits. However, as long as they shut us off, it is best we call the roll.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, let us make the record clear. I am not attempting to shut off Senator Mahanoy in his very learned address.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I object to this motion. I have an idea there may be some Republicans who will see the light of day.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STIEFEL. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. STIEFEL and Mr. LANE, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—27

Berger,	Koprivier, Jr.,	Peelor,	Wade,
Blass,	Madigan,	Propert,	Wagner,
Diehm,	Mahany,	Schmidt,	Watkins,
Flack,	Mallery,	Scott,	Watson,
Fleming,	McGinnis,	Stevenson,	Whalley,
Harney,	McPherson, Jr.,	Taylor,	Wolfe,
Kessler,	Pechan,	Van Sant,

NAYS—20

Bane,	Derk,	Holland,	Seyler,
Barr,	DiSilvestro,	Lane,	Silvert,
Camiel,	Donolow,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,
Chapman,	Haluska,	Mullin,	Weiner,
Dent,	Hays,	Ruth,	Yosko,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the following bills, on second reading, go over in their order:

Senate Bill No. 598, Printer's No. 399;
Senate Bill No. 599, Printer's No. 400; and
House Bill No. 756, Printer's No. 1208.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 772, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 818) entitled "An act for the extension of Capitol Park in the City of Harrisburg and for the acquisition of real estate in connection therewith and for the demolition of the buildings and structures thereon . . ." by empowering and directing the Department of Property and Supplies to acquire by purchase or condemnation all lands buildings and property which will permit the construction by said Department of an extension of East Street (Commonwealth Avenue) northwardly from Forster Street to connect with Sixth Street and making an appropriation.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 819, entitled:

An Act subjecting housing projects to taxation for school purposes.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 820, on second reading, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 14, 1935 (P. L. 341) entitled as amended "Cigarette Tax Act" declaring the taxes to be a levy on the consumers and imposing duties on dealers.

be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, for the purpose of further study and possible amendments.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I feel that this bill was given great and careful study in the committee before it was reported out, and I am going to ask my colleagues to vote "no" on the recommitment of this bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the negative.)

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 820, Printer's No. 421, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 828, on second reading, entitled:

An Act requiring owners and lessees of land on which there are certain abandoned excavations to fill in or fence the same to prevent persons falling therein prescribing penalties imposing duties on cities boroughs towns and townships.

be recommitted to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I must rise to oppose this motion. I want it known that I did not introduce this bill because of anything personal in so far as the owners of the land are concerned upon which these abandoned excavations exist.

I introduced this bill at the request of some mothers who are worried about their children in the area. I introduced this bill at the request of some motorists, who are in constant danger because of the hazards that exist, and I introduced this bill at the request of some public officials.

Before the bill was introduced, Mr. President, it was given considerable study in the area. I received a number of complaints from mothers who live in the areas of these excavations that are unguarded. I turned the matter over to the Highway Department to see what could be done about them. The Highway Department, in turn, took it up with the borough officials. After investigation, it was learned that there were no ordinances of any kind or any laws which would provide, or compel the providing of, protection to which the residents in the area are entitled. I turned all of the correspondence that I had—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Pechan, will state his point of order.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I think the gentleman is arguing on the merits or the demerits of the bill. We just went through that a little while ago. We are talking about the motion to recommit the bill. I think that the gentleman should stay within that motion.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the motion to recommit.

REQUEST FOR PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. There is nothing before the Senate but the motion to recommit, which is a preferred motion. And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Pechan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PECHAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Pechan, are you familiar with the situation involving these excavations in the district which I represent?

Mr. PECHAN. No, I am not. I have a marked calendar here, Senator Yosko, indicating that Caucus action was taken to recommit this bill and I have not read the bill.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Pechan, do you know that because these excavations are unguarded in the area in which I live, a short time ago a boy fell into one of them and the Department of Mines, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, was called upon to go up there with pumps and divers to get this body out at considerable cost to the Commonwealth?

Mr. PECHAN. Did I know that? I was not even paying any attention to you. I am sorry.

Mr. YOSKO. I am asking a question. You can answer "yes" or "no." Now do not get funny about it because this is a serious matter. I am asking you a serious question, to which you can say "yes" or "no." Let us not be funny about it. This is not something to be laughed at.

Mr. PECHAN. Senator, I am not laughing. As I explained to you awhile ago, I was not in our Republican Caucus today, at least not at the time when this bill was considered. I have a marked calendar, saying that this bill should be recommitted to the Committee on Local Government. I am not familiar with the bill.

Mr. YOSKO. I asked you a question about the boy falling into one of these unguarded excavations, and I asked you whether you knew that the Department of Mines was called upon to go to the area with pumps and divers to recover that body at considerable expense to the Commonwealth.

Mr. PECHAN. No, I did not, sir.

Mr. YOSKO. Did you know that another body fell into one of those excavations and, in spite of the fact that pumps and divers worked in the area, it was impossible to discover the body, at considerable expense to the Commonwealth?

Mr. PECHAN. No, I did not.

Mr. YOSKO. Did you know—

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President,—

Mr. YOSKO. If you do not want to be interrogated, just say so.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, will state his point of order.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, this interrogation has nothing whatsoever to do with the motion before us. We have before us a motion to recommit this bill to the Committee on Local Government for further study and possible amendment. I feel that the Committee on Local Government is well represented by a chairman whom both Democrats and Republicans admire and respect. I have no doubt that at some near future time Senator Stevenson will listen to both sides in relation to the arguments on this bill before his committee. This bill may be put in shape by committee action, by amendment, so that when it comes back out on the floor we can all vote for it.

We all sympathize with the thing that the Senator is trying to do, but due to the fact that the hour is growing late and we have a lot of other work to do before we adjourn, I respectfully request that the Senator confine his remarks and his interrogation to the motion before us, which is a motion to recommit this bill.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the Majority Leader is well taken. The only thing before the Senate at the present time is the motion to recommit, and the merits of the bill should not be brought into the discussion according to strict parliamentary procedure.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. DENT. Was the gentleman from Northampton,

Senator Yosko, speaking under a question of personal privilege?

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman is not speaking under a question of personal privilege. He is speaking on the motion to recommit.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I might suggest to both sides that I agree that the hour is getting late. However, every now and then there comes before us a piece of legislation concerning which one particular Member has a deep rooted feeling. I believe that it is only reasonable to request, if my Republican colleagues will go along with me, that instead of recommitting, let the bill go over in order with the hope that we may be able to get Senator Yosko's views and talk it over with some of the other Members in the hope that we might work something out on this bill. This is a bill that deals with human misery and human lives.

Mr. President, I would request that the bill go over in order if you can see it within your province to do so.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL WITHDRAWN

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I wish to withdraw my motion to recommit Senate Bill No. 828 to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I wish to withdraw my second to the motion.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 828, Printer's No. 389, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the following bills, on second reading, go over in their order:

Senate Bill No. 830, Printer's No. 324;

Senate Bill No. 832, Printer's No. 326.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 841, entitled:

An Act to promote the welfare of the people of this Commonwealth; creating Port Authorities to function in counties of the second class as bodies corporate and politic, with power to plan, acquire, construct, maintain and operate facilities and projects for the improvement and development of the port district and to borrow money and issue bonds therefor; providing for the payment of such bonds and prescribing the rights of the holders thereof; authorizing the authorities to enter into contracts with and to accept grants from the Federal government or any agency thereof; and conferring exclusive jurisdiction on certain courts over rates and services; and authorizing the authorities to collect tolls, fares, fees, rentals and charges for the use of facilities; defining the authorities' powers and duties, and defining the port districts.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1879, entitled:

An Act to provide revenue for Commonwealth purposes by imposing a tax on the manufacture use storage or purchase of certain manufactured tangible personal property providing for licenses reports payments of tax interest and penalties assessments collections liens reviews and appeals conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue public officers manufacturers wholesalers retailers corporations partnerships associations and individuals and making an appropriation.

The first article was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the article?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, with the permission of the Senate, I would like to offer some amendments and I would like to offer them all at this time. I will give a brief explanation of each one.

Mr. President, the first set of amendments that I am offering have been prepared by the Department of Justice, and they are clarifying amendments to Section 201. on pages 9, 11, and 13. I assure you that they make no change in the intent of the bill whatsoever.

The second set of amendments deal with a change: However, it is not one that will too drastically affect the bill. These amendments were suggested to me originally by Senator Pechan, a couple of weeks ago when he and I were discussing the possibility of an excise tax. He had in mind the question of use of machinery in manufacturing and the consumption of certain goods, tangible goods, and commodities in the ultimate manufacture of a product. Therefore, we have devised here an amendment which I would like to read to you. It strikes out the word "immediately" on page 7, Section 2, line 1, and inserts in lieu thereof "used or." On page 7, line 3, section 2, it inserts after the word "property," "and which is not depreciated as a capital item."

What it does is simply this. It allows the exemption of all or any commodities or materials or personal, tangible properties that are used in the manufacturing of any product. It allows even molds or glass firebrick and all of the accessories that are used and consumed or used in the process of the manufacturing of a product. It does not allow, however, the exemption of any capital investment that will be and is depreciated.

Under various rules which were promulgated under the Sales Tax Act, there have been many definitions that clarified the situation for Pennsylvania manufacturers. I can assure the Senators that in every instance where it is possible, every leeway will be given to Pennsylvania manufacturers in every instance to try to soften whatever blow any tax might be which would be applied against them.

The third amendment, Mr. President, is the one that takes out a confusing amendment that we put in the other day, in error. We thought we were clarifying the elimination of confections from the bill, but actually wrote the language ambiguously and it was suggested that we re-amend it to put the bill back in its original form.

The fourth set of amendments is the one which states that no trick advertising can be used by a person engaged in selling any of the taxable items under this act. In other words, in order to protect a legitimate retail mercantile establishment or a rental outlet of any kind, or any establishment that sells to the public or to another establishment, in order to protect those who try to operate on the basis of good, sound mercantile practices, we believe that it is proper and necessary that we do not give the chiseling operator an opportunity to advertise, for instance, in a page ad or a half-page ad or with big signs on his window that the articles offered here for sale are not subject to the excise tax of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We all know that any tax which is placed in this State, somewhere along the line it has to be either absorbed or passed on. It is not fair to allow a person to use the fact that he is in a position and ready to absorb a tax in an unfair advertisement program.

Mr. President, I would like to offer these amendments and ask for their immediate consideration. By further explanation, I would like to ask my colleagues to indulge with me for just a minute.

I want to say that I have here a list of other amendments which were offered by interested parties. I do not want anybody to get the idea that we are, in any way, not giving every consideration to these amendments which have been offered and to the problems that arise from the imposition of this kind of a tax. However, I want to make it clear, too, that we are studying tonight and we will work awful late, by the looks of things, on the effect of these amendments in relationship to the revenue, in relationship to the income to the Commonwealth, in relationship to administrative difficulties. I want to ask, if you can, to allow me to take these matters up in their proper order and if they are required in the bill, I can assure the Membership of this Senate that I will do everything in my power in the Conference Committee to meet those legitimate complaints. We recognize that in every piece of legislation there are legitimate complaints. Wherever we can, we will do our best to make it as workable as it is humanly possible to do so.

Therefore, Mr. President, I hope that you will go along on the amendments, for which I have just asked consideration.

Mr. DENT offered the following amendments:

Amend Section 2, page 2, lines 15 and 16, by striking out "including but not limited to confections"; Amend Section 2, page 7, line 1, by striking out "immediately" and inserting in lieu thereof: "used or"; Amend Section 2 page 7, line 3, by inserting after "property"; "and which is not depreciated as a capital item".

They were agreed to.

The article was agreed to as amended.

The second article was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the article?

Mr. DENT offered the following amendment:

Amend Section 201, page 9, line 4, by striking out "paragraphs" and inserting in lieu thereof: "paragraph"; Amend Section 201, page 9, line 4, by striking out "and (4)"; Amend Section 201, page 11, line 11, by striking out "and"; Amend Section 201, page 11, line 13, by striking out "are" and inserting in lieu thereof: "is"; Amend Section 201, page 12, line 10, by striking out "(4)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "(3)"; Amend Section 201, page 13, line 1, by striking out "(4)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "(3)"; Amend Section 201, page 13, line 12, by striking out "(4)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "(3)"; Amend Section 202, page 16, line 20, and page 17, lines 1 to 3, by striking out all of said lines, and inserting in lieu thereof: "(f) Cigarettes (g) Malt beverages, spirituous and vinous liquors".

They were agreed to.

The article was agreed to as amended.

The third article was read and agreed to.

The fourth article was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the article?

Mr. DENT offered the following amendment:

Amend Section 473 subsection (b) Page 42, line 4, by inserting after "(a)" the following: "Any person maintaining a place of business in this Commonwealth who advertises or holds out or states to the public or to any purchaser or user directly or indirectly that the tax or any part thereof imposed by this act will be absorbed by such person or that it will not be added to the selling price of the manufactured tangible personal property sold or if added that the tax or any part thereof will be refunded other than when such person refunds the selling price because of such property being returned to the seller and".

It was agreed to.

The article was agreed to as amended.

The fifth article was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the article?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, the amendment which I am about to offer is a harmless little clarifying amendment to Section 504, which says that the tax imposed by this act shall end May 31, 1957.

Mr. MAHANY offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 504, page 47, line 15 by inserting after "fifty-six": "The tax imposed by this act shall end May 31, 1957."

It was agreed to.

The article was agreed to as amended.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. POLEN.

HOUSE BILL No. 1923.

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Assistance and providing for certain allocations therefrom for the purpose of carrying out the Public Assistance Law, for the two fiscal years beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred fifty-five.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. After a battle with the Department of Property and Supplies, a battle with the Governor's office, a battle with various department heads and a battle with divers and sundry Senators, the Chair was able to secure permanent parking places for the Speaker's car and for the Minority Leader's car.

Last night in the dead of night with the whole plaza open the owner of car HR39 elected to park in the space allotted to the Speaker. So there was nothing left for the Speaker to do except park in the place of the Minority Leader. He got here and had to hunt all around the Capitol, but it was one of his jolly boys who parked in the Speaker's slot.

The Chair thinks he will recommend to the Rules Committee that they bring in a rule directing the Department of Property and Supplies, in the event of a repetition, to take the car with a tow truck and dump it in the river.

The Speaker simply has to defend the rights and privileges of the Minority Leader. We cannot see his boys run over him.

QUESTION OF INQUIRY

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, for about the last three weeks in a row on the righthand side of my car, which faces the Speaker's parking place, I have had deep scratches. Is the Speaker responsible, or who is going to be responsible for that?

In fact, I have two bills now that I would like to present to someone, if you can place responsibility, for $32 for one and $15 for the other last week.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia, if he has a car that can be marred by a little Volkswagon, the Speaker advises him to get a more substantial vehicle.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I thank the Speaker.

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, I think you both got what you deserved. Nobody else has special parking privileges.

The SPEAKER. After the fight the Speaker made to even let you look at the plaza! That's the thanks you get for doing anything for this crowd.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire whether Members of the House are entitled to park on the plaza, and why there isn't room for Members of the House when they come there to park?

Today when I came in I found a place to park. I had to go up to the Harrisburg Academy for ten minutes to bring my boys down here because my wife is in the hospital. I had no place else to bring them. I told the Capitol cop to reserve the place until I came back. When I came back it was full, no place to park, so I parked my car behind the rest of the cars and there it is sitting now.

The cop said, "You can't do it."

I said, "It stays right there. I have got to be on the floor of the House."

Now, what am I going to do about that, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The Chair wants to say to the gentleman from Adams that most of the Members have in their districts powerful constituents, and it is unfortunate that the gentleman from Adams represents a county which does not seem to have any pull on Capitol Hill.

Mr. WORLEY. I think we have many Republicans over there, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is unable at this time to see the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Vaughan.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 68 Printer's No. 1189

House Bill No. 1311 Printer's No. 1102 and

House Bill No. 1706 Printer's No. 841

were passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1819 as follows:

An Act enabling the department of procurement of cities of the first class to establish by resolution the conditions upon which it will award contracts for city printing

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The department of procurement of any city of the first class may by proper resolution require that printing firms who are desirous of presenting bids for city printing shall be required to comply with the following conditions

(1) That the printing firms shall file with the chief clerk of the department of procurement a sworn statement to the effect that employes in the employ of the firm or firms which are to produce the printing are receiving the prevailing wage rate and are working under conditions prevalent in the locality in which the work is to be performed

(2) That whenever a collective bargaining agreement is in effect between an employer and employes who are represented by a responsible organization which is in no way influenced or controlled by the management the agreement and its provisions shall be considered as conditions prevalent in said locality and shall be a condition upon which the contract will be awarded

(3) That in case any dispute arises as to what is the prevailing rate of wages for work applicable to the contract which cannot be adjudged by the department of procurement the matter shall be referred to the administrative board and its decision thereon shall be conclusive

Section 2 This act shall take effect immediately

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I request the sponsor of the bill to explain it briefly for the information of the House.

Mr. LIMPER. Mr. Speaker, all this bill does, as far as the bill itself is concerned, is to award contracts to those firms paying the prevailing rate of wages. Therefore, I think it will create better competition as far as the bidder is concerned. That is the extent of the bill. It only pertains to cities and counties first class.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman, please?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Limper, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LIMPER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman says that it will limit bidding to those firms paying only prevailing wages, does he mean by that it would limit bidding on this type of work for the city to only those firms that have a union contract?

Mr. LIMPER. No, Mr. Speaker, that is not necessary, because those firms sign an affidavit to the effect that they are paying the prevailing wages. It does not necessarily have to be a union shop.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Would an non-union firm paying the prevailing wages have the right to bid, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. LIMPER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. If a non-union firm did not pay the prevailing wages, they would not have the right to bid, is that right, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. LIMPER. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ. Mr. Speaker, I call up on page 15 of today's calendar the unnumbered resolution.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 21, 1955.

On November 21, 1955, another important event in the history of the Holy Family College took place, to wit, the dedication of the college by His Excellency, the Most Reverend John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., D.D.

The History of Holy Family College has been made, in the main, by the constant and unrelenting work and prayers of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth.

After many years of hard work and planning, on September 2, 1952, permission was granted by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth for establishing and building a new college. On January 31, 1953 an application for a charter was filed with the State Council of Education, and on September 4, 1953, the use of the name "Holy Family College" was approved by the State Council of Education.

A charter was granted to Holy Family College on February 11, 1954 and a month later ground was broken for the new building of the school. At about the same time, St. Mary's, residence hall for college students, was acquired.

Opening of the first full-time academic year occurred on September 28, 1954 with 22 girls and a faculty of 5 Sisters, one priest, one layman and two laywomen. On February 27, 1955, the laying of the cornerstone was held in a private ceremony and on May 31, 1955, the first issue of the college school paper, The TRI-LITE, was published.

Opening of the second academic year in the new building, with 44 students, took place on September 27, 1955, which was followed by the solemn religious dedication of the Holy Family College on the Feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, November 21, 1955.

Holy Family College is conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth at Torresdale, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The President of the College is Reverend Mother M. Neomis, and the Dean, Reverend Sister M. Florence. The great sacrifices, hard work and prayers of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth has borne fruit and will undoubtedly continue in the future; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives commend the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth for the many years of unselfish and outstanding work in the field of religion, Catholic education and Catholic action and for the building of the Holy Family College; and be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to His Excellency, the Most Reverend John F. O'Hara, Archbishop of Philadelphia, to Reverend Mother M. Neomis, President of the College and to the Dean, Reverend Sister M. Florence.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN TO MEET

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to request all Committee Chairmen to meet with me in the New House Caucus Room tomorrow at noon. I have just purchased a new set of thumbscrews and I want to try them out. It will be an important meeting and I request that every Chairman who is able to walk or crawl get to that meeting.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader for just one second.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Members will be seated. This may be important and it may not.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, this is important. We do not waste the time of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I just would like the Majority Leader, and I think it should come from him Mr. Speaker, to remind the Members on his side and the Members on our side that he intends to call the reorganization plans tomorrow, and that the procedure will be that there will have to be 106 votes for or against. The bills don't just die naturally as ordinary bills do.

I think there may be some Members on his side who may want to vote against some of those bills and I know there are some on our side.

I understand that is the plan, is that right, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. READINGER. That is correct. I thank the Minority Leader for calling this to the attention of the House. I thought it was generally understood that tomorrow was the last day for action on the reorganization plans but some of the Members may have forgotten it.

We do intend to call them up for action tomorrow.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HAYS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HAYS. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, this measure is being introduced in the interest of citizens of Aaronburg. This village of 321 persons is in my District, but I am sure all of you know that they have become constituents of the entire Commonwealth, the Nation and, in fact, of the world.

As recently as December 11th, Mr. President, our Governor the Honorable George M. Leader, speaking in the historic Salem Luthern Church, said that although Aaronburg has not become the political capital of the State, as its founder, Aaron Levy, had hoped, it had become the brotherhood capital of the world. Its achievement has been in the realm of ideas and ideals, although its wide streets or, more accurately, its wide street, patterned on the mold of Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, could be an example for many larger communities in this day of crowded streets and scarcity of parking areas.

In March 1809, when Abraham Lincoln was less than two months of age, citizens from this same village of Aaronburg petitioned the General Assembly of this Commonwealth as follows, and I quote:

"Whereas a number of inhabitants of the town of Aaronburg in the county of Centre, have, by their petition represented to the Legislature, that the use of a certain stream of water has been granted by Aaron Levy to the said town, if they would convey to the same, which they have done accordingly by wooden pipes, at great expense, and that they experience much difficulty in equalizing the contributions for maintaining and keeping the same in repair, as well as distributing the advantage of the water to the different parts of the said town to remedy which difficulty, they have solicited the interference of the Legislature, therefore"

That is the end of the quotation, Mr. President. You will notice they ask the Legislature to interfere rather significantly.

And so, our predecessors, the Members of the 1809 General Assembly, interfered as requested and provided for the incorporation of the water pipes of Aaronburg. This act, in 1809, too much in detail to give you at this time, but detailed enough to say that the meeting was to be held in the home of Samuel Miles on the first Saturday of June, did include a fixed water pipe rate. Now these Aaronburg citizens of 1809 had unusual understanding and vision, and those citizens of Aaronburg who have followed them have conducted their business affairs with economy and efficiency for the rate established in 1809, when Lincoln was a baby, has sufficed for over 146 years.

Mr. President, Aaronburg's fame and renown in this important matter of brotherhood and human understanding has gone out to the four ends of the earth and, in the meantime, the citizens of that community have continued to live normal lives, feeling no particular sense of importance because they were living together as they have interpreted the heritage passed down to them. This simply means living normal, friendly lives without much fanfare. Communities, however like individuals, have physical needs and aspects as well as those of the spirit.

So, the time has come when the water pipes can no longer be maintained on the rates established in 1809. When 30,000 persons worship in a community of 321, as happened in Aaronsburg a few years ago, it just could be a strain on the water pipes.

Therefore, Mr. President, this proposed legislation, if approved by the General Assembly and the Governor, I am told by the Legislative Reference Bureau, will provide relief for the community of Aaronsburg. It will not provide relief in the sense that this is an appropriation bill, but it gives them a right to help themselves. This could be called inflationary, but when a community holds the price line for 146 years, that is a rather good record.

Mr. President, I am not sure of the committee to which this bill will be assigned. I suppose that it sounds like a Forest and Waters, Game and Fish project. Seriously, this bill is one on which I hope the appropriate committee will take prompt and favorable action. I ask my colleagues in this body to "interfere" in this matter in a constructive manner.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. HAYS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 919, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103) entitled "The Second Class Township Code," authorizing township supervisors to acquire certain water pipes maintained by villages or towns.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STIEFEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, one of the most puzzling questions of the day is raised in Philadelphia. We have, in Philadelphia, close to a million registered voters. Yet, at the height of the election in a Presidential year, there are only about 300,000 people who vote. In a local election, the high water mark is about 650,000 people. The question is, what becomes of those 350,000 people who do not come to the polls?

This bill, which I am about to introduce, Mr. President, provides for the closing of schools on Primary Election Day and General Election Day. I am of the opinion that the presence of the children at home will remind the parents to come and vote.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. STIEFEL read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 920, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "The Public School Code of 1949," requiring the closing of schools on primary and general election days.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

RECESS

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of holding a Democratic Caucus.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I ask unanymously consent for immediate consideration of the nominations reported from the Committee on Executive Nominations at today's Session, with the exception of the nominations of Jacob H. Katz and Harold Blid, as Members of the State Board of Pharmacy, which were reported with a favorable recommendation, and also the nomination of Louis R. Inwood, as a Member of the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission, which was reported with an unfavorable recommendation, and which are presently on the table.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. WATKINS,

That the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the nominations reported at today's Session.

Which was agreed to.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Miss Margaret Greenstein, 916 East Fifth Street, Bethlehem, Northampton County, for appointment as Alderman in and for the Fifth Ward of the City of Bethlehem, Northampton County, until the first Monday of January 1956, vice Charles Greenstein, deceased.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. WATKINS, That the Senate do advise and consent to said nominations.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, among the confirmation which are to be acted upon are two Aldermen and one Justice of the Peace from Northampton County. If you take a look at the commissions, you will find that they expire the first Monday in January 1956. Two of these recommendations were sent over to the Senate on August 30th and one was sent over to the Senate on August 29th. For no good reason, at least none was given to me, they were delayed until this time.

Although I am not going to object to them, Mr. President, by the time the commissions are sent to them, with the holidays coming on, their appointments will have expired, I believe, before they get them. Or, when they get them, they could perhaps only use them for a day or two.

I am just calling this to the attention of the Senate to indicate just what delay does in holding up confirmations of this kind.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 794, on third reading, entitled:

L. 3) entitled "An act relating to officers and employees of the General Assembly . . ." changing the title of and compensation of certain Senate and House employees providing for the appointment of additional employees therein and making appropriations be placed on the Third Reading Postponed Calendar.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 819, entitled:

An Act subjecting housing projects to taxation for school purposes

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, it seems to me that this bill has a laudable purpose; namely, to give local school districts additional taxing power. However, there is an old saying that one should not kill the goose that lays the golden egg. I am convinced that one unfortunate by-product of this bill would be seriously interfere with the Federal program of housing, the support of Federal funds which is offered to State and municipal housing authorities.

I believe the purpose of this bill is good and if it could be amended, I would certainly support it. However, as it stands, I am afraid it would be impossible to have this authority given to local communities in the way this bill is worded and, at the same time, not cut off Federal funds which are so badly needed in carrying on the housing program. I would urge that the sponsors of the bill investigate the possibilities of amending it so it would conform and so that those Federal funds would not be cut off. In such form, Mr. President, I am sure all of us could support the main purpose of the bill.

Mr. President, I would urge them to hold it. If not, I believe we should vote against this bill because we will be striking a blow at the housing program and Federal support for that program which is so badly needed.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, over the week end I took the opportunity to look into this legislation and this is what I found.

I talked with the solicitor for our housing authority in Washington County. Before a housing project is located in the municipality, contracts are signed by the municipality, by the school district and by the county. What generally happens—and I know in Washington County it is a fact—they allocate ten per cent of the rental for tax purposes. Ordinarily, five per cent goes to the school district, two and a half per cent will go to the local municipality and two and a half per cent will go to the county. The location of a housing authority within a particular municipality is predicated upon the signing of these contracts. This solicitor in question advised me that he felt that if the legislation were passed in this particular form, there was a possibility that we would have quite a lot of trouble with the Federal Housing Authority.

Therefore, Mr. President, in its present form, I will be forced to vote "no" on the bill.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, frankly I would not know the legal answer to this problem. I do know there is an increasing resentment on the part of many school districts over the fact that they are not receiving, for some reason or other, school taxes from the people who occupy these houses. Senator Flack tells me that he has two school districts in Luzerne County that have not received a nickel of money for school purposes.

I asked the Legislative Reference Bureau to see how the housing legislation, or whatever we have, might be amended to correct this condition. Their advice was that the best way to do it was to say that housing should come under taxation for school purposes.

I have no objection to seeking amendments if somebody knows how this bill might be amended to protect some of these districts. I do not want to see Federal Housing stopped where it is desirable, but if there is any place where these taxes could be collected then I say, Senator, collect them we should.

Mr. President, perhaps the good and sensible thing to do would be to let the bill go over in order or put it on the postponed calendar until we find out if there is a possibility of spelling this out in a fashion which will make it effective and help to get some school moneys for school operations. I mean, if we are going to vote for it today, I certainly am going to vote "aye" and I am going to try to corral enough votes to pass it, since there is no certainty about its illegality.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, if the gentlemen on the other side will help me ascertain what might be done, then under those conditions I move that Senate Bill No. 819 be placed on the Final Passage Postponed Calendar until we can check it more thoroughly.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I wish to second the motion just made by Senator Wagner, and I might also add that I believe the procedure would be for us to contact the Federal Housing Administrator and clarify the subject matter in these contracts. There might be other housing authorities which operate. However, under The Federal Housing Act there is definitely a contract, and the contract is signed even before the housing project is constructed with an allocation of ten per cent of the rentals designated for taxes.

I would suggest, and I will be glad to help the Senator if I can, that the Federal Housing Administrator be contacted and his advice sought. In this way, we can probably work something out.

Mr. President, I am glad the bill is being placed on the Final Passage Postponed Calendar because it is a very laudable purpose but I am afraid we are in trouble in its present form.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye," the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, inasmuch as I am having amendments prepared to this bill, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 842, Printer's No. 381, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 882, on third reading, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 23, 1931 (P. L. 932) entitled "The Third Class City Code" permitting elected officers of a city to serve as members of the legislature be recommitted to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I realize that a motion to recommit is not debatable. However, I would request the membership on our side to vote "no" on this motion to recommit. We had considerable trouble, and I know I went to considerable trouble, in polling the members of the Local Government Committee with regard to these two pieces of legislation and they acquiesced and agreed that they should be reported to the floor. If there is anything wrong with the legislation we should amend it, but I do not believe it should be recommitted.

I, therefore, ask for a roll call on Senator Pechan's motion to recommit this bill.

Mr. RUTH. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. LANE and Mr. RUTH, and were as follows, viz:

INTERROGATION

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Koprivier.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Koprivier, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KOPRIVER, JR. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I would like to know how the Senator from Allegheny, Senator Koprivier, voted on Senate Bill No. 882, Printer's No. 419?

Mr. KOPRIVER, JR. I voted "aye."

THIRD READING CALENDAR

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 883, on third reading, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 15, 1874 (P. L. 186) entitled "An act declaring what offices are incompatible" permitting members of the legislature elected to the office of councilman in an incorporated city to serve out their terms be recommitted to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.)

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE, AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 899, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Instruction for the payment of certain overdue reimbursements to school districts and authorizing temporary loans for the immediate payment thereof

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of one hundred ten million two hundred seven thousand seven hundred twenty-seven dollars ($110,207,727) is appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction for the payment of the following overdue reimbursements to school districts in accordance with existing law For reimbursements payable during the month of October 1955 the sum of forty-three million two hundred ninety-two thousand nine hundred sixty-seven dollars ($43,292,967) for reimbursements payable during the month of November 1955 the sum of fifty-two million seven hundred forty-two thousand eight hundred ninety-five dollars ($52,742,895) for reimbursements on account of transportation the sum of fourteen million one hundred seventy-one thousand eight hundred sixty-five dollars ($14,171,865)

Section 2 In the event that there is not sufficient money in the State Treasury to pay the foregoing appropriation in full immediately the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer on behalf of the Commonwealth shall borrow on the credit of the current revenues of the current biennium a sum of money not exceeding the amount of the foregoing appropriation and shall issue and sell tax anticipation notes therefor in the manner and subject to the conditions provided in section 2 and 4 of the act of September 29 1951 (P. L. 1646) The proceeds derived from the negotiation of loans under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury and shall be used only to pay the appropriation made by this act Any money borrowed hereunder shall be in addition to the amounts heretofore authorized to be borrowed by the Commonwealth as temporary emergency loans to defray current and other expenses of the State government under the provisions of the act of September 29 1951 (P. L. 1646) and its amendments and shall not be construed to diminish such pre-existing borrowing power

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, on behalf of Senator Lane and myself, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Title, page 1, line 3 of title, by inserting after "authorizing": "upon certain contingencies"; amend Sec. 2, page 2, line 10, by inserting after "2": "(a)"; amend Sec. 2, page 3, by inserting after line 7 the following: "(b) The provisions of this section shall take effect only if the major tax program of the General Assembly is enacted into law on or before the thirtieth day following the final enactment of this appropriation act."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

MOTION TO ADOPT AMENDMENTS

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I move that the amendments just read be adopted.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I would ask the Members of the Senate to vote down the proposed amendments. This bill, as everybody probably knows, spells out a procedure by which the State school moneys which were due in October and November and may be due in December can be paid to the local districts.

Already some districts have borrowed money to the extent of their credit to pay teachers' salaries. Many school districts have served notice that after the current pay, there will be no further payments unless money is forthcoming from the State.

Mr. President, the contingency and the emergency we already have. If we are going to put a provision into the bill providing that the bill shall not be effective on or before the 30th day after the final enactment of a major tax program, we do not know when it may happen. It is our hope, and I think all of us have the hope, that the money can be provided to keep the schools going and meet the teachers' payrolls just as soon as possible. For that reason, the further borrowing capacity is provided for and the machinery made available at least to do the thing rapidly.

If a major tax program should pass in a matter of hours or days and make the borrowing facilities easier and less costly, I will be certainly as happy as somebody else that this money can be saved. However, the virtue is gone in the legislation unless the action is immediate rather than at some future time, depending on future legislation. Therefore, I would request the members to vote down the amendments.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, the amendments which I just offered, I offered in the Committee on Appropriations. The same position prevails. This is adding insult to injury. We all realize the conditions of our schools, hospitals, et cetera.

If this bill had been introduced in good faith, the sponsors of it would have introduced another bill to pay for the interest through new taxation. It will cost the Commonwealth about $1,000,000 for interest alone, to put this bill through, and there is no provision whatsoever to enact any bill or legislation which will pay for the interest in this bill.

I say that if we came out and pledged ourselves to enact some type of a program, within thirty days we could adjourn sine die. However, let the schools close, let the hospitals close and let the public decide who is to blame for this chaotic condition. After twelve months in Session, we find that this group does not even have the courage, at this late date, to pledge themselves to enact some type of a program within the next thirty days.

Mr. President, this is the most disgraceful situation I have even seen in my twenty-two years on Capitol Hill; twelve months in Session and nothing has been done. I say that if the sponsors will introduce a bill to pay for the interest on $1,000,000, I will go along with it and so will my colleagues. If they fail to do that, I say they are acting in poor faith, they are insincere and the bill should be defeated.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I shall refrain from debating the tax issue at this time in trying to determine whether Senator Haluska is most at fault for not taking the kind of a tax that suits me or I am more at fault for not taking the kind that suits him. That will be debated at greater length, and it will be determined at some time or other.

However, Mr. President, I cannot agree with Senator Haluska's reasoning that because we have not had harmony on the tax proposal, we should let the hospitals close and let the schools close and then have it determined by the public at some future time whose fault it was. That solves no problem, and I still oppose the amendments.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Senator Wagner.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Wagner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WAGNER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Senator Wagner, we all realize that you have always tried to sponsor and favor legislation pertaining to the school districts and the schoolteachers. Because of your fear that there will be payless pay days, I assume that is the reason you introduced this bill. Are you willing to go through with the other part of the program and introduce legislation providing the taxation for the interest on this bill? You realize that it will cost interest. If the amendment which I proposed is adopted, we could borrow the money for half the interest rate and save at least $500,000. By some collateral, we can pick up this money at least for half the rate. Are you willing to even co-sponsor with me a bill earmarking some item to pay for the interest on this bill?

Mr. WAGNER. May I answer your question in more than one word?

Mr. HALUSKA. Certainly you can.

Mr. WAGNER. The matter of interest rates is one of legitimate concern. I think the last money which was borrowed on tax anticipation notes cost something like 1.55 per cent. Certainly we do not want to pay two per cent or two and a half per cent if it can be avoided. I would suggest to the gentleman from Cambria that if we do not do this, the local districts will have to borrow money where they have credit and pay four per cent or more for it. Some already are paying five per cent. Therefore, it is a question of whether it should cost the taxpayers of the State one and a half or two per cent interest money on tax anticipation notes or cost the taxpayers, locally, four or five per cent interest on money borrowed for their payrolls.

Mr. President, I assumed that when we authorized the Administration to borrow money on tax anticipation notes, that that would include authority to pay the interest and the cost of the borrowing. However, if it does not, I shall readily join you in an appropriation bill to pay the interest on the borrowed money.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, the answer was very evasive, I would say. We have laughed and talked for a month and I guess we can laugh for one more hour.

I asked the gentleman from Schuylkill whether or not he would co-sponsor a bill with me. Since the bill is up for consideration at this moment, will he assure me that today or tomorrow he will join with me in sponsoring some bill to create a tax to pay for the interest or will he ask one of his colleagues in the House, where tax bills originate? I will ask one of my colleagues in the House to join his colleague, with our influence, if we have any, to sponsor such a bill.

Mr. WAGNER. Senator Haluska, you asked a question and I answered it according to my understanding. You said that we made no appropriation to pay the interest on this loan, and you asked whether I would join in sponsoring legislation to appropriate money to pay the interest. To the question, my answer was "yes." If you want me to start an additional assignment to my present duties by running around getting people to vote for a tax—I run into people and they are crawling up my sleeves and down my coat collar every hour for various kinds of taxes. I do not propose to start another tax project at this time. However, I will join Senator Haluska in an appropriation act.

Mr. HALUSKA. Senator Wagner, you do realize that we must pass sufficient money to pay the interest. How are we going to pay the interest? From what source of revenue? How are we going to pay the interest without creating new taxation?

Mr. WAGNER. The machinery is provided with tax anticipation notes to get the money. If it does not include the interest, we can have an appropriation bill to pay the interest. Everybody here voted for an appropriation of $31,000,000 to increase teachers' salaries. We should be able to vote for money to pay them what we already owe them.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman from Schuylkill where the appropriation will come from. The cupboard is bare. It is easy to pass appropriation bills, but where is the money coming from?

Mr. WAGNER. Presumably, the tax problem will be resolved. There is not going to be a stalemate forever. A tax program will be forthcoming.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, if the gentleman from Schuylkill feels that way, he should not object to the amendments. I am allowing thirty days time and certainly within thirty days time we should be able to pledge ourselves to pass a tax program, thereby cutting the interest rate in half. If we are interested in the Commonwealth's finances—I am in the banking business and I know what collateral means. If you walk into my bank and have no collateral, you are out. The professionals may give you some, but charge you the full rate. However, if you walk in with bona fide collateral, we will talk turkey to you. Here we have nothing to offer whatsoever. With this amendment, we do offer collateral. We pledge ourselves that we shall enact a tax bill within thirty days and thereby save at least $500,000.

Therefore, Mr. President, I think it is most important that we pass this amendment. We have thirty days time to settle our tax differences and pass a tax measure.

Mr. President, in view of the fact that the gentleman from Schuylkill feels that they should pass this bill without any collateral in the form of taxation, I am asking my colleagues to vote "no" on this measure.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, this legislation has been before us for several days. I feel that now is the time when we should be brutally frank in our expressions in regard to this particular bill.

First, Mr. President, I firmly believe that this legislation was conceived hurriedly by the Republican Majority, due to the fact that they were experiencing considerable pressure back home by our default in payment to our school districts for October and November.

Mr. President, what we are actually doing here today is taking this Republican Majority, which has refused to consider a tax program, off the hook. In other words, we are going to borrow $110,000,000. We do not know when we are going to pay it back. They will not accept an amendment which provides a thirty day period in which to pass a tax program. I have heard it said throughout the halls of this Senate—as a matter of fact, down in the Penn-Harris Hotel—that the Republican Majority here in the Senate is determined that the Democrats will be here next April. This legislation, passed in its particular form, will take the Republicans off of the hook and place us in a position of dillydallying from now until next April. I think what they want to do is discredit the entire Democratic Administration. They are trying to tell the people of Pennsylvania that we are not qualified to operate government. They are doing that by a well planned filibuster. We have been filibustering here now for almost twelve months. The Republican Majority has taken the position that they do not approve of our tax programs. What they want us to do, Mr. President, is to make guinea pigs out of the Democratic Members of the House of Representatives.

We now have before us a second tax program. I hear one time that we are going to get three or four Republican votes. Then, I see in the newspaper tonight where the tax program is supposed to be down the drain. Sometimes I wonder if the Republicans really appreciate and realize the responsibilities of their office. Do they feel that they should play politics to the extreme whereby the people of Pennsylvania are being deprived of the services to which they are entitled and which they justly deserve?

Mr. President, I know they are playing for the school-teachers' votes. They are going to go back and say, "We Republicans want to make sure that you get paid." They fully realize that in some school districts they cannot borrow a dime. They do not have the credit to borrow. Yet, Mr. President, they have not convinced us that they are sincere. If they were sincere, they would have accepted this amendment and taken their chances. If they were sincere in working with the Democrats over here to pass a tax program, they would have gladly accepted this amendment and said, "Boys, we are going to do what we can to resolve this between now and when the thirty days are up." No, Mr. President, they arbitrarily reject this amendment, which proves to me beyond a reasonable doubt that they are not sincere in their endeavors. I do not expect to get the votes over there for a tax program this month or next month.

That is the situation as I see it, Mr. President, I am sorry that I must make these statements, but I want to tell you what I think. I have observed, during the past few months, just what is going on. First they say, "Well, we will go for this." As a matter of fact, I read headlines in the newspaper where Senator Pechan was going to vote for this tax bill. I do not like to bring that subject up now. We are not debating the tax program. However, those headlines were there. Senator Mahany was going to vote for it. Then I understand that Senator Taylor said, "They are going to vote the way the Republican Caucus instructs them to vote." Here they are in the same position today. We have no tax program and we are borrowing another $110,000,000. We borrowed $60,000,000 and we paid 1.55 per cent interest. We are probably going to pay two per cent or more. As Senator Haluska asked, "Where are we going to get the money?"

Mr. President, I talked to the Speaker of the House today, and probably quite a few of the Democratic Members heard his conversation when he said that we owe about $5,000,000 now. Now we are going to borrow this money, and owe some more interest. I heard it said that there was one county in central Pennsylvania that borrowed money at the rate of three-quarter of one per cent. In our county of Washington, we borrowed it at one per cent. Now, if that $60,000,000 cost 1.55 per cent and we have exceeded our ten per cent, I do not know what this will cost.

Mr. President, I would say, too, to the Majority Party, today and tonight, that you should accept the amendment and say, "All right, let us get together. We have thirty days to do the job." If you do not accept the amendment, the people of Pennsylvania will know that you are not sincere.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, we agreed yesterday that we would not make statements or debate measures that were not before us. However, since Senator Lane has taken the latitude that he did, I expect the same courtesy and I am not going to make a long speech.

I do want to assure Senator Lane again—I have said it many, many times at this lectern—that I will vote for a tax measure when I feel it is fair and constitutional. I did say a couple of weeks ago that I thought, perhaps, I could vote for an excise tax bill because I thought it was next door to my philosophy of taxation. When I saw the bill, even before I came here from the hospital bed, I said that I could not vote for it in its present form. That is beside the point, however.

We are now talking about a debt that we owe to school districts throughout the Commonwealth. I have districts in my counties of Butler and Armstrong that are not able to pay their teachers their Christmas salary checks. It is not the fault of the school districts in Armstrong and Butler Counties that the Republican and Democratic Members of the Senate cannot resolve their tax problem. We owe that money. We have owed that money. They opened their schools with the feeling that that much money was going to come to them in October, November and December, just as your wife or my wife runs her home when she knows that she is getting a certain amount of money the first of the month to run her home.

Senator Hays and Senator Seyler amended a bill. We tried to take care of this problem back in October when we were told by the Budget Secretary that moneys were available to pay the subsidy which was due at that time. No, you fellows saw fit to play politics with Senate Bill No. 785, and you gave the teachers a $31,000,000 raise. It is in House Bill No. 583 and House Bill No. 584. It was not before us. However, you thought you would woo the schoolteachers by giving them a $150 to $300 raise. That was not the problem. Just because of that, the school districts still have not been paid. Resolving of the tax problem has nothing to do with the payment of the subsidies that we owe to the school districts at this time.

Mr. President, I am going to ask my colleagues to vote "no" on the amendments.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I do not rise to debate the amendments, but to answer an allegation made by the gentleman who last spoke. I would like to tell him that it is quite true that I voted for that appropriation, as he did also. I would also like to remind him that I have already voted for a tax bill to furnish the money, and I stand ready to vote for another. I would like to know where he stands in that proposition.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I listened with considerable interest to the statements of Doctor Pechan. I appreciate the fact that we owe the money. As a matter of fact, I knew that months ago and I am wondering if he did. I am wondering if the Republican Majority realized that. Of course, we owed the money. It is sort of silly to say that we do not owe the money, but I realized it months ago and I voted for a tax program. Senator Pechan says that he is going to vote for a tax program, but he has never told us what sort of a tax. As a matter of fact, quite a number of months ago he said that the tax that he will vote for is his secret, as I recall.

It seems to me, Senator Pechan, that if you fellows really mean business, you will vote for this amendment. That is all I have to say.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in talking on the amendments, we have reached a second stage in the well planned campaign to keep us here until next summer, which is perfectly all right with me and if the Lord spares me I will be with you.

The amendments just offered by Senator Haluska take into consideration the fact that it takes thirty days to prepare and negotiate and to consummate the loan which is to be permitted if this bill passes. I do not believe that any citizen of Pennsylvania can be led to believe that this General Assembly, after eleven months of deliberation, would need more than thirty days to finish up its fiscal business.

Mr. President, the amendment is sound both financially and politically. You are spending the peoples' money. First, you should see to it, as good businessmen and good administrators, that the lowest possible interest rate be attained in any loan that you make in the name of the people. Secondly, you ought not to spend the peoples' money without telling them who is going to pay the bill and how they are going to pay it. Early in this Session the Republicans voted, I would say gleefully, to limit the borrowing power of this Administration by changing the formula and now for expediency purposes they plan to change it back again.

I advised the Republican Senators that, speaking for the Democratic group, we are fully aware of the situation in the schools. We are fully aware of the problems which are presented to the State Administration at this time by the tactics of the Republican Senate and knowing the seriousness of the matter, I requested that this bill go over in order, in order that we could discuss the matter after we have shown to the people and to the interested bankers just where we are going to get the money so that they, in turn, would not be able to gouge the people of this Commonwealth. An unsecured or poorly secured loan, with the collateral which has to depend upon the ability of the Democratic and Republican Senate to get together on a tax program, is in my mind the poorest type of a loan that you could go out and get and with next to nothing as collateral.

Let us look at the financial picture as we find it to be on January 1st, come the year of our Lord 1956. We will require $195,900,000 for all State expenditures, of which $41,600,000 is for the operating expenses of this government, leaving a balance of $154,300,000 which will be required for school purposes. In this amount of money will be the sum of $1,000,000 to repay the loan that you made in June, a loan of $60,000,000 which has to be repaid by May 31st of 1956.

I ask any man in this room who has had any experience as a banker or any experience in the loan market, any experience on a local council or school board or County Commissioners Board or any other public or private agency that has had to borrow money over the years, what kind of interest would you expect when you have not prepared the money or the taxes to repay a loan which you made in June and you are trying to borrow the money to pay the interest on that loan that you made in June. You are paying now 1.55 per cent, which is exactly 1.5 higher than the last loans made under the Fine Administration. You have jeopardized the security of this Commonwealth.

Mr. President, on January the 1st you will be $86,000,000 minus. Yes, there will be some money there because we have $30,000,000 which we can still borrow under the June borrowing power granted to the Administration. I would say that those school districts which find themselves in the sad predicament of being unable to pay for the essential services will have to be given preferential treatment in the matter of appropriations out of the existing funds.

Some say that this is a bad political move on our part. The schoolteacher representatives are all here, and they are going to write home and say that the Democrats voted against giving you your money and your Christmas pay in your Christmas stocking. Maybe that is true, Mr. President, but it is not the wish of this group to do that. Payless pay days are painful things. Some of us who have come up in the ranks have had to go through some payless pay days, and we know how painful it is for a family that depends and exists upon a payroll and a pay check for their mere existence in life to have to face a payless pay day. Allow me to say, to these same schoolteachers who are represented here today, that if you fall for this kind of political trickery, you are only setting the date for the inevitable day when not only the mandated increases which have been set down through the years will be denied you, but any hope of additional increments which are so essential and necessary to raise the standards of our education in this Commonwealth will be absolutely unheard of and absolutely unobtainable. You cannot postpone a bad day by creating a bad debt.

I do not ever pose as a professional soothsayer. I do not attempt to tell the school teachers that everything they want is what I am for. I only say that in twenty years I have tried to maintain the kind of a record which has tried to keep building up the standards of our educational system in this Commonwealth, not only for the undergraduate schools and our grade schools and high schools, but also in our schools of higher learning, universities and colleges. I believe that this is the most short-sighted, the most diabolical scheme that has yet been perpetrated upon the people. You are saying to the people of Pennsylvania, "We are going to borrow money in your name, but we do not have the courage first to vote for taxes."

Mr. President, we are not trying to wedge the Republicans into a tax position, because I am now convinced that Senator Pechan's desire for tax legislation is related to the story they tell of Peter Finley Dunn, who was accused of being against unions and he proudly got up and stated that he was one of the best friends that unions ever had and that no one could ever say that he was against unions. The only thing was that he liked unions the way he liked them. He liked them without contracts, he liked them without bylaws, he liked them without meeting halls, he liked them without dues and he liked them best without members. That is what I am afraid is ending up here in the matter of this tax bill.

Yes, they will vote for a tax bill but it has to be what they like, but we cannot find out what they like. I keep hearing the old refrain that it has to be this, this and this. However, on the other side of the house, which originates the tax bills, their counterparts in the House say that it cannot be that, that that and that; that it will not be what the Republican Senators say it will be; they will not vote for it and they will not vote for any more tax legislation until this Senate has resolved the problem which is before them today. They will not commit themselves to vote one way or the other, according to your spokesman over there in the House, until the Senate finally acts upon the tax bill before it. We are squeezed between the age-old question of which comes first, the hen or the egg. The Republican leaders here said they could not talk or even discuss tax legislation with the Governor until the House sent tax legislation over here to be discussed. They get the bill over here, and now their counterparts in the House say that they cannot discuss any new measures of taxation until the Senate finally resolves the problem before them.

I understand, Mr. President, that there are some false impressions going around about some of the things which may or may not have happened in the Democratic Party today. I do not know who informed the man who informed me. I only have this to say. We are conscious of the fact that this State needs money and we have been that way. We do not want you men to take anything that you do not think is proper. We only say to you now what we said in June and July and August, September, October, November and again in December and probably will say again in January, February, March and April. I understand that one of the spokesmen, who has the authority on the other side, has already said that April will be the date of sine die.

Mr. President, I have said, and I want to repeat it so there is no misunderstanding in the minds of any persons in this great Commonwealth, that we Democrats feel that we have a responsibility. Maybe we are not trained well enough in the means and methods of taxation so that we can come up with a tax bill which will not hurt anybody. Maybe there is some secret formula whereby you can get $464,000,000 in new taxes without taxing anybody.

I understand that the reason the tax bill now is on wavy waters is because we refused to accept two very important amendments which were handled by certain individuals who, although they do not vote on the Senate floor, sometimes think they should. I understand that has been the factor which has upset the apple cart. That is perfectly all right, but I want to say to these same gentlemen, do they believe for one minute that we can pass $450,000,000 worth of taxes to back up this kind of legislation which you are passing over there; do you think that we can pass any kind of legislation which can exempt, and mind you this, all utilities, all manufacturers, all unincorporated bodies, all incorporated bodies, all agricultural interests whatsoever, and they want to exempt, if you please, all services and all professionals? I finally woke up as I got to the last one, and I think they just want to pass a tax which taxes people and nobody else.

Mr. President, they put a sales tax in in the House to meet this bill. It was heralded as a great sales tax. The chairman of the committee told me that eighteen amendments have been handed to him for the Waterhouse bill, exempting everybody in Pennsylvania except the people. The people have no one here for a lobby except a few Democratic Senators and House Members, and their lobby voice is not loud nor influential. No, we will not support any blind loans. We will support a loan to pay for the schoolteachers when we have the money to back it up.

You say we owe them money, Senator Pechan; yes, we do. Who passed the legislation which mandated that we owe this money? Who are the sponsors of this legislation? Yes, I voted for it but I will vote right now, and here again, against any attempt to pass onto the future legislators, whomever they may be, any debts which are not met by taxation. You have no guarantee that you will vote for any bill. You will not stand up and vote for any piece of legislation except that kind of legislation which pleases you.

Mr. Pechan, as a worthy Member of this Senate, it is impossible to please you.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, just to refresh everybody's memory, this was all started by Senate Bill No. 899, to which amendments were offered. That is all I want to talk about at this moment.

I respect the political philosophy of the Minority Leader and he certainly has the complete right, without his sincerity being questioned, to take a different position from what I take on this proposal. It is a little irksome at times to be told that every bill that is a Republican bill is a hoax, is a trick, is a fake, if a fraud and it is intended to deceive.

Mr. President, there are two sponsors to this bill, Senator Stevenson and Senator Wagner. Maybe you had better keep an eye on one of them. However, I think Senator Stevenson's record and his position in this Senate is sufficient to assure people that he would not lend himself or join with Senator Wagner nor any other Senator to pull a trick and go to all this trouble to do it. The Democrats may vote as they please on the amendments, and they may vote as they please on the bill itself. I shall not condemn them nor shall I say they have no right to take their position. Senator Stevenson and I, and the entire Republican side of the Senate, have a feeling that this will be a wonderful assurance to school directors, to schoolteachers. We think it will be a relief to the Governor of Pennsylvania, about whom people are going to feel better, if these school moneys are provided and we think it is going to reflect favorably upon the Legislature. I hope we may now have a roll call and, again, I rise to oppose the amendments.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I think that the gentleman from Schuylkill does not realize what the whole debate is about.

The entire debate, Mr. President, is about the insincerity of the Republican side in trying to pass this bill with the high rate of interest that will be tagged onto it. There is no question of whether we even pass the tax bill in this Senate tomorrow. However, there will be tax anticipation loans floating. There is one question, which is not even a question but a reality, that if we pass this bill without this amendment, the gentlemen on this side are throwing down the drain possibly $2,000,000 of the taxpayers' money.

These men were elected and took an oath of office. In that oath of office, they said that they will abide and protect and serve by the Constitution of this Commonwealth. The Constitution of this State says that the General Assembly shall provide taxes to insure the general welfare and shall provide taxes to keep the schools open. These gentlemen are not fulfilling their oath of office.

I am expendable; they are expendable. No one owns their seat in which they sit here today. They should be men, not mice. They should not be men who are handled by lobbyists, men who buy them dinners and other things which lobbyists do. I have no quarrel with lobbyists as long as they lobby in the usual and rightful way. However, I do have a complaint when certain lobbyists, who infest the halls of this Senate, say that this bill will never pass and who make bets with newspapermen who sit in this gallery. They knew more than the Members of this Senate before they went into the Republican Caucus today. Today probably has been to me, in my sixteen years that I have been here, the most disgraceful day I have ever seen on Capitol Hill. I am expendable and if voting for this amendment and against this bill will retire me to my home in Shadyside, in Pittsburgh, that I want to do.

Mr. President, I, for one, took an oath of office and I intend to keep it. As long as I am here, I will never see the people's money thrown down a rat hole by men who do not have the courage to stand up here and vote for a tax bill to keep this Commonwealth running and pay the debts which were incurred, Mr. President, not by this Administration but by Administrations which were under Republican control during the past sixteen years.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I try very hard to make my points as clear as I can on the ideology of political thinking and the philosophy of the principles of the various party issues. Very frankly, I do not like the twist that is too many times given to the remarks that are made by myself and other speakers to the effect that they cast some personal aspersion against some Member of this Senate. Very frankly, I want to say to this entire body that I had no intention of maligning, in any way, Senator Wagner or Senator Stevenson. I think Senator Wagner probably had better arguments for voting for this amendment than to try to cast upon the remarks I made any insinuation that I would ever, at any time, upon this floor say anything that would in any way tend to destroy the character of a man in this Senate. All of us do the things we do because we are motivated, in most instances, by the honest impulses that comes to us. We cannot all think alike.

I certainly have enjoyed many years of service in this Senate with Senator Stevenson. I do not think that Senator Stevenson had in mind the full import of this bill when he introduced it, nor did Senator Wagner. I think they introduced it because of the fact that they thought that the schoolteachers would receive some kind of a consolation from the fact that we were going to allow the State to borrow money to meet a bill that is owed to them. I do not think that Senator Stevenson believes now that he is part of a plot to keep us here until April. I do not think that Senator Wagner believes that. I do not believe that anybody on the other side will admit to that. However, when you put this day thirty days hence or, rather, when you pass this legislation giving them approximately $110,000,000 more of borrowed money, you can bet all the tea in China that you will not get too much cooperation on meeting the issue of $464,000,000.

I do not particularly look at the sponsorship of any bill. I look at what the bill does; I try to analyze its effects upon the people, upon the economy of the Commonwealth and that is where I base my opposition.

Mr. President, I do not want any more recurrences of this type of twisting a speech on the floor into a personal attack. This is not the first time. Once in awhile I have time and read back, and I note that certain individuals always hide behind that. They get up in rebuttal and always try to read into the remarks made on this side of the Senate some personal attack upon a Member of the Senate. We are not mice. We are supposed to be men.

I said that Senator Pechan liked tax bills like Peter Finley Dunn liked unions and I mean it. I know that he will not vote for any bill because he keeps telling me every day that—in fact, I do not want to expose anything, but I was under the impression that Senator Pechan was going to vote for the bill.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HALUSKA. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.
Mr. LANE. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.
The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HALUSKA and Mr. LANE, and were as follows, viz:

Camiel,	Hays,	Miller,	Silvert,

So the question was determined in the negative.
And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his point of information.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, has Senate Bill No. 899 now passed third reading?

The PRESIDENT. It has not.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 899, Printer's No. 418, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I object to the bill going over in its order.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.
And said bill having been read at length the third time and agreed to,

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, in keeping with a statement that I made on the floor of this Senate when a similar bill was passed on June 29th, I must vote against this bill.

Mr. President, I said at that time that I would not vote for any more bills calling for loans through the tax anticipation note method. On that same day, a number of gentlemen from the other side approached me and, based on the facts that I gave at the time, said that they, too, would not vote for any more bills to borrow money by the tax anticipation note method.

This bill would not be necessary if the gentlemen on the other side were good sports. This bill is introduced and, apparently by their thinking, becomes necessary because they are not good sports. They got a licking last year and just cannot get it through their heads that the people of this State wanted a change here in Harrisburg. Therefore, they have adopted a policy of both rule and ruin. Any legislation that would eliminate a situation that we are in, is always sidetracked or defeated. They have ruined in that our schools are about ready to close. The State is in default in the payment of its subsidies to the hospitals and other institutions. As a matter of fact, Mr. President, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania today is in bankruptcy because its liabilities far exceed its assets.

Mr. President, the last time I checked with the—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, will state his point of order.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I am unable to follow the speaker's discussion. I would request that order be restored so that I can understand the speaker's discussion.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken. The Chair asks the Members, and the visitors, to maintain order during the discussion of this bill.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, the last time I checked with the Treasury Department, we had a $61,000,000 balance in the Treasury. Seventeen million of it was in cash. In other words, we only had $17,000,000 in cash; the balance was in investments. We had about $135,000,000 in past due liabilities. When this bill was originally passed, on June 29th, to borrow money, it was limited to ten per cent of the anticipated taxes of bills that were passed. As I understand from the Treasury Department, taxes passed thus far would bring in $660,000,000. We have already borrowed $60,000,000 and that leaves us with a borrowing capacity of only $6,000,000. Hence the need for this bill.

When the last bill was passed on these tax anticipation notes, the gentlemen on the other side knew that in October there would be due to the fourth class school districts of this State the sum of $43,292,967. The gentlemen on the other side knew that payments to first, second and third class school districts would be due in November, totaling $52,742,895. They knew, Mr. President, that the amount due for transportation of pupils, payable in September, would be $14,171,865. They knew back in June that tuition payments to the school districts would amount to $13,000,000. They also knew, Mr. President, that payments for vocational education would amount to $1,930,143. They knew, Mr. President, that rentals to the State School Building Authority would be $3,314,446. They knew, Mr. President, that the payments to municipality authorities would be $4,747,750.

In reading this bill, I note that it only takes care of the delinquent payments to the school districts. How about the State-aided hospitals? When are they going to be paid? As I understand from the Treasury Department and the Department of Welfare, there is past due and the Commonwealth is in default totaling $7,500,000. When are they going to be paid? They certainly cannot be paid from this $110,000,000 proposed loan. The Department of Health owes the school districts another $3,000,000. How is that going to be paid? It cannot be paid from this bill because this bill specifies exactly what the money is to be used for. That $3,000,000, Mr. President, is owed for the school health program, for the examinations that are given to schoolteachers. It is in default and has been in default.

How about the $15,000,000, Mr. President, which is due the State Teachers and State Employees Retirement Funds? How about the salaries of the State employees and other obligations?

The gentlemen on the other side knew all this away back in June and, yet, when a tax program was presented here, it was rejected. Now there is another tax program here and they are dillydallying with it to the extent where we are not sure of where we are going, and we are not sure of the fact that any money from taxes is going to come into the State Treasury. Instead, Mr. President, they are running to the Wall Street bankers, as they have done over a period of years, and at high rates of interest they are borrowing the money to finance the obligations of the Commonwealth. Thus far, since 1936, we have paid the Wall Street bankers interest on tax anticipation notes totaling $7,537,000. As I understand it from the Treasury Department, the interest on this loan, because of the poor financial condition of the Commonwealth, may be double the interest that was charged for the $60,000,000 loan made in June.

Mr. President, this is not going to solve our problem. We will have to go back to the Wall Street bankers again unless a tax program is passed and is passed soon. According to a statement that I have here, as pointed out by Senator Dent, on January 1st our anticipated expenditures will be $195,900,000. Only $41,600,000 will come into the State Treasury in taxes enacted thus far. We will have to pay back the first million on the $60,000,000 loan and, therefore, we will be short on January 1st, even though we borrow this money, $86,500,000.

Then on February 1st, Mr. President, we anticipate to spend $60,600,000 and we will take in $39,600,000; another million dollar payment on the $60,000,000. We will be $108,500,000 short. Then on the first of March, the anticipated expenditures will be $82,800,000. We will take in $96,500,000. We have to pay $8,000,000 during that month on the $60,000,000 loan. We will be minus $102,800,000. On April 1st, Mr. President, the anticipated expenditures will total $84,700,000 and the anticipated revenues will be $86,900,000. We will be minus $135,000,000. On May 31st, the end of the first fiscal year of the current biennium, we anticipate taking in $54,900,000 and spend $58,300,000, and we will have to pay $25,000,000 on the $60,000,000 loan. We will be minus another $154,000,000. What is this going to solve? It is going to solve nothing. There is only one way that we can solve the problems of the Commonwealth, and that is by the passage of tax legislation which will insure a steady flow of money into the State Treasury.

I said when the other tax anticipation note bill was passed that we should study the due dates of taxes which are enacted. I complained during the last Session about tax anticipation notes and suggested that we study the due dates of the various taxes. I introduced a resolution to that effect on August the 5th, and the resolution is still in committee.

I understand from official of the Treasury Department, and they so testified here at the public hearings on the budget, that if the due date on the corporate taxes were changed so that payments would be made at least on a quarterly basis, we would have a steady flow of money coming into the State Treasury and, as a result, we would eliminate the necessity of running to the Wall Street bankers.

Mr. President, I agree with Senator Barr that since this sort of financing can be eliminated, I refuse to vote for this bill or any other bills which will require this great Commonwealth to run to Wall Street to borrow money to finance our obligations.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, it is very interesting to study the early history of the medical profession in the days when science was not as far along as it is today. If you would study it, you would find that the chief method of treating almost any disease in those early days was by bleeding. Scientific evidence has disclosed that more people died probably from the treatment they received, by bleeding, than recovered and we have now substituted much more sane cures.

The reason I mention this fact is because I am convinced that the good doctors, upon whom I do not wish to reflect, have chosen this outmoded technique to cure the present ailments of the Commonwealth. This bill is a bleeding bill. It is a bill which would follow the same principles that those medieval doctors, pre-scientific, had in mind when they inflicted bleeding upon the patient.

Mr. President, what will bleeding do? It will draw off the pressure, first of all, and that is one thing that these doctors thought was a good thing. When you bled the patient, you drew off the pressure, the bad blood which was forming a pressure upon the injured person. Actually, of course, the effect of bleeding upon those patients was to leave them weaker than they were before that remedy was imposed. That is exactly what this bill will do, too, because this bill will require the raising of additional money to take care of the interest on this borrowing which is proposed.

I say, let us discuss this matter not according to the medieval practices of the old doctors, but let us discuss it sanely and scientifically. We do have an ailment and there is no question about it. The Commonwealth lacks money; it lacks money to carry on its schools; it lacks money to furnish money to its hospitals, to its institutions and this is a serious ailment. This ailment becomes more critical as the time approaches when these loans must be paid. We do face the problem of closing schools, but let us not meet it by a remedy which will weaken the patient and which, if continued until next April or perhaps the April after that, may kill the patient. Let us, instead, use the remedy which is indicated by good scientific practice. Of course, that remedy is very clear and that is to get down to the business of passing the necessary taxes to take care of the Commonwealth's needs.

Mr. President, I think a bit of sophistry is being practiced here on the people of Pennsylvania, particularly those who are interested in the welfare of the schools. I think it is a well known axiom, and one in which every Member of this Senate would agree, that you cannot get something for nothing.

Mr. President, the appearance is being made here that by passing this piece of legislation, the problem will somehow be solved and we can all go back to the friendly type of bickering and reading of newspapers while other Members are speaking which are so typical sometimes of the practices of this house. This will not happen, however. This bill, as Senator Yosko said, will solve not one thing. As a matter of fact, as I have indicated, it will only get us deeper into debt and will require the raising ultimately of more money.

I submit that this bill is just pure bad business. It is the kind of business for which any responsible corporation employee who would recommend it would be fired. It is the kind of business that in our local government any County Commissioner, or any member of city council, who recommended this kind of financing would be rebuked by the people at the next election. We have some Senators here who are members of county commissions. We have two of them, and both of them I think are fine commissioners, and I would like to ask them, would they in their counties like to recommend this type of a financing plan? I am sure they would not, because I know something about the financial situation, I know something about the borrowing rate in these counties that I am talking about, and I know that they have a good reputation and are soundly financed and they would reject this plan. Why should we, on a State level, take up a type of financing which would be rejected down on the local level and which men who may vote for this bill would certainly hesitate and fear to impose on the people of a local district?

Senator Yosko presented us some hard facts and I wanted to listen to them and I hope everybody did. They are the kind of things which are unpleasant to face up to, because they represent the use of arithmetic which is not quite as easy to twist around as is a speech on the floor of this Senate. I listened to his remarks and I attended them pretty carefully, and I came to one conclusion. As I see it, and I will allow the Senator to check on my estimates here, but I have estimated and as I understand it, this bill would cost us, in interest, about a million and one-half dollars. I think it is pretty safe to say that the delays which have been caused by our failure to enact a tax program would cost us another million, in borrowing what we already have, in order to keep going. That amounts, if my arithmetic is correct, to about $2,500,000, none of which would have been necessary had we been able to pass a tax program according to schedule.

Mr. President, some comment has been given to the fact that the purpose of this bill was to appeal to the teachers. I am not going to say that. I do not suspect either one of these Senators of making such a crass type of appeal, and I do not think that is true. However, for those who are interested I would say this, that I know something about the policy of the schoolteachers' organization, the P.S.E.A., and I think I am correct in saying that they are on record as being in favor of, and willing to support, any broad base tax which will solve the needs of the Commonwealth as far as the adequate financing of schools is concerned.

Mr. President, we have already presented to this Senate two such board base taxes. The gentleman from Armstrong who spoke recently and made a personal reference to me, which I hope he will excuse my referring to him, has as I understand in the newspapers had quite a torturous time with this latest tax program. In the beginning, I believe he was quoted as saying he was for it. Then without any changes in the bill, I believe he said that he was against it. Then later I heard that he was for it, or at least he was going to vote for it. Again I heard, or read in the newspaper, that he said, "No," he is against it. I would like to tell him this, that I doubt very much that the people who want good schools in this Commonwealth, and whom he is so concerned about, are going to care very much for the rationalistic process he went through on these bills. What they are interested in is getting a tax program, a broad base type of tax program, which will finance the needs of the Commonwealth.

I do not think there is any purpose in trying to fool the schoolteachers or any other persons who are interested in good education in this Commonwealth. They would like to see all of us, gentlemen, pass a tax program which would make good schools possible. There is no use trying to put in any sort of subterfuges to try to fool them because I think they are intelligent enough to follow it.

Here is my point which I started to make earlier with that little digression. If it is true that fooling around with the type of processes that the gentleman from Armstrong apparently went through over two tax bills will cost this Commonwealth, if this bill passes, $2,500,000, and if it is due to the intellectual processes, the rationalizations of twenty-six Senators, gentlemen, if you figure this out per Senator it comes to a per capita cost to the Commonwealth of $100,000.

Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I love all of you. I think you are a credit to this Senate, to your community, but, gentlemen, at $100,000 you come high. You are almost in the luxury category. In fact, you may continue this to the point that other people will join me in that opinion. I would ask you to face this problem squarely. Let us not engage in subterfuges here which are going to cost us additional money, but let us meet the problem and solve the problem by passing a tax program, two of which have been offered. We can go on offering them indefinitely, but the fact remains that sooner or later you are going to have to vote for one and, meanwhile, you are costing the Commonwealth money; you are imperiling the schools. The suggestions that you make now to relieve the situation will not solve the problem and, furthermore, will cost us $1,500,000 which by itself is $60,000 per Senator.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

INTERROGATION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Mahany, I have a Member of the Senate who is in the hospital with a very serious eye ailment. I would like to know from you, if you can tell me, whether or not there is going to be a decisive vote on the tax legislation tomorrow in order that I may try to make arrangements to have this Member present on the floor, since I understand that is the dictate. If we are going to vote for the bill tomorrow, I will try to arrange to have him down here tomorrow by ambulance.

Mr. MAHANY. As far as I know, Senator, we expect to vote on the tax bill tomorrow.

Mr. DENT. I do not like that "as far as I know." Will you tell us if it is on the agenda for tomorrow or is it not on the agenda?

Mr. MAHANY. You asked me my opinion as to whether or not we were going to vote on the bill and, as I am saying, as far as I know we are.

Mr. DENT. Would it be all right if we call it up tomorrow for a vote, if I get this man down here out of the hospital?

Mr. MAHANY. You will not need to call it up, Senator. I am telling you that it probably will be voted on tomorrow.

Mr. DENT. Will you give me an approximate time so that he does not have to spend too much time out of the hospital?

Mr. MAHANY. If you will tell me how long you expect to talk, I will be able to figure out how long the session will last. Will you give me an approximate time as to how long you are going to talk on it?

Mr. DENT. I will talk as long as it is necessary to make the necessary points which are important to the legislation, which might require ten minutes, or fifteen and gain it might take a couple hours. You tell me when you are going to hold the Session and I will do my best to tail it in.

Mr. MAHANY. About eleven o'clock tomorrow night, Senator.

Mr. DENT. You are going to have the vote at eleven o'clock tomorrow night, thank you.

Mr. MAHANY. It will depend on your speech. You evidently are inferring that you are going to talk a long while, and I figured that I would give a little leeway there and make it eleven o'clock.

Mr. DENT. That is all I wanted to know. If it will be eleven o'clock, I will have my man here at eleven o'clock. Thank you.

Mr. MAHANY. You know I cannot tell you exactly when the vote will be taken. You will not tell me how much debate you are going to have, so how in the world would anybody be able to tell you exactly what time this bill will be voted on?

Mr. DENT. If you make it a Special Order of Business, Senator, and I would be glad to go along with you on that basis, you can call for it at that time and that will shut me up very nicely.

Mr. MAHANY. Making it a Special Order of Business, Senator, only makes it the order of business at the time we call bill up and it does not set a special time for having a vote on the bill.

Mr. DENT. You can depend upon me giving consideration to this man.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, we expect to go into Session tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock p. m. I cannot go beyond that, and sometime during the afternoon we expect to reach this bill and we will vote on it.

Mr. DENT. I will try to get the gentleman down here tomorrow and if he is not here, I promise to talk until he gets here.

PRAYER

The Reverend Bradley T. Gaver, Pastor of First English Lutheran Church, Columbia, guest Chaplain, offered the following prayer:

O God, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, God of the nations, and Lord of the whole earth, do Thou of Thine infinite goodness direct the hearts of all who beareth authority. Help them with the power of Thine Holy Spirit to make laws in accordance with Thy will, and for the advancement of righteousness among Thy people. Protect them from the snares of the enemy and the deceits of the world; let no pride of power betray them into rejection of Thy commandments; and grant that all our executives and officials and our whole people may with one mind serve Thee. Grant us vision so that our Commonwealth may be a place of justice where none shall prey on others; a place of plenty, where vice and poverty shall cease to fester; a place of brotherhood where all success shall be founded on service, and honor shall be given to Thee alone; a place of peace where order shall not rest on force but on the love of all its inhabitants. Hear Thou, O Lord, the silent prayer of all our hearts as we pledge our time and strength and thought to speed the day when Thy will shall be done and Thine kingdom come upon this earth. In Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. FRANK and BONNER.

RESOLUTION No. 137.

In the House of Representatives, December 12, 1955.

The Post Office Department of the United States proposes to transfer the hauling of the mails from the Jersey Central Lines to highway trucks.

This action will seriously affect the jobs and family life of railroad employees resident in Pennsylvania and the economies of the localities in which they live.

The transportation of the mails over public highways will enhance highway congestion, decrease highway safety and materially add to the burden of maintaining and repairing public highways; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States, Hon. Olin D. Johnston, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, and

Postmaster General Summerfield to refrain from taking any action at this time on a proposal which is already aggravated by the current transit situation and request that they withhold any action or determination on this proposed transfer of work at least until the New Jersey State Transit Commission has completed its study in reference thereto; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States, as well as to Hon. Olin D. Johnston, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, and Postmaster General Summerfield.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. MULDOWNEY, McKEEVER, FRASCELLA and McCORMACK. RESOLUTION (Not Printed)

In the House of Representatives, December 13, 1955.

LaSalle High School brought its greatest football season to a climax by winning the Philadelphia schoolboy championship and the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin Cup on Saturday, December 10, 1955, on its first try in the annual inter-league classic on Franklin Field, Philadelphia.

The Little Explorers, winners of the Catholic League title for the first time in 35 years, parlayed an impregnable defense with an amazing ground attack to roll over Northeast High School, winners of the Public League, 26-0, in the 18th annual city title playoff before 20,000 shivering fans.

In racking up its well-deserved victory, LaSalle completely outplayed its Public League rivals and finished a perfect season with a string of ten straight victories. Moreover, the Little Explorers lived up to their reputation as a defensive team by blanking Northeast High School, thus making it eight straight games in which its opposition failed to score. It was the first setback for Northeast after eight wins in succession.

The victory was a well-deserved reward for Jim Gallagher, who completes his fourth season as head coach, and the entire football team and student body of LaSalle. It takes good coaching and talented, hardworking players, plus the full support of the student body to make a champion; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania extends its sincerest congratulations and commendations to the LaSalle High School, the football team and its head coach, Jim Gallagher, and the student body for their great record on the gridiron and on the attainment of a much prized championship; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the LaSalle High School at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and to Jim Gallagher, its football coach.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. THOMPSON, HAUDENSHIELD, EWING, GOLDSTEIN, GIBB, AGNEW, WILT, VAUGHAN, RIGBY, DONALDSON, COOPER, FILO, BOIES, KAMYK, MATT S. ANDERSON, McLAUGHLIN, SCHUSTER, LEONARD, LUTTY, SARRAF, MIHM, OLSEN, WALSH, JENKINS, THOMAS, MORAN, VERONA, and JOHN J. MURRAY.

RESOLUTION (Not Printed).

In the House of Representatives, December 12, 1955.

One of baseball's greatest figures for more than half a century has passed on. John Peter (Honus) Wagner, idol of Pittsburgh fans and a prime favorite elsewhere, died in his sleep at his home in nearby Carnegie, Pennsylvania at the age of 81. At his bedside was his wife, Bessie Wagner.

Despite the fact that several great players played shortstop, Wagner was the greatest of them all. As a fielder, hitter and base-stealer, the Flying Dutchman, as Pittsburgh fans called Honus, was the best of all. Many old timers considered him the most outstanding player of all time.

During his spectacular career, Wagner stole 720 bases, paced the National League in extra base hits seven years, led in triples five years and was first in doubles eight seasons. He played in 2,785 games, posted a .329 life-time batting average, made 4,320 putouts and 5,664 assists. He had only 612 errors for a .943 fielding average during his 21 year major league career. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1934 in the first group.

No player covered a greater space of ground than the Flying Dutchman. He "killed" what seemingly were hits over second with an ease that made the plays look ordinary. Yet to any other shortstop they would have been most difficult to field. He filled in when occasions required in other infield positions. Wagner was a modest player. All baseball honors accredited to him were accepted with a rather offhand acknowledgment.

The death of Wagner was mourned throughout the baseball world and has brought forth many expressions of sorrow and sympathy from its leaders; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives joins with the baseball world in expressing its deepest sorrow and sympathy in the loss of Honus Wagner, a great competitor, an outstanding credit to the game and to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and a great inspiration to the American youth, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of the resolution be transmitted to his wife, Bessie Wagner.

RESOLUTION

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Mr. STANK asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 13, 1955.

Resolved, That Tuesday, the 13th day of December, 1955, at o'clock, be set apart by this House of Representatives, for addresses and resolutions on the lives, character and public services of our deceased Members as provided in a resolution previously adopted by this House.

The SPEAKER. This being the time fixed by the resolution unanimously adopted to pay tribute to the memory of our deceased dMembers, the regular business of the House will now be suspended.

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. It is our privilege to meet today in a lodge of remembrance. Memory is the ivy that cloaks the ruins of the strong human towers that have fallen. Time furnishes the verdure that mantles the scars that time itself has caused.

The passing of those who have served us as the strong pillars of our existence confronts us with its period of blinding grief. We cry aloud, but there is no answer from across the vale.

As time passes, the pain of grief because of those who have departed is eased by the cures that memory contrives. We find that tears have washed away the bitterness of our grieving hours.

Robert G. Ingersoll, standing beside his brother's grave, delivered an oration that has become a classic for all time. In that oration there was a deathless sentence. Speaking of the despair that attends the departure of those we cherish or esteem, Ingersoll said that: "In the midst of that black night hope sees a star and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing." As we meet today in this memorial service, the rustle that we hear is the laughter that lives in memory, the comradeship that abides, the fellowship that is born among those who till a common field.

As we meet today we know there are those among us who will not pass this way again, and so it is fitting that we turn back the pages of the Legislative Journal and for the hour, those to whose memory this service is dedicated, once again, in the mirror of our minds, occupy their familiar seats. They join with us in the promotion of the causes we must needs serve. Our mission is the creation and perpetuation of a human welfare state and that too was the cause served by those we today commemorate.

Those to whom we today pay tribute, in their day paid tribute to those who had gone before them. The hour will come when Members of this House will pay their tribute to us, and let us hope that we, in our time, can maintain the traditions of service that have been established for us.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Stank, Chairman of the Select Memorial Committee, to preside.

Mr. STANK IN THE CHAIR.

The CHAIRMAN. Prayer will be offered by the Reverend George E. Whetstone, secretary for Inner Missions of the Central Pennsylvania Synod, United Lutheran Church in America, Harrisburg, Pa.

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by Reverend George E. Whetstone, as follows:

Almighty God, Who by the death of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, hast destroyed death, and, by His rest in the tomb, hast sanctified the graves of Thy saints, and by His glorious resurrection, hast brought life and immortality to light, so that all who die in Him abide in peace and hope; Receive, we beseech Thee, our thanks for the victory over death and the grave which He hath obtained for us and for all who sleep in Him.

Our Heavenly Father, we thank thee for all those whom we have known and loved and walked with in days gone by. We thank Thee for these lives that have been lived in service to Thee and to their country. We remember Thy servants Albert L. Pfaff, Ivan C. Watkins, George C. Shoemaker, Miles W. Lederer and Henry C. Spencer. Multiply we beseech Thee, to these who rest in Thee, the manifold blessings of Thy love. Help us to understand that we still walk with them although they are out of sight. They are not out of our mind nor out of our hearts and the mystic tie of love still binds us together. "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love" here and over there.

In the name of Jesus Christ, grant that Thou wilt have compassion on those who mourn their passing. Bless their families and all their loved ones. Throw Thine everlasting arms of love and mercy around them, and for this comfort and assurance we give Thee our most gracious thanks. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The CHAIRMAN. We do not meet today to mourn but rather to honor the memory of our departed colleagues who by years of devoted public service merit and deserve the tribute we are here to pay them.

The Chief Clerk will call the roll of our deceased Members and the Secretary of the House will respond.

The Roll was called as follows:

The CHIEF CLERK (Benjamin L. Long). Honorable Albert L. Pfaff, County of Philadelphia.

The SECRETARY (Paul C. Moomaw). Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Ivan C. Watkins, County of Schuylkill.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable George C. Shoemaker, County of Schuylkill.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Miles W. Lederer, County of Philadelphia.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Henry C. Spencer, County of Lackawanna.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, the Majority Leader.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, it is eminently fitting that we pause for a few moments today to pay our reverent respect to our departed colleagues.

Some of us were privileged to know them well and for a long time, others perhaps only slightly, but to the extent that we knew them I am sure that through our experience here in Harrisburg our lives have been enriched.

We may have differed in our economic philosophies and our political philosophies, at times we may have had heated debates with each other and with them, but through it all I know we respected them very highly. and I know they respected us for our sincerity, honesty and character.

It is never pleasant to contemplate the days gone by when we knew these men, lived with them, worked with them and now realize that they are no longer with us. But that is life, it has always been that way and it always will be that way.

So, I am happy to be able to voice for the majority the respect and reverence we had for these men.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Charles C. Smith, the Minority Leader.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, we approach this occasion with mixed feelings.

We are glad that we here today can pay honor to those of our friends and our comrades who are no longer with us, but who have gone to meet their Maker. We are sad in honoring them because it brings back many of the pleasant memories and associations we have had with our departed friends.

As the Majority Leader has just said, when we hear the roll called and answered "Absent," some of us seem to forget some of our friends who have gone in the past, but it brings them back, we visualize what they looked like and what friends they were. Whether they were of the opposite party or not, they were men among men and that is the way they treated us.

We Members of the House are the inheritors and protectors of a great tradition of integrity, of justice and of fair dealing. We speak for the people who sent us here and who count on us to do those things which will best advance their welfare and give them the law's protection.

We who serve here also owe a debt to those who are no longer with us to so conduct ourselves, and our proceedings that we will not only bring honor to ourselves and this House, but also honor on those whose memories we are paying tribute here today. They are no longer here to protect and enhance the great traditions of this body, but we are, and I think that we should keep that in mind at all times. They are no longer here to serve the people of this great Commonwealth, but we are.

Let us therefore make a pledge to ourselves and to those who have preceded us through the years that in all matters we will conduct ourselves and do our duty in such a way that we will not only reserve what we are commemorating today, but will pass unsullied this great tradition to those who will come after us.

Let us make democracy work, as they did, for the benefit of all the people and not just for special groups or interests. Let us put out of our minds the selfish thought of what this or that will do for me. Let us instead always think and act for the general welfare of all of the people, so that when the roll is called and they answer "Absent" to our names, let us hope, as the Speaker said, that these people and we go down in the memories of our friends as great men, honest and true friends.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Limper.

The late Honorable Albert L. Pfaff was born in Free-land, Pennsylvania on the twenty-second day of October, 1885 and passed away November 4, 1953.

He was married to the former Jane O'Neill and of this union were born three children.

The City Comptroller's Office used his loyal and valuable services for many years as an auditor. He was active in political affairs for more than twenty-five years.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. KNECHT, BREISCH, KLINE and KEHLER offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 13, 1955.

After an extensive illness death came to the Honorable Ivan C. Watkins, prominent business man and former member of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Watkins was one of the most popular members of the General Assembly. His carefree attitude coupled with his ability to make and keep friends will long be a cherished memory of his fellowmembers. He loved to make people happy and through this medium was able to coordinate complete harmony in all of his undertaking. The members who served and enjoyed being members of the State Government Committee of which he was Chairman bear testimony to this fact. As often stated by his fellow Committee members a meeting with Ivan was a pleasure and not just a duty.

He loved his work in the Legislature, the welfare of the State was always his primary interest. This was exemplified in his last session when on numerous occasions when gravely ill he made his appearance in the hall of the Legislature to cast a vote on important legislation. His illness was aggravated by this interest and it can be truly said he gave his life for the people.

Besides his valued work as a statesman he was a man of great generosity and his charitable work in his home community and in Harrisburg made him loved by all. The fact that he was elected as a member of the General Assembly from Schuylkill County from 1936 to 1952 gave evidence of the high esteem in which he was held in this home community. The officers of this Assembly well recognized his ability by appointing him Chairman of the important State Government Committee from 1945 to 1952.

Mr. Watkins was born at Tower City on November 13, 1892, attended Tower City High School and extended his education in business, law and literature through home study.

He served as an officer in many corporations dealing in tobacco and confections, gasoline and oil products and automobiles.

He attained the rank of first sergeant during World War I and was a member of the American Legion, Forty and Eight, Elks, Moose, Knights of Pthias, National Association of Tobacco Distributors, National Confectionery Association, and the Pennsylvania Society.

His death is a great loss to his widow, the former Florence L. Lewis, to the Commonwealth and to his community; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extend its heartfelt sympathy to Florence L. Watkins, widow of the late Mr. Watkins; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Florence L. Watkins at her home, Tower City, Pennsylvania.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. BREISCH, KNECHT, KLINE and KEHLER offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 13, 1955.

On September 15, 1953, the Honorable George C. Shoemaker of Ashland, passed away.

Mr. Shoemaker was born on September 23, 1901, and although he had been in ill health for sometime, his interest in the government of Pennsylvania and responsibility to his constituents in Schuylkill County was the primary motive of his life until his death.

He was an ardent sportsman and his interest of the sportsmen of Pennsylvania will long be remembered because of the interest he took as a member of the Game Committee and the various game and fish laws which he sponsored as a member of this Assembly. For many years he served as President of the Pitman Fish and Game Association, one of the largest sportsmen's organizations in Schuylkill County.

His love for children was a prominent part of his life. His work with and for them was one of his most cherished. He was never more happy than when he was able to lend a helping hand to some youngster who through no fault of his own needed just this. His greatest satisfaction and remuneration was the smile of a youngster he had helped. At the time of his death he was Chairman of District 7 of the Executive Committee of the Boy Scouts of America.

Mr. Shoemaker was married to the former Jane Benson of Summit Hill and was engaged in the automobile business. He was a member of the Masons, B.P.O.E., Rotary International and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Ashland State Hospital.

He was first elected to the House of Representatives in 1944 and served five successive terms. During that time he endeared himself to all of the members of this Assembly. He will long be remembered as a fine, upright and civic minded citizen who gave of himself to his fellowman, to his State and to God; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extend its sincere sympathy to the widow of the late Honorable George C. Shoemaker, in the loss of her beloved husband; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Jane Shoemaker, Ashland, Pennsylvania, by the clerk of the House of Representatives.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kolankiewicz.

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. KOLANKIEWICZ, TAYLOR, LEVEN, TOLL, Mrs. MONROE, Mrs. VARALLO, Mrs. PASHLEY. Messrs. MULDOWNEY, WILBUR H. HAMILTON, CHARLES C. SMITH, SIGMAN, RUBIN, POMEROY, LIMPER, CIANFRANI, McKEEVER, PETTIGREW and SCARCELLI offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 13, 1955.

The late Honorable Miles W. Lederer was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on December 30, 1897 and died December 25, 1953.

He attended Northeast High School and Business College and was employed as an auditor investigator in the Auditor General's Department for twelve years.

Overseas service with the Armed Forces of the United States was followed by active service in social, fraternal, political and civic organizations. He was leader of the Eighteenth Ward Democratic Executive Committee, and a member of the American Legion, Elm Bree Post 88, Shackmaxon Civic Association and Penn Treaty Parent-Teachers Association. He also served as Secretary of the Police Pension Fund.

In 1948 Mr. Lederer was elected to the House of Representatives and served for three successive terms. His legislative record was one of honorable service highlighted by honest devotion to duty and careful consideration of all proposed legislation.

Philadelphia can justly be proud of Mr. Lederer's personal achievements and his death is a great loss to the House of Representatives, his community and to his family; therefore be it

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be re-committed to the Committee on State Government for the purpose of further study.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 68, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April twelve one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 90) entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors alcohol and malt and brewed beverages amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto regulating and restricting the manufacture purchase sale possession consumption importation transportation furnishing holding in bond holding in storage traffic in and use of alcoholic liquores and malt and brewed beverages and the persons engaged or employed therein defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships for the abatement of certain nuisances and in certain cases for search and seizure without warrant prescribing penalties and forfeitures providing for local option and repealing existing laws" authorizing the transfer of certain retail licenses to clubs defining the effect of such transfers upon quota limitations.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STROUP. Mr. Speaker, I should like to call the attention of the Members of the House to Section 1 of the amended bill, that is under Section 461, page 3, line 11 to 13 inclusive. In an attempt to restate the bill, following the word "club" we find this language: "Where such license has not been transferred to the club from a restaurant or a retail dispenser."

Now previously our courts had interpreted clubs as being counted in the quota after the last retail license had been granted. For a good many years there was considerable discussion and disagreement by our courts as to whether or not clubs should be counted in the quota. By reason of punctuation and interpretation we now have our appellate court's decision.

If you modify the word "clubs" in the position in which we find it in this act, you are apparently inferring that only a club which has received a license from a former retail license, in other words a transferred club license, is excluded from the counting of the quota.

I doubt if that is the intention of the sponsors of this bill. For that reason I would like to ask the Majority Leader to have this bill held until there can be a further study made of the inference that our courts could possibly get from that language.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the final passage postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

ADMONITION BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair would remind visitors that it is in the province of this House to rule that all visitors retire to the gallery. No part of this House is privileged to be a private conversation corridor.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LIGHT. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I discussed my opposition to this bill at some length several days ago, and I do not propose to take much time in the debate of this bill any further.

However, let me say to the Members of this House, that the Milk Control Law has been in operation since 1937. I was here when the Milk Control Law was passed and there was considerable opposition. John A. Smith from Cumberland County was the sponsor of the Milk Control law, and to this very day he has been supporting it. Not so many months ago he had an article in the Pennsylvania Farmer, expressing the hope that nothing would be done to change the policy that is expressed by the Milk Control Board.

I will say to the Members of the House today that I think it is a great mistake to meddle with this control.

We have several bills in the House now that are resting in committee that would abolish the Milk Control Board. But I want to say to the Members of the House that it would be a grave mistake to abolish the Milk Control Board now or even to amend it, for the reason that several features of the Milk Control Law have been tried and tested in the courts, and the Milk Control Board is in a position to make rules and regulations that are satisfactory in a large measure to the producer, the dealer and the consumer.

We must never forget that the basic principle in the Milk Control Law is to serve good milk to the consumer. There is a grave question whether you can do that with a policy that would be enforced after you have changed the Milk Control regulation by increasing the fees to the dealers. If the dealers cannot get the milk in Pennsylvania under the prices they can afford to pay, they can get milk outside of the state that will not be satisfactory to the Board, will not be satisfactory to the consumer and will be harmful.

I pointed out several days ago that the appropriation to the Milk Control Board by the Commonwealth from 1937 to 1953 inclusive has been $3,279,000, and the amount of money collected by fees and fines paid through the dealers in that same time is $2,693,000. Several years ago we made an amendment to the Milk Control Board by charging the dealers more license fees and in 1953 and '55 the amount of money that was paid by the dealers on fees and fines was $432,671 as against $257,000 for the previous biennium.

I am submitting to this House that the Milk Control Board has sufficient money under the present payment of license fees, together with the appropriation from the Commonwealth, which is paid in lieu of the interest consumer has in the Milk Control Law. Were that not so the license fees that are paid by the dealers, who represents the producer and the consumer—were it not for the fact that the Commonwealth paid this amount in lieu of the consumer, the producer and the dealer would have to pay the entire amount for operating the Milk Control Board.

Members of the House, that is the very purpose of this bill, to eliminate the appropriation by the Commonwealth and put the whole burden on the producer and on the dealer. The dealer certainly will pay the increased price if it is extracted from him, he has said he will, but in the final analysis the producer will have to pay the amount because he is the one who will finally pay the increased fees that will be charged by the dealer.

So I want to again sum up, as I did the other day, that the Commission has had sufficient money to operate. In the second place, the proposed schedule in House Bill 592, with the additional money that will come in will be more than will be needed by the Milk Control Board. And in the third place, is it a good thing for the Milk Control Board to become self-sufficient and to get beyond the reach of the Legislature? Will it give them the power to do just as they please without ever being asked to come back to the Legislature under the conditions in which we are operating the Milk Control Board? I submit to you it is bad policy to do that.

Members of the House, I hope you will do what you did the other day and vote against the passage of this bill, because it would be bad legislation for the consumer, the producer and the dealer.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 10 Repeals The act of June 30, 1947 (P. L. 1161) is repealed

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are repealed

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was originally defeated there was an extended debate on the merits and the demerits of same. However I would like to read from some of the statements I made on that occasion, not in their entirety but in part.

On that occasion I said,

Mr. Speaker, this bill is intended primarily to repeal the Act of 1947, P. L. 1161, which is designed as an Act to adjust disputes between public utility employers and employees. I believe the Members of this House on both sides would be interested in the historical background leading to the passage of this legislation.

We in the city of Pittsburgh, in 1946 were confronted by a strike, and I will say frankly a strike which I believe responsible labor leaders were against. As a result of that strike, which was the Duquesne Light Company strike, the city of Pittsburgh almost faced disaster.

I have before me a photographic copy of the bill in equity which was filed by the then City Solicitor, Anne X. Alpern, on behalf of the Mayor of the city of Pittsburgh, and among the averments were these. The city of Pittsburgh said, the strike will endanger the lives, health, safety and well being of our citizens. It will cause great danger through lack of water for the fire fighting system. It will cause a spread of disease through lack of water for sanitation purposes. It will cut off the supply and distribution of food because of the necessity of closing of stores and the interference of transportation facilities.

The city administration of Pittsburgh in 1946, realized that it had to resort to the courts in order to save the peoples' interests." The passage of this legislation will defeat the purposes of that bill in equity.

I will pass over some of the other details and I will say today as I said then:

We have on the statute books today the Act of 1947 which regulates and prohibits strikes. It sets forth a detailed method whereby these strikes can be prevented and the final power in many instances is the Governor of the state of Pennsylvania. From the decision of the Board named by him there is an appeal to the Supreme Court of this state."

I also pose this question again, do not labor and management have confidence in the Governor of Pennsylvania? We say there should be no contest between management and labor where the public right is involved. The public safety and the public interests are superior, in fact they are supreme where we have a utility strike in water, gas or light companies.

I say because of that reason this bill should be defeated.

I also wish to make this particular closing statement. The real issue in this case is, are we going to permit a cessation of a water company or light company or a power company where there is no alternative method of furnishing these items for the people. In the case of a railroad or a railway there is an alternative method. I say that the public interest and the interest of responsible labor leadership demand that this particular bill be defeated, because legislation of this character is not taking away the economic weapon to which labor is entitled, it is merely making labor responsible.

In closing I would like to call the attention of Members on both sides of the House, that last week the city of Pittsburgh was discussing the budget. One of the leaders of a particular organization representing the filtration plant workers did not say directly, but intimated that it might be necessary to cease work if their demands were not met.

We also have an Act of 1947 prohibiting strikes by public employes. If this Act is passed, then the next step will be an Act to allow public employes to strike also.

Public utilities are regulated as to rates. When a man accepts employment in a business of this character he should be subject to a reasonable method and the reasonable method is set forth in the Act of 1947. I repeat, is labor afraid Governor Leader will not give them a square deal if they name a board in accordance with the Act of 1947, which would be abolished if this bill were passed?

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, when this was debated the last time, I pointed out that acts of this kind throughout the country have been declared unconstitutional. As a matter of fact, in 1951 when I debated the question involving the refusal of the right to strike to persons connected with transportation, which was defeated in the House, at that time the Supreme Court decided a case involving a similar statute in the state of Michigan and that statute was declared unconstitutional.

Representative Welsh and I introduced a bill in this session to repeal explicitly the Act of 1947. However, the labor groups introduced this bill 1768, which is milder in form than the one which Mr. Welsh and I introduced and does not repeal it in an outright manner, but contains a number of provisions which protect the public, which protect labor, which protect management and which protect the entire Commonwealth.

The question should not be presented in the manner in which my learned colleague from Pittsburgh presents it, whether we are afraid of Governor Leader or whether we are afraid of any executive.

I think the people connected with labor organizations have sufficient responsibility to the people of the Commonwealth to depend upon them. I think the Members of this House can show their confidence and their faith in members of labor organizations and trade unions. They know the people connected with such organizations are not going to needlessly expose our citizens to unusual conditions by reason of a possible strike.

As a matter of fact 1768 does exactly what my colleague wants it to do, it provides for mediation, it provides for conciliation, it does the very things that are necessary in order to avoid a strike.

It is a bill which every labor organization supports as a step in the right direction, and I hope all of you will support this bill.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if Mr. Toll would be interrogated just briefly.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Toll, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TOLL. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Is it not true, Mr. Speaker, that this bill only provides for voluntary arbitration and after the cooling-off period has expired either a lockout or a strike can occur.

Mr. TOLL. It is, and I expect that to happen during the period of voluntary arbitration. May I answer also by saying that it represents the best possible thinking on the subject of voluntarism in the settlement of labor controversies consistent with governmental regulation of a problem which the labor organizations prefer should be strictly up to the parties involved.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, should voluntary arbitration fail, as the efforts in the Duquesne Light Company strike failed, what remedy would the proponents of this bill advocate?

Mr. TOLL. I would say that I do not expect in a public utility of this kind the labor interests would be found short in their thinking for the benefit of the public. I feel, even though the remedy might involve a possible strike, that you can just as well depend upon the labor organizations to do their duty by the public as you can depend upon management, as in the Duquesne case.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman from Philadelphia be surprised if he read in the Pittsburgh newspapers that a responsible labor leader for the filtration workers intimated, he did not say it directly, that a strike might follow if wage demands were not met by city council? Would he call that responsible labor leadership?

Mr. TOLL. I would say I would not be surprised about anything you might read in the Pittsburgh papers. Furthermore, you do not want to use a reporter as an authority on what labor leaders might do.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I shall re-phrase my question. Would he be surprised if a labor leader in Pittsburgh heading the filtration workers made that statement? Would that be called responsible labor leadership?

Mr. TOLL. I would say, yes. My learned colleague from Clearfield calls my attention to a legalistic view that that would be plain hearsay.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I am not here to defend the Pittsburgh newspapers, they require no defense, but the fact is that that remark was made, according to the newspapers, and I believe a responsible newspaperman made that statement. It is indicative of what would happen if some group, whether labor or management, is disappointed. I repeat, regardless of whether you are on the Democratic side or the Republican side, the public interest should prevail and not the interest of management or labor. When I make this statement, I make it with full confidence that I have examined bills in favor of labor and have done what I think is in the best interest of labor. I believe a bill of this character will prove to be a detriment to labor leadership in years to come.

Mrs. REIBMAN. Mr. Speaker, I think we are losing sight of the fundamental philosophy that underlies a bill of this kind.

The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goldstein, has likened the employes of a public utility to those—I think he referred to them as public workers.

May I say there is a significant difference in a public utility. In the first place, a public utility, although by legal definition is affected by the public interest does not partake of any significant public character. A public utility is operated for profit. As a matter of fact, the law even provides that a fair return must be guaranteed to the public utility for its stockholders and its shareholders, and I think that that fundamental difference underlies the theory of this bill 1768.

I believe too that it should be recognized by every Member of this House that a person who works as a skilled electrician for either a public utility or for a manufacturing concern has a right to expect a fair wage for his efforts, and it does not make any difference whether he is working for a public utility, which is guaranteed a fair return on its investment, or whether he is a skilled electrician who works for a manufacturing concern.

For this reason the same economic weapons which are available to the workingmen and women who work for a manufacturing concern should be equally available to those men and women who work for public utilities.

I have faith in the workingman and woman all over Pennsylvania who also believe they are a part of the public and are just as much concerned with the public welfare as you, and I or employers are because they make up the public too, just as we do.

I believe if a cooling-off period of seventy days, which is provided in this bill, is available to labor and management in order to reach an accord to settle their differences, and they operate in the light of public opinion with the full press blazing upon all of their conferences, in the interest of public welfare, which includes the interests of both labor and management, an agreement will be reached so that the public welfare is protected most fully.

For these reasons, for the very basic philosophy which underlies this kind of legislation, I ask both sides of the House to wholeheartedly support this legislation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?
